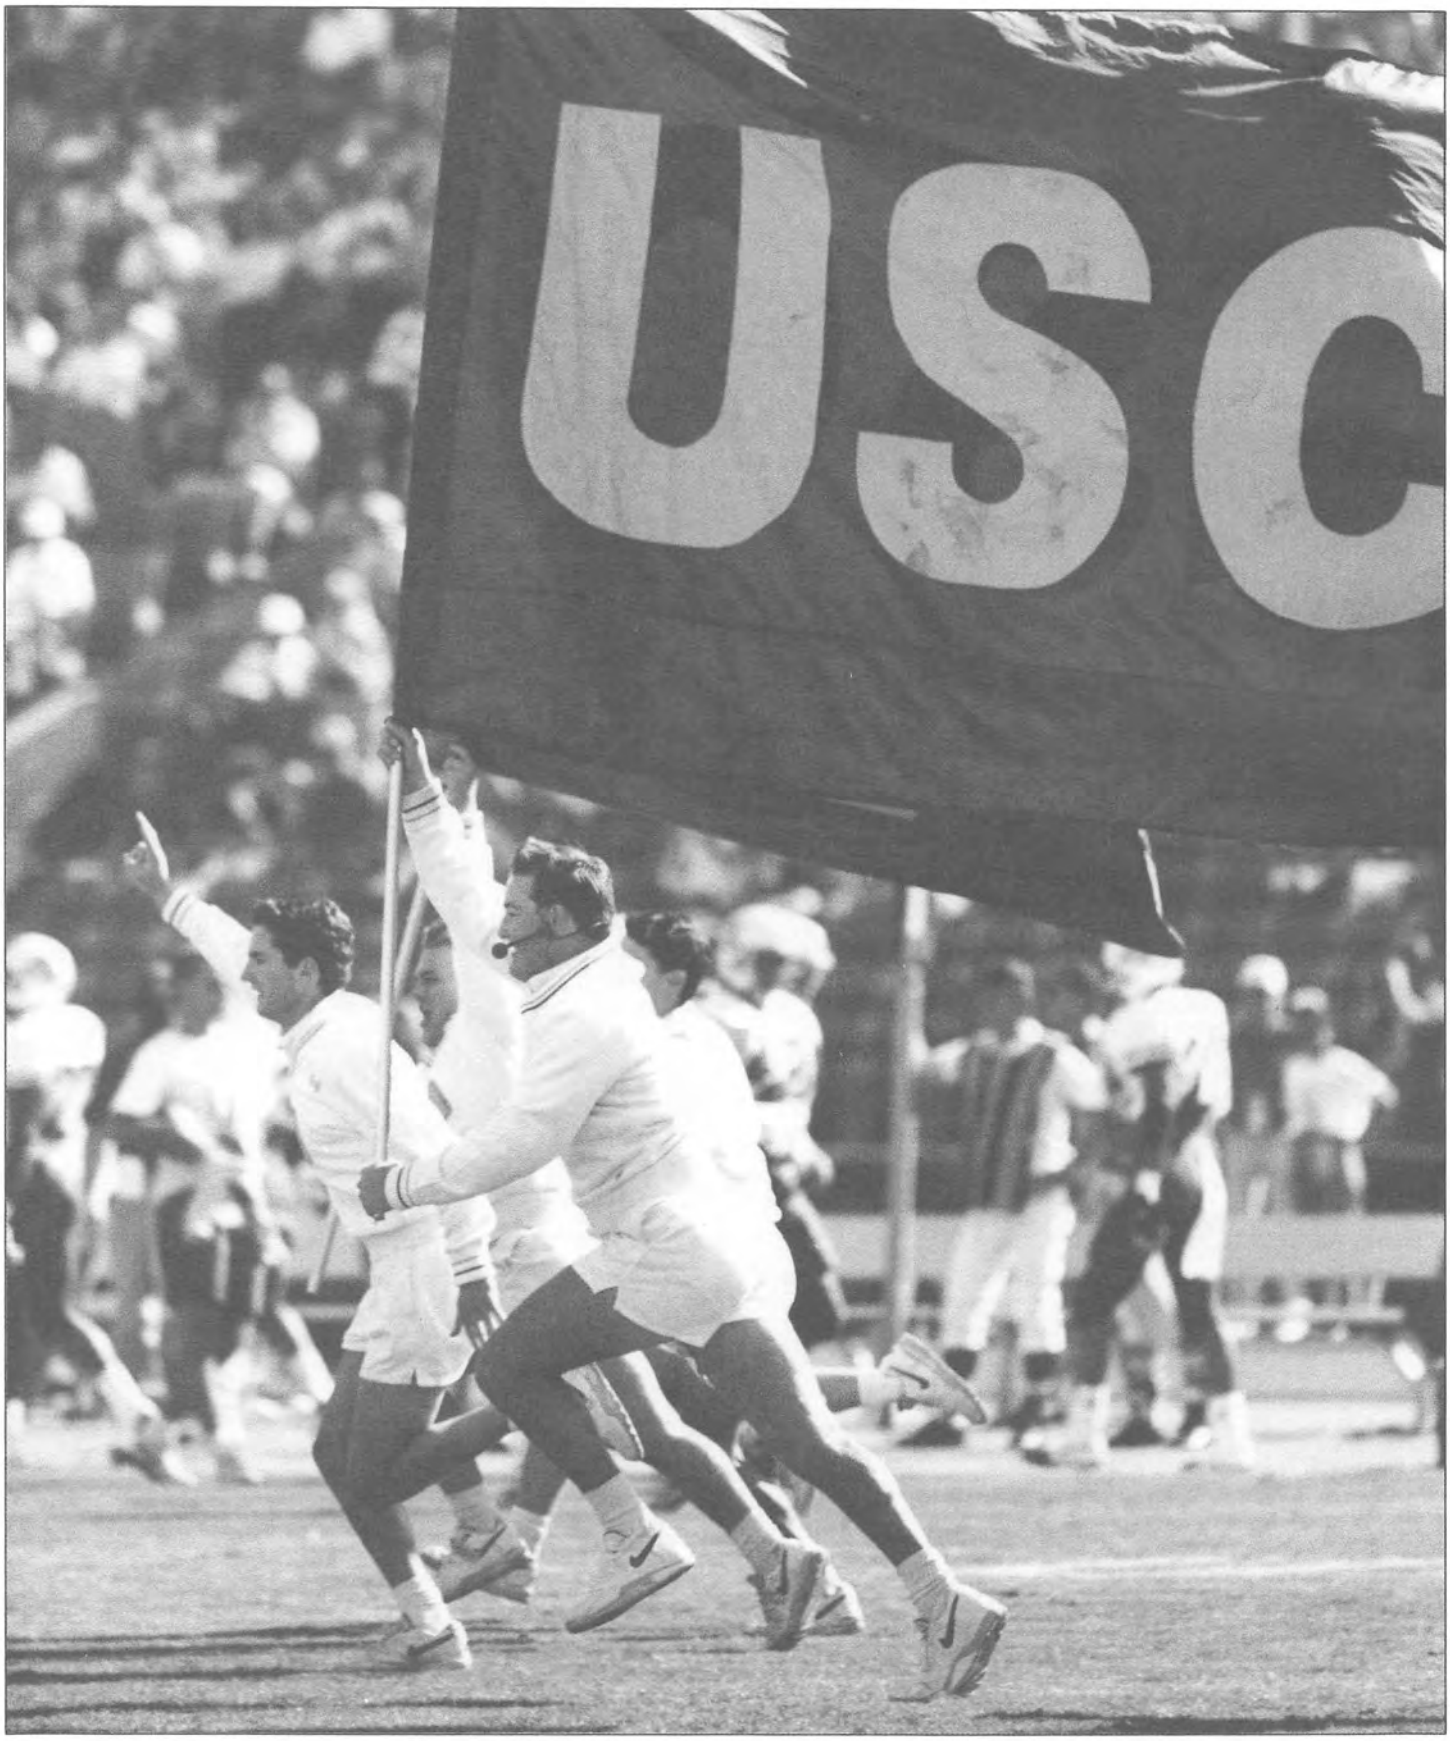
1994 OUTLOOK



1994 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

If ever the adage "something old and something new" was appropriate for a football team, it is for the 1994 USC squad.

THE OLD: Although the Trojans welcome back 68 players from 1993, only 35 were lettermen and just 10 were starters (6 on offense, 4 on defense, not counting the return of both kickers). Among the returnees are a Heisman Trophy candidate and an All-American who is an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award nominee. Last season, Troy won a share of the Pacific-10 championship and, save for 2 more yards at the end of the UCLA game, a near-trip to the Rose Bowl. The Freedom Bowl-victorious Trojans were 8-5 overall (all the losses were to Top 20 teams) and 6-2 in the Pac-10 to rank 25th in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. They accomplished all this despite playing a schedule ranked by USA Today as the nation's fourth toughest.

THE NEW: USC signed 30 top incoming high school and junior college players, including 20 All-Americans, and also added a collegiate transfer, leading many recruiting publications to tab this Trojan class among the Top 5 in the nation. Many of these newcomers figure to play a prominent role in 1994. Five already participated in 1994 spring practice.

How well "the old" and "the new" mix in 1994 will go a long way in determining USC's success.

Last fall's performance and this spring's outstanding recruiting achievements make it obvious that the momentum is shifting back USC's way.

"We've taken a couple of major steps forward to put us back among the nation's elite teams," said coach John Robinson, who returned to USC last season after a 10-year absence and now sports a 79.2% winning record (75-19-2) in his 8 years at Troy. "Our competitive level has improved. We've made strides in our attitude and our level of expectations. And we put together a very good recruiting year.

"There's no question our physical talent is on the upswing. We're headed in a positive direction and we want to keep it going. The key in 1994 is to take advantage of that momentum and take another major step toward our ultimate goal of returning to the top. I told each of our recruits that we expect to win the national championship during their time here."

Leading the way is Heisman Trophy candidate Rob Johnson, who was perhaps the nation's most efficient, productive and accurate quarterback in 1993. An All-Pac-10 first teamer, he set 10 Pac-10 and USC records last year while completing an astonishing 68.6% of his 449 passes for 3,630 yards, 29 touchdowns and just 6 interceptions. He is second on USC's career passing list behind 1988 Heisman Trophy runner-up Rodney Peete.

Helping keep the pressure off Johnson is huge (6-8, 305) offensive tackle Tony Boselli, a 1992 All-American first teamer who is a top candidate for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award (he was a semifinalist last year).

Other returning starters on offense are tailback Shawn Walters, Troy's leading rusher in 1993, elusive wide receiver Ken Grace, USC's No. 3 pass catcher and leading kickoff returner last fall, guard Kris Pollack, a 1993 All-Pac-10 honorable mention choice, and tackle Norberto Garrido, who made the Sophomore All-American second team in 1993. Eight other offensive players who have at least 1 career start under their belts also return: wide receiver Edward Hervey, tight ends (H-backs) Johnny McWilliams and Tyler Cashman, tailback David Dotson, guard-tackle Kyle Ramsay, centers-guards Jeremy Hogue, Robert Loya and Clay Hattabaugh.

The Trojans suffered some key offensive losses, including All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton, Troy's all-time receiving leader who set 12 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993 (he was an NFL first round draft pick), all-purpose fullback Deon Strother, an All-Pac-10 second teamer who was Troy's No. 2 rusher and receiver in 1993, 4-year starting center Craig Gibson, All-Pac-10 honorable mention tight end Bradford Banta, and guard Joel Crisman, plus part-time starting tackle Jason Keiderling.

The returning defensive starters are inside linebacker Jeff Kopp, 1993's leading tackler, outside linebacker Brian Williams, who was second on the Trojans in stops last fall after topping the Trojans in 1992, end-nose tackle Matt Keneley, a 1993 Freshman All-American third teamer, and cornerback John Herpin. Six defenders who have started at least once in a Trojan uniform also are back (inside linebacker Donn Cunnigan, outside linebacker Gerald Caruthers, safeties Micah Phillips, Scott Fields and Sammy Knight, and cornerback Jerald Henry).

Gone from the starting defensive unit are end Willie McGinest, a Lombardi Award semifinalist and All-Pac-10 first teamer last fall who had 29 career sacks and was the fourth pick of the 1994 NFL draft, cornerback Jason Sehorn, an All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick who led Troy with 7 picks in 1993 and was the team's top punt returner, safeties Jason Oliver, a 4-year starter with 11 career thefts, and Mike Salmon, a 3-year starter, All-Pac-10 honorable mention tackle Thomas Holland, inside linebacker Joe Barry, and end Shannon Jones, plus a pair of part-time starters in nose tackle Mike Hinz and end Darren Gallaway.

Last season's punter (John Stonehouse) and placekicker (Cole Ford) return.

As Robinson mixes his "old" and "new" ingredients together in 1994, it's clear to him what the underlying key is.

"We must become a more physical team," he said. "Offensively, we must become an effective running team and defensively we have to stop the run."

Once again, USC is faced with a daunting schedule. Troy plays 5 1993 bowl teams—Notre Dame, Penn State, UCLA, Arizona, and California. There'll be little time for Robinson to develop his 1994 Trojans, as they open the season with a key conference game against Washington on Sept. 3 at home and then travel to Penn State on Sept. 10.

"We must get a lot of new players incorporated into the team as quickly as possible," Robinson said. "The challenge is we must be ready to play early, because we start off with 2 tough games. We must be efficient early on, but that's not always compatible with integrating new players into a system."

OFFENSE

Six starters—quarterback Johnson, tailback Walters, wide receiver Grace, tackles Boselli and Garrido, and guard Pollack--return from a 1993 offensive unit that was high-powered through the air (294.5, 15th in the U.S.) but ineffective on the ground (108.6).

Robinson is regarded by some as a tailback-oriented coach, but in reality he relishes balanced offenses.

"We've got to get yardage out of our running attack and we must continue to improve in the passing area," he said. "No doubt, we have a great quarterback in Johnson and a positive passing environment. But the key is how effectively we can balance our offense with the run. If we can become more physical offensively, that will happen.

"We'll be a multiple offense team. Flexibility, multiplicity and efficiency are keys to our offense, as is being physical on the offensive line. The game has gotten more sophisticated. You've got to use all your weapons on offense or else you'll get overwhelmed. You've got to have balance. People ultimately stop unbalanced offenses. We'll have to be simple and physical, but use the skills we have and be confusing to defenses."

Added offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "We'll look to be more well-rounded in our passing offense without Morton. We want to be well-balanced, have a lot of guys catch passes. With that, we expect to have a reliable running game there game to game. We need to get more physical in order to run the ball well."

QUARTERBACK–"We could be as strong at quarterback in talent and depth as any team in the country," said Robinson.

It's easy to see why senior Johnson (308-of-449, 68.6%, 3,630 yards, 29 TDs, 6 interceptions in 1993), who'll start for his third year, is a leading candidate for the 1994 Heisman Trophy. He had among the best seasons ever for a Trojan signalcaller in 1993. As the All-Pac-10 first team quarterback, he set 10 conference (including lowest interception percentage at 1.23%) and school (including most season completions, passing yards, TDs thrown, completion percentage, and total offense) marks. He was 10th nationally in passing efficiency (155.2). He had 6 games with 300-plus passing yards (including a USC record 392), 5 games with at least a 75.0% completion percentage, and 6 games with 3-plus TD aerials. Already second on USC's all-time passing ladder behind Peete with 490 completions, his 63.6% career completion percentage is above the Trojan mark and just off the Pac-10 record of 64.5% set by California's Rich Campbell. To top all this off, Johnson is a 2-time Pac-10 All-Academic first teamer.

"Johnson has a chance to develop into a great player," said Robinson. "Sure, he is a leading candidate for the Heisman. But more importantly to our team, he can be the total quarterback by providing the winning edge that great players in that position can provide. His accuracy is phenomenal and his interception rate is amazing. If he can maintain those skills and improve his play, we're looking at a special player."

QUARTERBACKS
ROB JOHNSON, Sr.	'94 Heisman candidate
Matt Koffler, So.
Brad Otton, So.	Weber State transfer
Kyle Wachholtz, Jr.	Academically ineligible in '94

Behind Johnson, the position is well-stocked. Looking impressive after joining the Trojans this past spring (he's eligible immediately, taking advantage of the NCAA's new Division I-AA to Division I-A transfer rule) was soph Brad Otton, who transferred from Weber State where he started in 1993. An All-Big Sky honorable mention selection last fall while completing 183-of-314 passes (58.3%) for 2,037 yards and 15 TDs, he set NCAA Division I-AA freshman single game records when he threw for 540 yards and had 536 yards of total offense against Northern Arizona. He was 13th in Division I-AA in total offense (249.1). He might also be the holder on placekicks. Sophomore Matt Koffler saw brief action in 1993, completing his only pass attempt of the season. And whenever rifle-armed junior Kyle Wachholtz (17-of-25, 68.0%, 184 yards, 2 TDs, 0 interceptions in 1993) came in, USC's offense didn't miss a beat. He'll miss the 1994 season while academically ineligible (he'll serve as the scout team quarterback this fall).

"Otton is a gifted quarterback," said Robinson. "He throws with great accuracy and has the kind of vision that gives him a chance to develop into an outstanding quarterback. Koffler improved dramatically throughout this past year. I have confidence in him. Wachholtz has the potential to be outstanding. His time will come. He's been consistently excellent in practice and his limited game appearances."

TAILBACK–Inexperience among the tailbacks and injuries on the offensive line partly explained USC's struggling rushing attack in 1993. Only once did a Trojan rush for 100 yards in a game. In 1994, Robinson is looking for a big jump in production from his tailbacks, whether among the returnees or the newcomers.

"Tailback was a totally inexperienced position last year and it showed," he said. "A key to our offense is how much improvement we can make here."

David Dotson, So.	4 starts in '93
Leonard Green, In. Jr.	'93 J.C. All-American

SHAWN WALTERS, So.	USC's top '93 rusher
Delon Washington, In. Fr.	'93 prep All-American
LaVale Woods, Rs. Fr.

Only 2 players have ever carried the ball as Trojan tailbacks. Walters (156 carries, 711 yards, 4.6 avg., 7 TDs rushing in 1993, plus 15 catches 7.1 avg., 1 TD receiving), a sophomore who combines good size and speed, started the last 7 games of 1993 at tailback and led the Trojans in rushing. He had USC's only 100-yard rushing game last fall (116 at Washington). Fellow soph Dotson (66 carries, 204 yards, 3.0 avg., 1 TD rushing in 1993, plus 14 kickoff returns, 17.9 avg.) started 4 early-season games last year and was a backup the rest of the way.

"Walters is becoming a very physical runner," said Robinson. "He has very good vision. He needs to increase his strength and ability to be physical. he's like a Barry Foster, that up-the-field, break-tackles runner. Dotson is an explosive runner with top-flight speed. Both catch the ball well and are smart runners."

Redshirt freshman LaVale Woods was opening the coaches' eyes in 1993 pre-season practice, but then suffered an ankle sprain which kept him out of action. He then hurt his knee while practicing long jumping for the USC track team and missed 1994 spring practice. Junior Terry Barnum was converted from cornerback this past spring (he had 2,800 career rushing yards as a prep tailback) and looked good.

QB ROB JOHNSON

TB SHAWN WALTERS

"I'm excited about Woods," said Robinson. "He impressed everyone last year before getting hurt. He's short, but is very powerful and quick. But the spring knee injury was a major disappointment and set him back. I'm impressed with Barnum's quickness and ability to find holes. He can add a lot on the offensive side."

This fall, a quartet of All-Americans join the tailback corps: junior college transfer Leonard Green (Mt. San Antonio CC in Walnut, Calif.), who is a junior, and prepsters Marlin Carey (Mt. Carmel HS in San Diego, Calif.), Rodney Sermons (Bishop Amat HS in La Puente, Calif.) and Delon Washington (Kimball HS in Dallas, Tex.).

FULLBACK–While the graduated Strother turned fullback into an often-used position in 1993, the spot could see a hodgepodge of players in Troy's 1994 scheme. At times, tailbacks will man the job, while bruising-type fullbacks will play in short yardage situations.

The traditional fullback candidates include sophomore Mark Farlin, a converted inside linebacker, and redshirt freshman Taso Papadakis, who will also play some inside linebacker in short yardage formations.

"We're thin at fullback," said Robinson. "Farlin is becoming an effective blocker. He's a dedicated player and will find a way to help our team. Papadakis has a bright future. He's a leader, he's tough and physical, and he's very smart.

"Besides the fullbacks on the roster, there figures to be some experimentation with some tailbacks taking turns at fullback. We'll be more of a 2-back team, instead of a tailback-fullback backfield. It'll be a Marcus Allen-Charles White thing, like we did in 1979. Please, God, let them be like that!"

WIDE RECEIVER–When your receiving corps loses someone the caliber of Morton, who'll go down among USC's greatest wide receivers ever, there figures to be a dropoff. But, while Morton will be difficult to replace, the Trojans have other talented pass catchers on the roster. The returning wide outs had a combined 66 catches last fall.

Speedy seniors Grace (36 catches, 12.7 avg., 2 TDs in 1993) and Hervey (22 catches, 10.0 avg., 2 TDs in 1993) shared time at the spot opposite Morton in 1993, with Grace getting 10 starts and Hervey 3. Both were J.C. transfers last season who made immediate impacts. Grace was Troy's third-leading receiver and also led the squad in kickoff returns (19 returns, 21.4 avg. in 1993), while Hervey–who sprinted a bit for the Trojan tracksters this past spring–was the No. 5 pass catcher.

"Grace and Hervey made amazing progress in 1993," said Robinson. "I'm very impressed with both of them. They both possess great speed, moves, hands and ability. If both can continue to improve, they can be big-play receivers for us."

Also available are seniors Ryan Lenderman (6 catches, 10.2 avg. in 1993), who also could repeat as the holder on all placekicks, and DelVaughn Alexander (1 catch, 13.0 avg., 1 TD in 1993), who is a triple jumper/high jumper on the USC track team, and fast redshirt freshman Anthony Volsan, who sprinted for the tracksters this past spring. He might also return kicks and punts. Lenderman played on USC's baseball team in the spring of 1994.

Keyshawn Johnson, Jr.	'93 J.C. All-American
Ryan Lenderman, Sr.
Anthony Volsan, Rs. Fr.

"Lenderman has great hands," said Robinson. "If he remains injury-free, he can play a major role in 1994. Alexander was a pleasant surprise last fall. He is a great competitor and he can really catch the ball. And Volsan has great speed and tools. He'll play a lot and should have an impact catching passes and returning kicks."

USC signed 2 of the nation's top receivers from last season, both who could figure prominently in 1994: All-Americans Keyshawn Johnson (West Los Angeles CC in Los Angeles, Calif.), a one-time USC ballboy who could form half of a talented "Johnson & Johnson" battery, and Larry Parker (Bakersfield HS in Bakersfield, Calif.). Johnson participated in spring practice as a junior and could end up in the starting lineup, while Parker enrolls this fall. And Ken Haslip (Muir HS in Pasadena, Calif.), a top prep hurdler, might be tried at receiver and cornerback.

"Johnson had a great spring and has enormous potential," said Robinson. "He's a big, physical receiver who can catch the ball in traffic, but he also has quickness and good instincts. He plays like and even is built like (UCLA All-American) J.J. Stokes."

TIGHT END–Robinson uses his tight ends in a variety of roles, including the traditional down position and the H-back (tight-end-in-motion). Even though Banta, a conventional tight end, is gone, USC returns 3 experienced players.

Soph John Allred (10 catches, 9.3 avg. in 1993) played often as Banta's backup last fall, while juniors Cashman (21 catches, 8.6 avg., 2 TDs in 1993) and McWilliams (17 catches, 8.7 avg., 4 TDs in 1993) split the H-back job in 1993. Sophomore Jeff Diltz, a walk-on who has earned a scholarship, will back up Allred. Expect all of them to be more prominent this year.

Kenny Cooper, In. Fr.
Jeff Diltz, So.
Rom Douglas, In. Fr.	'93 prep All-American
Johnny McWilliams, Jr.	'93 co-starting H-back

"This area is one of the keys to our offense," said Robinson. "All 4 players have outstanding potential and we expect to get more use out of them. They'll be on the field more now. Allred is everything you look for in a tight end. He's physical, tough, has fine athletic ability and is becoming a good receiver. He's on his way to becoming an All-American. Cashman and McWilliams can be major threats as receivers.

TE JOHNNY McWILLIAMS

TE TYLER CASHMAN

They've become an extremely important part of our passing game. Diltz' skill level has grown to the point where we have confidence that he can play effectively."

Coming aboard this fall are Rome Douglas (Claremont HS in Claremont, Calif.), a prep All-American, and Kenny Cooper (Plant City HS in Plant City, Fla.).

OFFENSIVE LINE–If USC's running attack is to improve, the offensive line must lead the way.

"The offensive line is maybe the most important area on our team," said Robinson. "We must be more physical up front, we must control the line of scrimmage with our running game, and we must stay healthy. I like the players we have. This is a big line. How they play and how quick they are are the keys."

The 3 returning starters form a solid, beefy nucleus. Senior left tackle Boselli (6-8, 305), a 1992 All-American first teamer and 1993 Lombardi Award semifinalist who missed 5 games last fall with a kneecap injury, will be starting for his fourth year. An Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award candidate, he's in the mold of USC's many past great offensive linemen: big, powerful, quick and dominating. He's also a 2-time Pac-10 All-Academic first team pick. Senior left guard Pollack (6-5, 290) will start for his third season. He was an All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection in 1993 despite missing 2 games with a shoulder injury. Imposing junior right tackle Garrido (6-7, 305) played impressively enough last fall to earn Sophomore All-American second team honors.

"Boselli and Pollack must play 2 of the most significant roles on our team," said Robinson. "They are physical and emotional leaders of this team. If they stay healthy and improve the way I think they will, we're looking at 2 of the best offensive linemen in the country. Boselli has the overall athletic ability to be an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award winner. He's competitive, athletic, has great balance and has devoted himself to being stronger. Pollack is a very mobile, athletic guard. With added strength, he can be among the best around. Garrido had a very good year as a first-time starter in 1993. Now he must develop into a consistent, solid veteran. His shadow could fill the whole side of a building. He looks like he's 7 feet tall and 400 pounds."

A trio of juniors with previous starting experience at guard will vie to replace Gibson at center: Loya (7 starts in 1992), Hogue (4 starts in 1993), and Hattabaugh (1 start in 1992, 1 in 1991). Loya enters the fall as the starter. Hogue, who won 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic first team honors and is on track to be a Rhodes Scholar candidate, missed spring ball while recuperating from back surgery. Hattabaugh redshirted in 1993 with a knee injury. Also available at center is converted defensive lineman Jonathan Himebauch, a redshirt frosh.

"Loya stepped in at center this spring and was right at home," said Robinson. "He's tough, physical, quick and smart. He possesses the kind of attitude we need on our offensive line. We have high expectations for Hogue. If he's healthy and can regain his strength, he'll be a major factor. He's very tough and smart. Hattabaugh is a very tough, competitive player. He should compete hard for playing time. Himebauch is a very smart, dedicated player. In time, he'll become a very good center."

Big (6-7, 290) redshirt freshman Phalen Pounds emerged from 1994 spring practice as the starter at Crisman's open right guard spot. Also in the mix there and as Pollack's backup are junior Kyle Ramsay (3 starts in 1993), who can also play tackle, redshirt frosh Chris Brymer and soph Dong Koo. Also available at tackle are senior Andre Abrams and junior John Michels.

"Pounds has a great future. He's very ambitious," said Robinson. "He has great feet and balance despite his massize size. Ramsay is becoming more confident and physical. He'll play an important role for us. Brymer is a very powerful player who has a bright future. Koo has made real progress. He has become physical and competitive. If Abrams can put together health, physical condition and focus, he can play an important role for us. Michels is becoming very efficient. And he has the intelligence and flexibility to play several spots.

"Some of these players are going to have to step up and be effective. They all have the potential and some have the experience. There'll be some good competition."

Arriving this fall are a trio of junior college transfers who enroll as juniors–guard Richard Beatie (Glendale CC in Glendale, Calif.) and center Jesse Gomez (Rancho Santiago CC in Santa Ana, Calif.), both All-Americans, plus tackle Heith Baughman (Bakersfield CC in Bakersfield, Calif.)–and a pair of prepsters in tackle Ken Bowen (Dr. Phillips HS in Orlando, Fla.) and guard David Pratchard (Canyon HS in Canyon Country, Calif.). Gomez is the leading candidate to be the long snapper.

DEFENSE

Only 4 starters–inside linebacker Kopp, outside linebacker Williams, cornerback Herpin and end-nose tackle Keneley–are back from a defense which allowed 340.4 total yards and 19.4 points per game in 1993. USC was 14th in the U.S. in pass efficiency defense (105.7) last year.

"Our problems on defense are similar to those on offense," said Robinson. "We must stop the run and be more physical up front. That was the main focus of our recruiting: to enchance the physical ability of our front 7. And, although we defended the pass well last year, we must improve our pass rush. Overall, I think our defense will be significantly improved this year. It will be faster and has better athletes."

Added Don Lindsey, USC's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach who serves as Robinson's assistant head coach: "Simply put, to be better defensively than last year, we must defend the run effectively, we must create turnovers, and we must be mentally tough. I believe this defensive unit will play well together, with good leadership, enthusiasm and aggressiveness. Because we're so young on this side of the ball, we'll see improvement each week. I'm excited about this defense. It's a no-name, no-star defense, but there's something appealing about that. Everybody will be looking to make plays and play with cohesiveness. We're cautiously optimistic. The players' skills and speed are better, but not many have proven themselves yet on this level."

As the Trojans sport a 3-4 defensive scheme in 1994, there will be some slight position adjustments from last year among the personnel.

DEFENSIVE LINE–USC was hit hard by graduation losses on the defensive line. Some young players and newcomers will have to step in and be noticed.

"We need the defensive front to be a physically-controlling, dominating group," said Lindsey. "They must be an attacking, force-the-action unit."

Only sophomore Keneley (41 tackles, 7 for losses, 1 blocked field goal in 1993), a Freshman All-American third team pick in 1993, has any starting experience (he started 9 times in the interior last season). He is listed as a starter at the end spot left open by the departure of Jones, but he could also see action at nose tackle.

"I expect Keneley to make great progress this year," said Lindsey. "With improved confidence and aggressiveness, he could be one of the real up-and-coming defensive linemen in the Pac-10."

Darrell Russell, DE, In. Fr.	'93 prep All-American
Anthony Sanford, NT, In. Jr.
Antoine Simpson, DE, In. Fr.	'93 prep All-American

Senior Elic Mahone, who redshirted 1993 with a shoulder injury, emerged at the other end spot (McGinest's former position). Other end candidates from last year's roster include soph Willie Lowery (12 tackles, 3 deflections in 1993) and redshirt frosh Germaine Gray, who was slowed last year with a knee injury. Junior college transfer Marcus Bonds (West Los Angeles CC in Los Angeles, Calif.), a junior, participated in spring drills and figures to see lots of action.

"Mahone can be a big timer," said Lindsey. "He possesses outstanding speed and quickness, and is the fastest, quickest of our defensive linemen. And he has impressive strength. We expect great improvement from Lowery. He's capable of making an impact. Gray has started to come on and has a good future. Bonds' strength is as a pass rusher. We have big expecations for his big-play ability."

Listed as the starter at the nose tackle spot vacated by Holland is big (6-4, 300) junior Stuart Gage, who was switched to defensive line prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl (he played there briefly, but didn't make a tackle) after spending his earlier Trojan career as an offensive lineman. Also at that spot is soph Chris Miller, who will be used primarily as a long snapper.

"Gage possesses all the attributes you look for in a dominating nose man: size, strength and toughness," said Lindsey. "He just needs more experience. Miller has shown improvement. He provides us with a great attitude and toughness."

ILB JEFF KOPP

DE-NT MATT KENELEY

INSIDE LINEBACKER–"Our inside linebackers must be able to play sideline to sideline," said Lindsey. "They must be tough against the run up the middle, but they must also be able to get to the outside run game. And with the wide open offenses we see today, the inside linebackers also have to be able to defend the pass in the open field."

Lindsey thinks he has just such a player in rugged senior Kopp (83 tackles, 8 for losses, 4 deflections in 1993), who has been moved back inside this year after spending 1993 as an outside linebacker, where he led Troy in tackles. It's not an unfamiliar position to him, as he played inside linebacker in 1991 and 1992 (he even started 3 games inside last fall). He'll be starting for his third year.

"Kopp will be a much-improved player because he'll be able to concentrate strictly on inside linebacker in 1994," said Lindsey. "He was our most consistent linebacker last season. He's self-motivated and will provide outstanding leadership. I'd like to see him turn it loose and play with reckless abandon this year."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS
Donn Cunnigan, Sr.	3 starts in '93 as OLB
Brian Haas, Jr.	Converted OLB
Errick Herrin, Jr.	2-time J.C. All-American
Tarriel Hopper, Jr.	Converted S
JEFF KOPP, Sr.	USC's top '93 tackler
Taso Papadakis, Rs. Fr.	Will also play FB

Senior Cunnigan (48 tackles, 4 for losses, 5 deflections in 1993), who started 3 times in 1993 at outside linebacker and before that was a safety, and juco transfer Errick Herrin (Mt. San Jacinto CC in San Jacinto, Calif.), a junior who was a 2-time J.C. All-American after spending 4 years in the Marines, figure to share time at the other inside linebacker spot left open by Barry's graduation. Herrin participated in 1994 spring practice. Also in the mix are juniors Brian Haas (13 tackles in 1993), also an outside linebacker last year, and Tarriel Hopper (3 tackles, 2 fumble recoveries in 1993), who played safety last fall, and–in short yardage situations–redshirt frosh Taso Papadakis, who'll also play fullback.

"Cunnigan has untapped potential," said Lindsey. "As an ex-defensive back, he is a very good pass defender. With improved aggressiveness, he can become a complete inside linebacker. Herrin possesses all the physical and mental traits of an outstanding linebacker. With game experience, he should develop into a top Pac-10 linebacker. One word describes Haas: tough. He is as coachable, consistent and focused of a linebacker as I've ever been around. He understands his strengths and weaknesses and plays to them. Hopper gives us quality depth and toughness, and is also a fine special teams player."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER–The outside linebacker corps could be the strength of the Trojan defense.

"I feel this will be a strong point for our defense," said Lindsey. "We'll have a good mix of experience and youth. There are a number of good players, although none are superstars."

Super-quick senior Williams (78 tackles, 6 for losses, 2 fumble recoveries in 1993) returns at 1 outside linebacker spot where he was second on the Trojans in tackles in 1993 after leading the squad in 1992. He'll be starting for his third year. Senior Caruthers (22 tackles in 1993), a 5-game starter in 1993, will push him for playing time, though. Also lining up here is sophomore Greg Tellam.

"I was really pleased with how Williams improved from mid-season on last year," said Lindsey. "He still has unlimited talent, which will surface with continued hard work. Caruthers is probably the best of our hard-nosed run-defending outside linebackers. Tellam is a highly motivated player with great work habits and the desire to be a top player."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Junior Rickman, Rs. Fr.	Converted S
Errol Small, Sr.
Greg Tellam, So.
BRIAN WILLIAMS, Sr.	USC's No. 2 tackler in '93

With Kopp moving back inside, senior Errol Small (15 tackles in 1993) and J.C. transfer Israel Ifeayani (Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa, Calif.) will make a run for the other starting role. Ifeanyi, a junior who participated in 1994 spring drills, is a native of Nigeria. Also looking to get in the rotation is converted safety Junior Rickman, a redshirt freshman.

"Small has shown lots of progress," said Lindsey. "With improved mental toughness and control, he can be an excellent playmaker against both the run and pass. Plus, he's a great special teams player. Ifeanyi has a passion for greatness. He can be a Willie McGinest-type player. He has that ability. We have great expectations for Rickman's future."

Two talented high schoolers arrive this fall: prep All-American Willie Perryman (Burbank HS in Burbank, Calif.) and Bob Aubrey (St. Francis HS in La Canada, Calif.).

OLB BRIAN WILLIAMS

ILB DONN CUNNIGAN

SECONDARY–Three-fourths of USC's 1993 secondary is gone this year. But the talented young players likely to fill in leave Lindsey optimistic.

"In the secondary, we need players who can support our run defense and prevent big plays, and who can combine that with the ability to play zone or match up well in man-to-man coverage," said Lindsey. "Our safeties are excellent in run support because they're so aggressive, but they must improve their pass defense, while our cornerbacks are just the opposite, good pass defenders but lacking in run support. And, overall, we must improve our speed in the secondary."

Only senior Herpin (34 tackles, 8 deflections, 2 interceptions in 1993), a steady cornerback, returns from last year's lineup. But keep an eye on the backup here: sophomore Quincy Harrison, who was converted this past spring from wide receiver to take advantage of his speed and was impressive.

"Herpin started slow last year but finished on the upswing," said Lindsey. "He has the talent to be a top cornerback in the Pac-10. He just needs to convince himself of that and then go do it. He's a very good man-to-man defender. Harrison's performance this past spring, his work habits and his continued improvement really excited us. He has great speed and size, and he tackles as well as anyone in our secondary. He has a chance to be a big timer."

Several squadmen return to contend for the other corner spot vacated by Sehorn. Senior Henry (16 tackles, 1 interception in 1993) brings the most experience, with 11 career starts to his name. Then there's junior Jesse Davis, a junior college transfer last fall who redshirted with a knee injury.

"Once Henry regains his self-confidence, he can be really effective for us," said Lindsey. "He's capable of making excellent plays in man coverage, but he must improve his zone play and his tackling skills. If Davis can regain the quickness and speed he lost from his knee injury, he'll be a competitor for playing time both at cornerback and in extra defensive back situations."

Although both safeties will be new, many of the candidates did log significant playing time in 1993. Replacing Salmon at strong safety will be either hard-hitting junior Fields, who gained 231 yards rushing with 2 TDs last year as a tailback (he even started once) but was moved back to safety prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl (he was a reserve safety in 1992), or equally-aggressive soph Knight (15 tackles in 1993), a 1-game starter last fall (he was the first USC true freshman to start at safety in the post-World War II era).

In place of Oliver at free safety, look for Phillips (42 tackles, 6 deflections in 1993), a heady junior who started the last 3 games of last fall. He'll be backed by redshirt frosh Ryan Tyiska.

"Fields, Knight and Phillips are in the same mold," said Lindsey. "The addition of Fields to the defense late last year was a real delight. He brings excellent speed and football savvy. He has a tremendous desire to compete and be aggressive. Knight is a great competitor and is extremely physical, although that sometimes gets him out of position. With improved speed and discipline, he can be outstanding. I wish I had 20 players like Phillips. He did an excellent job coming in late last season under pressure. He played extremely well not only then, but in our nickel package. He's aggressive, has super strength and very good speed. Tyiska had a very impressive spring. With continued improvement in his overall speed, he can earn some playing time in the secondary and be a great contributor on our special teams."

It's also possible that an incoming defensive back will work into the playing rotation this fall. There will be 4 new cornerbacks–prep All-Americans Prentice Hill (Carter HS in Dallas, Tex.) and Brian Kelly (Overland HS in Aurora, Colo.), plus Ken Haslip (Muir HS in Pasadena, Calif.), who might also be tried at wide receiver, and Mario Bradley (Cerritos CC in Norwalk, Calif.), a junior–and a new safety–prep All-American Grant Pearsall (Villa Park HS in Villa Park, Calif.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

The punter (Stonehouse), placekicker (Ford), holder (Lenderman) and both kickoff returners (Grace and Dotson) are back, but some of these players will be pushed for their jobs. USC must find a new snapper and punt returner.

"We must find a way to develop elite special teams," said Robinson. "We were okay in this area last year, but we didn't seize the initiative. We need to make major improvements here because we need the edge that outstanding special teams give you. We need to be among the best in the conference in this area. We have a chance at doing that."

Inside linebacker Cunnigan and outside linebacker Small have been appointed special teams co-captains.

SPECIALISTS
Adam Abrams, PK, In. Fr.	'93 prep All-American
COLE FORD, PK, Sr.
JOHN STONEHOUSE, P, Jr.	'38.3 avg. in '93

PUNTER–Junior Stonehouse (38.3 avg. in 1993) returns for his third year as the punter. He had 6 boots of 50-plus yards in 1993, including a career-long 67-yarder. In his career, 27 of his punts have pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line. Senior placekicker Ford will again serve as the backup.

"I think Stonehouse will have a great year," said Robinson. "He's worked very hard on his mechanics and was impressive in the spring. He's experienced, has a good leg, and is ready to break onto the national punting scene."

PLACEKICKER–Strong-legged senior Ford (15-of-18 PATs, 2-of-6 field goals in 1993), who missed 7 mid-season games last year with a back injury, hopes to be the placekicker for his fourth year. In his career, he's kicked 20 field goals, 61 PATs and had 58 kickoffs not returned out of the end zone.

But pushing him this fall will be prep All-American Adam Abrams (The Bishop's School in La Jolla, Calif.), the brother of Stanford kicker Eric Abrams (interestingly, Stonehouse's brother, Paul, used to punt for Stanford).

"Ford had an up and down season in 1993," said Robinson. "He missed some games with an injury and at times was erratic. But he improved his mechanics greatly in this past spring's practice and I expect him to have a great season."

SNAPPER–Banta, last year's flawless snapper, is gone, opening the door for either junior center Gomez, the J.C. transfer, or sophomore nose tackle Miller.

HOLDER–Senior wide receiver Lenderman held most of last year and performed without a hitch, but soph quarterback Otton did the duty in 1994 spring drills.

RETURNERS–Senior wide receiver Grace (22.5 avg. in 1993) and soph tailback Dotson (17.9 avg. in 1993) handled the kickoff returns last year and might do so again this year, although Robinson could open the job up. But a replacement for Sehorn as the punt returner must be found. Possiblities include Grace, redshirt freshman wide receiver Volsan and some of the new players.

COACHES

What a homecoming 1993 was for John Robinson.

After a 10-year absence, Robinson--known not only for his success and coaching ability, but for the passion he exudes for the game and the way he is able to motivate his players--returned to USC on Jan. 3, 1993 as head football coach.

With him came a renewed optimism and enthusiasm from Trojan fans and players. And Robinson did not disappoint.

Despite playing a schedule ranked by USA Today as the fourth toughest in the nation--featuring 9 bowl teams from 1992, 7 teams who played in 1993 bowls, 6 opponents who were ranked in the final Top 25, and only 5 home games--Robinson guided Troy to a share of the 1993 Pacific-10 championship and, save for 2 more yards at the end of the UCLA game, a near trip to the Rose Bowl. His Trojans were 8-5 overall (all the losses were to Top 20 teams) and 6-2 in the Pac-10 to rank 25th in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. His team won the Freedom Bowl, giving him a 5-1 post-season record. The 1993 Trojans set 5 USC season passing records, including most yards (3,829), most TDs (31) and lowest interception rate (1.26%). Wide receiver Johnnie Morton, a consensus All-American, and quarterback Rob Johnson set 22 Pac-10 and USC records between them.

Robinson, 59, replaced Larry Smith, who resigned Jan. 1 after 6 seasons at USC.

John's overall 8-year USC record now stands at 75-19-2 (79.2%, making him the third winningest active Division I-A coach with a minimum of 5 years experience) and his 78.9% winning mark versus Pac-10 teams is the fourth best percentage in league history (he's 44-11-2, 13th on the Pac-10 win ladder). All 8 of his Trojan teams have won at least 8 games.

Robinson won 81.9% of his games (67-14-2) in his original 7 seasons (1976-82) at USC, averaging nearly 10 wins a year. He won the national championship in 1978 with a 12-1 mark (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles (along with 2 second-place and 2 third-place finishes), and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (going 4-1, with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. From 1978 through 1980, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans. He was National Coach of the Year in 1979 with his 11-0-1 team and Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1976 and 1978. His first team in 1976 went 11-1, winning its final 11 contests, and he became the league's first rookie head coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl. That tied the NCAA record for most wins by a first-year head coach.

His Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses with dominant defenses. USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. The 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

This is actually Robinson's third go-around at Troy. He was USC's offensive coordinator for 3 years (1972-74) under John McKay when the Trojans captured the national title twice (1972 and 1974) and won 3 bowls (including a pair of Rose Bowls).

Robinson coached the Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game (1985 and 1989). He coached more games (153) for more years (9) than any other Rams coach.

Considered an expert on the running game, Robinson has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

He spent 1992 as a television analyst with CBS-TV (handling NFL games), USA Network (doing World League games) and Prime Ticket (handling 3 USC football telecasts).

Now with more than 30 years of coaching experience, Robinson began his coaching career as an assistant at Oregon for 12 seasons (1960-71). He also was the backfield coach with the Oakland Raiders in 1975, working under childhood friend John Madden. He spent 4 months (November of 1982 to February of 1983) as USC's senior vice president for university relations before taking the Rams job.

Born on July 25, 1935, Robinson grew up in Daly City, Calif. He starred in football (earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end) and baseball at Serra High in San Mateo. He then lettered at end at Oregon when the Ducks won the 1957 Pacific Coast Conference title and played in the Rose Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Oregon in 1958.

Robinson has 4 grown children, daughters Teresa and Lynn and sons David (an assistant coach at USC) and Christopher, and 2 step-daughters, Karilyn and Elizabeth. His wife, Linda, who owned her own modeling agency for 10 years, now spends her time watercoloring and designing greeting cards, besides being at her husband's side at every USC event possible.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DON LINDSEY

Assistant Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator
Linebackers

One of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators, Don Lindsey is in the second year of his second stint at USC. He returned to Troy in January of 1993 after a 12-year hiatus. He's not only USC's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, but he's also the assistant head coach.

Lindsey, 50, who has been coaching for 29 years, has a wealth of varied experience with a number of successful programs (he's been associated with 4 national championship teams).

Lindsey spent 10 years as an assistant at USC (1971-80), the first 5 under John McKay and the final 5 under John Robinson. He was USC's defensive coordinator the last 4 years. He also handled inside linebackers every year except 1979, when he was in charge of the secondary. USC won 3 national championships (1972-74-78) and led the conference in total defense 7 times (1972 through 1977 and in 1980) during his first go-around at the school.

Lindsey came to USC from Missouri, where he was the defensive coordinator in 1992 under Bob Stull.

Before that, he was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach under Bill Curry at both Georgia Tech for 4 years (1984-87) and Alabama for 3 seasons (1988-90). The 1990 Alabama squad led the nation in pass defense. He was out of football during the 1991 season.

Lindsey was defensive coordinator at Arkansas for 3 years (1981-83) under Lou Holtz. The Razorbacks led the country in scoring defense in 1982.

Lindsey began his coaching career at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 2 years (1965-66), the first season handling the offensive backs and the second year working with the secondary (the Crimson Tide won the 1965 national championship and in 1966 led the nation in scoring defense). He then was the defensive coordinator at Montana State in 1967 under Jim Sweeney and moved with Sweeney to Washington State for 2 seasons (1968-69), serving as the offensive coordinator. He coached the defensive backs at Arkansas in 1970 under Frank Broyles.

Lindsey played quarterback and safety at Arkansas-Monticello, lettering for 3 years (1962-64) and earning Little All-American honors in 1964. He earned a bachelor's degree from Arkansas-Monticello in 1965 and a master's degree in education from Alabama in 1967.

Born Sept. 17, 1943, he was a prep All-American quarterback at Camden (Ark.) High, where he starred in 4 sports.

Lindsey and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Michelle, 13.

MIKE RILEY

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Innovative, enthusiastic and successful, Mike Riley is in his second year as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 1993.

He was named the Pac-10's top assistant in 1993 by the Mesa Tribune for taking "the Trojan passing game to a level never before reached at USC. He made the (Rob) Johnson-to-(Johnnie) Morton combination week in and week out the most effective offensive weapon in the Pac-10." Indeed, Johnson and Morton were All-Pac-10 first teamers. Johnson set 10 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993, while Morton—a first round NFL draft pick—earned All-American first team acclaim and became USC's career receiving leader.

Riley has been part of national championship squads as a college player and as a coach in the collegiate and pro ranks.

Riley, 41, came to USC after serving as head coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders for 2 years (1991-92), posting an 11-9 record (including 7-3 in 1992).

Before that, he was head coach of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers for 4 seasons (1987-90), going 40-32 (plus 4-2 in the playoffs) and winning the Grey Cup in 1988 and 1990 (his quarterback in 1988 was ex-Trojan Sean Salisbury). He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990. His 12-6 mark in 1987 was the best by a CFL rookie coach since Bud Grant went 13-3 with Winnipeg in 1957 (Grant later coached the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame).

Riley was Winnipeg's secondary coach for 3 years (1983-85) and then spent 1986 as defensive coordinator at Northern Colorado.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at California in 1975 and at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., in 1976, then was the secondary coach at Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore., for 6 years (1977-82). Linfield was 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship in 1982.

He played defensive back at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 4 years (1971-74), as the Crimson Tide won the 1973 national crown and 4 SEC titles. He earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Alabama in 1974.

Born July 6, 1953, Riley quarterbacked Corvallis (Ore.) High to the state title in 1970.

His father, Bud, was a head coach in the CFL (at Winnipeg, Hamilton and Calgary) and an assistant at Oregon State.

Riley and his wife, Dee, have a son, Matthew, 10, and a daughter, Kate, 6.

MIKE BARRY
Offensive Line

Known as an outstanding offensive line coach, Mike Barry is in his second season at USC. He came to Troy in January of 1993.

He is in charge of one of the traditionally preeminent units in college football (there have been 25 first team All-American offensive linemen at USC since 1964 and 17 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968).

In 1993, Barry had the unique opportunity of being a coach on a team that included his son, Joe, who was an inside linebacker. This year, Joe is serving as USC's video coordinator.

Barry, 47, has 22 years of coaching experience. He came to USC after serving as the interior offensive line coach at Colorado for 6 seasons (1987-92). He tutored the entire line in 1991. Colorado won the national championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career as an assistant for 5 years (1972-76) at his prep alma mater, Fenwick High in Oak Park, Ill.

His first collegiate coaching experience was at his college alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the offensive line coach for 3 seasons (1977-79). He then was the offensive line coach at Arizona for 4 years (1980-83) under former USC coach Larry Smith.

Barry then worked in pro football for 2 years, first as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers (1984), then as the line coach with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1985).

He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the offensive line coach at Iowa State.

Barry was a 2-year starting center at Southern Illinois (he spent his first 2 years of college at Nebraska). He earned 2 degrees from SIU: a bachelor's in physical education in 1969 and a master's in recreation and special education in 1972.

Born Oct. 18, 1946, he starred in 3 sports at Fenwick High.

Besides son Joe, 24, Mike has a daughter, Courtney, 18.

Safeties

Keith Burns, a bright and energetic young coach, is in his second season on the Trojan staff after coming aboard in February of 1993. He coaches the safeties.

Burns, 33, was an assistant at Rice for 4 years (1989-92), in charge of the defensive backs in 1992 and before that handling the special teams, strong safeties and outside linebackers.

He was an assistant at Pacific for 4 seasons (1985-88), working with the defensive backs, running backs and special teams during his tenure (he was also the offensive coordinator in 1988). He worked there under coach Bob Cope, a former USC assistant.

Burns began his coaching career at his collegiate alma mater, Arkansas, as a graduate assistant for 2 years (1983-84). Current USC defensive coordinator Don Lindsey held a similar position at Arkansas during Burns' first season there as a coach.

He was a 4-year (1979-82) letterman defensive back at Arkansas, starting for 3 seasons. Lindsey was the defensive coordinator there for Burns' last 2 seasons. Burns earned a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1983.

Born Sept. 26, 1960, he was an all-state footballer at L.D. Bell High in Hurst, Tex.

He and his wife, Yvonne, have 2 sons, K.C., 7, and Tanner, 5.

DAVID ROBINSON
Tight Ends

John Robinson knows a lot about his tight ends coach. That's because it's his oldest son, David, now in his second year at USC and a fine coach in his own right.

David, 31, who joined the Trojan staff in January of 1993, has coached with 6 other teams in his career: as the offensive line coach at College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., in 1992, a volunteer assistant at California in 1991 (working with the defensive line), a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1990, the outside linebackers coach at UC Davis for 2 seasons (1988-89), a general assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1987 (when his father was the coach there), and an assistant coach at St. Anthony's High in Long Beach, Calif., in 1986.

Robinson was a 2-year starting tight end for Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, which won the 1983 national JC title, and then played at Long Beach State (1984-85). He earned a bachelor's degree from Long Beach State in 1986.

He prepped at Sonora High in La Habra, Calif.

MIKE SANFORD
Wide Receivers

Sanford, a player and graduate assistant coach at USC during Robinson's earlier stint at USC, was the only fulltime assistant retained from Larry Smith's staff when Robinson was hired in January of 1993.

Sanford, 39, has been in charge of USC's wide receivers the past 5 years (since 1989). He has coached 2 Trojan All-American first teamers (flanker Curtis Conway in 1992, who was a first round draft pick in the 1993 NFL draft, and wide receiver Johnnie Morton, Troy's all-time receiving leader who set 12 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993 and then was a first round NFL draft choice) and 4 USC All-Pac-10 first team receivers (split end John Jackson in 1989, flanker Gary Wellman in 1990, Conway in 1991 and 1992, and Morton in 1993). Jackson was USC's career receiving leader before Morton surpassed him, while Wellman was USC's first 1,000-yard season receiver (he is fifth on USC's all-time pass catching list).

Sanford made 5 coaching stops prior to returning to Troy in the summer of 1989 after a 12-year absence.

He was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and game coordinator at Purdue for 2 years (1987-88).

Before that, he spent 4 seasons (1983-86) handling the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Long Beach State. He was also Long Beach State's offensive coordinator his final 2 years there (Long Beach State was in the Top 10 nationally in pass offense both years). His 49er quarterback, Doug Gaynor, set 4 NCAA career records, while Mark Templeton set the NCAA career pass catching mark.

Sanford was also at Virginia Military Institute for 2 years (1981-82), working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, as well as serving as the pass offense coordinator.

And he spent 2 years (1979-80) at Army under Lou Saban, handling the wide receivers and tight ends.

In 1978, he was the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

Sanford began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Robinson at USC in 1977.

He had spent the previous 4 years (1973-76) at USC as a reserve quarterback and safety. In 1975, John McKay's final year, Sanford began the season as the Trojans' No. 4 quarterback, but he was suddenly named the starter (for Vince Evans) for the Washington game late in the year. Sanford was such an unknown that when McKay announced this to the media prior to the game, the coach called him "Stafford." Sanford gave a valiant effort, but USC lost, 8-7, on a safety following a bad snap to the punter.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from USC in 1978.

Sanford was an All-Northern California quarterback at Los Altos (Calif.) High in the Bay Area. His brother, Bill, played football and baseball at Washington State, while another brother, Steve, played football at Washington.

Sanford was born on April 20, 1955. He and his wife, Melinda (a USC graduate), have 2 children: a daughter, Lindsay, 15, and a son, Michael, 12.

DOUG SMITH
Defensive Line

Doug Smith knows a thing or two about defensive linemen, as he spent his entire playing career blocking them as a talented offensive lineman.

He's now in his second year on the other side of the ball, serving as USC's defensive line coach. He coached Willie McGinest at USC in 1993 and McGinest was the fourth pick in the 1994 NFL draft.

Smith, 37, was reunited with his pro coach when John Robinson hired him at USC in January of 1993.

He was a volunteer coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1992, working with the offensive line.

He spent his entire 14-year (1978-1991), 188-game NFL playing career with the Rams as a center (he also played some at guard and tackle early in his career). He was named to the Pro Bowl 6 times (1984-89). He played in Super Bowl XIV. He was named All-NFL in 1986 and All-NFC in 1989, both by Football News. From 1986 to 1991, he started 76 consecutive games. Signed as a free agent, he was active throughout his NFL career in charity and community functions as well as speaking for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He was a 4-year letterman at Bowling Green (1974-77), winning All-Mid-American Conference honors at guard as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green in 1978 and a master's degree in exercise physiology from Cal State Fullerton in 1987.

Born Nov. 25, 1956, Smith was a 3-sport star at Northland High in Columbus, Ohio.

He and his wife, Debbie, have 2 daughters, Jessica, 9, and Jenna, 6.

DENNIS THURMAN
Cornerbacks

Dennis Thurman, one of USC's and the NFL's great defensive backs, returned to his alma mater in January of 1993 to share his playing and coaching knowledge. He's in his second season handling the Trojan cornerbacks.

Thurman, 38, was a 2-time All-American (1976-77) safety and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, playing for John McKay and then John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 Trojan national champions and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 interceptions (tied for sixth on Troy's all-time list) and returned 2 for TDs. He added 169 career tackles, 11 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries, plus 28 punt returns and 2 kickoff returns. He led the conference in interceptions in 1976 with 8. During his first 2 years at USC, he played both safety and flanker (overall, he started 5 games at flanker, catching 3 passes and running 7 reverses).

Thurman then spent 9 years as a cornerback and safety in the NFL, his first 8 seasons (1978-85) with the Dallas Cowboys (he was an 11th round draft pick) and then 1986 with the St. Louis Cardinals. He had 36 career NFL interceptions and played in the 1981 Pro Bowl. He never missed a game during his 137-game career.

After his playing career, Thurman became an assistant coach. He was the secondary coach for the Phoenix Cardinals under Gene Stallings for 2 years (1988-89), then was the defensive coordinator of the World League's Ohio Glory in 1992 (he was out of coaching in 1990 and 1991).

His brother, Junior, was a Trojan defensive back in 1985-86. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from USC in 1978.

Born April 13, 1956, Thurman was a 3-sport star at Santa Monica (Calif.) High.

Thurman is the father of 2 daughters: Chelsea, 10, and Jade, 5.

CHARLES WHITE
Running Backs

"Somehow, I always feel better with Charlie White standing next to me," said USC coach John Robinson when he named White as USC's running backs coach in January of 1993. "He was the toughest, most intense running back I've ever coached."

The pair have a long association. White, 36 and in the second year of his first-ever coaching job, was USC's 1979 Heisman Trophy winner at tailback and a 2-time unanimous All-American (1978-79). He finished his 4-year USC career (1976-79, all under Robinson) as the school's all-time rushing leader with 6,245 yards (second best in NCAA history) and 49 TDs. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing with 2,050 yards and set or equalled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He was the nation's leading all-purpose runner in 1978 and 1979. USC captured the national championship in 1978 (it finished second in 1976 and 1979) and won 4 bowl games during his career. The 1979 and 1980 Rose Bowl Player of the Game, White was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1990.

A first round 1980 draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, he played in the NFL for 9 years. He was with the Browns from 1980 through 1984, then was with Robinson's Los Angeles Rams from 1985 until retiring after the 1988 season. He led the NFL in rushing in 1987 with 1,374 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

He spent 3 years (1990-92) as a special assistant to former USC athletic director Mike McGee, involved in the Former Athlete Degree Achievement Program (for ex-Trojans who return to USC to finish their degree requirements), as well as in the athletic department's summer sports camp for local youths, community relations and facilities management. White himself was a participant in the FADAP program and received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1993.

White has twice been a winner on a special football players segment of the "American Gladiators" television show.

Born Jan. 22, 1958, he was a football and track star at San Fernando (Calif.) High.

JEFF KEARIN
Offensive Assistant

Jeff Kearin is in his fourth year on the USC staff. After spending 1991 as a volunteer assistant, he was named a graduate assistant in the spring of 1992. He works with the quarterbacks, placekickers, punters and long snappers. He spent his first 2 seasons working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and placekickers.

He also was an administrative assistant with the USC men's volleyball team in the springs of 1993 and 1994.

Kearin, 34, came to USC in the spring of 1991 after 11 years (1980-90) as an assistant football coach at his prep alma mater, Loyola High in Los Angeles. During that span, Loyola won 7 league titles and was the 1990 CIF Division I champion. Working under head coach Steve Grady, a former Trojan running back, Kearin helped coach future Trojans Matt Butkus, Corby Smith (son of ex-USC coach Larry Smith) and John Stonehouse.

His last 2 seasons (1990-91) there, Kearin also was Loyola's junior varsity boys' volleyball coach and taught classes at the school. And he was the head varsity girls' basketball coach at Marymount High in Los Angeles for those 2 seasons (1990-91).

Kearin prepped at Loyola High, where he played quarterback. He then attended the University of San Diego, playing quarterback there in 1978, before transferring to Loyola Marymount. He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount in 1983. He then attended Whittier College School of Law, receiving his J.D. degree in 1987. While in law school, he was a law clerk at 2 different law firms. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

JAMES STROM
Strength and Conditioning Coach

James Strom is in his second season as USC's strength and conditioning coach after being named to the position in February of 1993.

Strom, 31, served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Los Angeles Rams for 3 seasons (1987-89) while John Robinson was the coach.

He then worked in the Santa Ana (Calif.) and Whittier (Calif.) school districts as an adapted physical education specialist.

JOE BARRY
Video Coordinator

After being a member of the USC football team the past 3 years, Joe Barry remains involved with the program as Troy's video coordinator. He was hired in the spring of 1994.

He also has the unique opportunity to work with his father, Mike, who is USC's offensive line coach.

Barry, 24, started 7 games at inside linebacker for the Trojans in 1993. He recorded 33 tackles overall (1 for a loss), 3 deflections and 1 interception (late in the Washington game to preserve Troy's victory). He had a team-best 7 tackles at Oregon before suffering a sprained left knee in the game, which sidelined him for the Oregon State contest and limited him to special teams duty against Notre Dame and California.

As a 1992 junior, Barry served as the often-employed No. 2 weakside inside linebacker, as well as playing on special teams. Three of his 4 tackles in 1992 were for losses (of 10 yards), including 1 sack. Barry sat out 1991 after transferring to USC from Michigan.

Barry did not play as a 1990 redshirt freshman at Michigan while recovering from a 1989 late-season knee injury. He redshirted in 1989 as a first-year freshman inside linebacker for the Wolverines.

He received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1994.

Barry was a 2-time (1987-88) All-Colorado pick at Fairview High in Boulder (where he was a teammate of current Trojan Tony Boselli). Barry was an All-Iowa second team selection as a 1986 sophomore at Ames (Ia.) High. He also starred in basketball and track as a prepster.

ANDRE ABRAMS

Offensive Tackle

1994: Abrams, a much-improved senior, is listed as the backup in 1994 to returning starting right offensive tackle Norberto Garrido.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "If Andre can put together health, physical condition and focus, he can play an important role for us in 1994. His career has been slowed by injuries, but he has talent."

1993: Abrams missed the first 5 games of his 1993 junior year after spraining his ankle in the pre-season. He was a reserve offensive tackle when he returned. He saw brief action against Oregon State and Stanford.

1991: Abrams, a reserve offensive tackle, missed all of his 1991 redshirt freshman year while recovering from surgery following 1991 spring practice to repair a dislocating right shoulder (the second such operation he has had in his career at USC). The injury kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

1990: He missed all of 1990, his first year at USC, after dislocating his right shoulder in pre-season drills and having surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was named Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-American third team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Super Prep Southern California Top 100, All-Ivy League first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire as an offensive tackle in 1989 at Perris High in Nuevo (Calif.). He played a key role in Perris accumulating 625 yards rushing (among the top 5 team rushing totals ever in California prep history) in its 55-14 victory over La Habra High.

Abrams also lettered in track and field. He won the 1990 Ivy League title in the discus. He owns personal bests of 157-0 in the discus and 53-2 1/2 in the shot put.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC.

DelVAUGHN ALEXANDER

Wide Receiver
Sr.*/Sr.

1994: Alexander, an accomplished member of USC's track team, was a pleasant surprise as a last-minute addition to the Trojan football squad last fall and figures to continue to add quality wide receiver depth as a senior in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "DelVaughn is a great competitor and he can really catch the ball. His lack of football experience has hindered him somewhat, but he'll play this year."

1993: After transferring to USC from West Los Angeles (Calif.) College in the spring of 1993 to compete in track, Alexander came out for the Trojan football team in the fall of 1994. He saw limited action in 8 games as a junior reserve wide receiver and special teams player. He caught just 1 pass in 1993, but he made it count: a 13-yard TD grab against Oregon State.

TRACK: As a 1994 senior, Alexander competed in 3 meets as a Trojan triple jumper and high jumper, winning the high jump at the USC 4-Way meet at 6-6 3/4 and finishing third in the triple jump at 46-10 1/4, both season bests.

As a 1993 junior, he competed in 7 meets. He posted a season-best 47-11 to finish fourth in the triple jump at the Cal State Northridge triangular meet. He won the high jump with a leap of 6-8 at the USC quadrangular meet. He had a season-best 6-9 3/4 high jump at the UCLA tri-meet to finish second. He qualified for the Pac-10 Championships in the high jump, but did not record a height. He also high jumped over 6-6 in 2 other meets and triple jumped over 45-8 in 3 other meets.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: In his only season (1992) of football at West Los Angeles CC, Alexander earned All-Western State Conference first team honors as he caught 22 passes for 430 yards (a league-leading 19.5 avg.) and 3 TDs. He competed in 1 season (1991) of track at West Los Angeles CC, finishing third in the Southern California J.C. meet in the high jump and sixth at the state meet. He recorded a then-career-best 48-7 in the triple jump and a personal-best 6-11 in the high jump at the 1991 Mt. SAC Relays. He was the Western State Conference champ in the triple jump and high jump. Also a fine student, he made the Dean's Honor List both years there. Current Trojans Keyshawn Johnson and Marcus Bonds also went to West Los Angeles CC.

HIGH SCHOOL: At University High in Los Angeles, Alexander competed in football (earning All-L.A. City honors) and basketball, but was best known as a trackster. He won the 1989 L.A. City title in the triple jump and high jump. He also won league titles in those events, as well as in the 110-meter high hurdles. He was named Coastal Conference Athlete of the Year in 1989.

JOHN ALLRED

Tight End
So.*/Jr.

1994: The future has arrived for sophomore Allred, who inherits Bradford Banta's tight end position in 1994. He has the potential to be an outstanding player.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "John is everything you look for in a tight end. He's physical, tough, has fine athletic ability and is becoming a good receiver. He's on his way to becoming an All-American."

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Allred saw action in USC's first 11 games of 1993 as the backup tight end behind Banta and on special teams. He sat out the UCLA and Utah games with a broken bone in his left lower leg. He caught 10 passes for 93 yards (9.3 avg.) in 1993, including 2 each at Penn State, Notre Dame and California. He also recorded 5 tackles on special teams.

1992: Allred redshirted as a tight end in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way star and 3-year starter at Torrey Pines High in Encinitas (Calif.), Allred made Super Prep All-Far West, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Diego County first team, Oceanside Blade-Tribune All-Area first team (offense and defense), and All-Palomar League first team (tight end and linebacker) as a senior in 1991. He was named Palomar League Defensive Player of the Year as well after recording 93 tackles and a pair of interceptions. He had 23 catches for 347 yards (15.1 avg.) as a tight end for the Falcons, who finished 8-3 in 1991 and in second place in the Palomar League. He was named a scholar-athlete by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and won San Diego Union Academic Athlete Award. He was a 3-year varsity letterman in basketball. Current Trojan Kurt Maier also prepped at Torrey Pines.

TERRY BARNUM

Tailback
Jr./Jr.

1994: After spending the past 2 seasons in the USC secondary, the junior Barnum was moved to tailback in 1994 spring practice and the switch appears to be a good one. A 2,800-yard career rusher in high school, he's competing with several players for playing time at the position and figures to play on many special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Terry had a good spring at tailback. I'm impressed with his quickness and ability to find holes. He is working hard to get stronger. He has a chance to play there this year and he will be a major factor on our special teams."

1993: As a sophomore, Barnum spent 1993 as the No. 2 cornerback behind Jason Sehorn and as a key special teams player. He appeared in 11 games and made 6 tackles.

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Barnum was a reserve cornerback who played often on special teams. He made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a tailback at Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.), Barnum was named 1991 Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-Mission League second team. Despite being slowed the last half of his senior season with an ankle sprain, he ran for 1,150 yards and 16 TDs and caught 23 passes for 300-plus yards and 2 TDs.

A 3-year starter, he had 1,185 yards and 18 TDs as a junior (he rushed for 349 yards and 6 TDs in a game). He was a 1990 Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team pick. He rushed for over 2,800 yards in his career at Alemany.

Terry lettered 4 years in track as well, clocking a best of 10.6 in the 100 meters and 21.8 in the 200 meters. He was a 2-time Mission League champ in both the 100 meters and 200 meters. He won the CIF 2-A 100 meters title as a sophomore in 1988. He served as his school's senior class vice president. He made the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

PERSONAL: He was born in Tampa, Fla. He is a communications major at USC with a B average (3.09 GPA). He has worked in the sports department at the Los Angeles Daily News.

TERRY BARNUM ON: Why he asked to move to tailback: "It was more to settle something in my own mind. I wanted to see if I can cut it at the Division I level...I'll admit that in my first 2 years here, I was starting to think, 'Maybe I've reached my peak. Maybe I was a great high school player and that's it.' I think any time a person goes from the spotlight to the shadows, it kind of works on your ego. But my family has been very supportive. My mom kept telling me, 'Your day is coming.' Really, that's the only thing I had to hold onto these last couple of years."

MARCUS BONDS

Defensive End
6-6, 250
Jr./Jr.

1994: Bonds, a junior who transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 from West Los Angeles Community College, should have an immediate impact on Troy's defensive line in 1994. Known for his fierce pass rushing ability, he's listed No. 2 at defensive end behind Elic Mahone.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Marcus' strength is as a pass rusher. With improved leg strength, he'll become a more complete player. We have big expectations for his big-play ability."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Bonds made the 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III honorable mention, and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. He had a game with 12 tackles and 5 sacks.

In 1992 as a freshman, he won All-Western State Conference second team honors. Current Trojans DelVaughn Alexander and Keyshawn Johnson also went to West Los Angeles.

TONY BOSELLI

Sr.*/Sr.

1994: Meet USC's latest great offensive lineman. Already a first team All-American in 1992 and semifinalist for the 1993 Lombardi Award, the big, powerful, quick and dominating Boselli will start for his fourth year in 1994. The senior left tackle is a prime candidate for the 1994 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award. He was named to the prestigious 1994 Playboy pre-season All-American team for a third consecutive year, a first in the magazine's history. In time, he could further add to USC's offensive line tradition by joining the 17 Trojan offensive linemen who have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tony has the overall athletic ability to be an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award winner. He's competitive, athletic, has great balance and has devoted himself to being stronger."

1993: One of 12 semifinalists for the 1993 Lombardi Award, Boselli started for his third year at offensive tackle in 1993, on the left side as a junior. He dislocated his left kneecap at Arizona and missed USC's next 5 games, but still was named to the 1993 All-Pac-10 honorable mention and Football News Almost All-American teams. For the second consecutive year, he was named to the Playboy pre-season All-American team.

1992: As a sophomore right offensive tackle, Boselli was named to the Walter Camp All-American first team (becoming the 25th first team All-American offensive lineman at Troy since 1964). He was only the fifth Trojan sophomore to win All-American first team acclaim (the others were Mark Carrier, Richard Wood, John Ferraro and Orv Mohler). He started all but 2 games in 1992, sitting out the UCLA contest after spraining his left ankle against Arizona and missing the Fresno State game after reinjuring the ankle versus Notre Dame. Tony also made Football News Sophomore All-American first team, AP All-American second team, UPI All-American honorable mention, Football News Almost All-American and, for the second consecutive year, All-Pac-10 first team. He was picked to the 1992 pre-season All-American first teams of Playboy, Athlon and Football Digest.

1991: As just a redshirt freshman in 1991, Boselli inherited the starting strong tackle spot from NFL first round pick Pat Harlow and Tony had an unprecedented year. He made Football News Freshman All-American first team, All-Pac-10 first team (the first freshman offensive lineman ever honored and 1 of only 2 freshmen to make the 1991 All-Pac-10 first team, along with Arizona's all-purpose performer Charles Levy), Football News Almost All-American, USC's Offensive Player of the Year (the first freshman ever to win that award) and USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award (for most minutes played). A ferocious blocker, Boselli had an amazing 24 "decleaters" (knocking an opposing lineman off his feet) at Washington State, just shy of the USC record of 28 set by All-American and NFL first round pick Dave Cadigan against Boston College in 1987. Tony started every game but Stanford (Kian Ramsay started that one), but he did come in and play most of that contest. After the 1991 season, Boselli had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder.

1990: Although he didn't play in 1990, Boselli spent all of his first-year freshman season as the No. 2 quick offensive tackle behind Michael Moody.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep All-American, Boselli was a 2-way lineman as a senior in 1989 at Fairview High in Boulder (Colo.), collecting 59 tackles (which included 5 sacks). He received All-State honors (first team offense, second team defense), and was named Blue Chip All-American (third team), Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands, Tacoma Morning News Tribune West 100, USA Today Top 100, All-County and All-Centennial League. He had a personal-high 18 tackles (10 solo) in a 1989 game.

He played only on offense during his 1988 junior season and won All-State first team and All-County honors for his play. As a 1987 sophomore, he led Fairview to an 11-2 record and the Colorado State title. Tony's coach at Fairview was Sam Pagano, whose son, Chuck, was a USC graduate assistant coach (1984-85).

He also lettered in basketball in his junior year, averaging 6 points and 7 rebounds, and he was the 1989 Colorado district champion in the shot put (he finished fourth in the state meet).

PERSONAL: He was born in Modesto, Calif. He enjoys water and snow skiing. He's a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.02 GPA). He was named to the 1992 and 1991 Pac-10 All-Academic first team (in 1992, he was 1 of only 3 players to make the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams; in 1991, he was 1 of only 2 freshmen to make the Pac-10 All-Academic first team and 1 of only 5 players to make the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams) and the 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention squad. He was also 1 of just 7 players nationally honored as a 1991 Honda Scholar Athlete. He spent the summers of 1991 and 1992 working on a 150-acre farm run by 20 Benedictine nuns near Boulder, where he cut fields, baled and stacked hay, moved cattle, and drove tractors (he would then lift weights and run at night). In the summer of 1994, he worked with the construction crew that repaired the earthquake damage to the Los Angeles Coliseum. He bench presses 405 pounds.

TONY BOSELLI ON: His 1993 knee injury: "I was more frustrated when it happened than anything. Angry. And scared. I think your body goes in shock or something. You feel pain, but it's not overwhelming."

Not going to the NFL after his junior year: "I might have come out early if I'd played and had a good year...But that decision was made for me when I got injured...No big deal. I love going to school here, I love the social life, I love all my friends and I love playing football for Coach Robinson. The NFL will always be there. This way, I'll graduate and my parents will be happy."

His size: "I used to hear about these 300-pound players and think, 'Wow, that's really huge.' I couldn't comprehend somebody that big. But in high school, I just kept growing. Hey, it's fun to be big. As long as you're in shape. I love it...But being big does have disadvantages. It's not a good feeling to be sitting in some friend's house and feel the chair start to give way. And lawn chairs are the worst. I have no luck with them."

Blocking: "My whole objective is to knock the guy off the ball about 5 yards and put him on his back...We're the workhorses on offense. We really set the tone for the game and I really like being aggressive and tough."

Having a dominating offensive line: "The offensive line at USC has to dominate the other player. It's more a frame of mind than anything. As an offensive lineman, you have to prepare yourself mentally to do that and physically in the weight room. Our attitude is we're going to dominate the other team's defensive line, the guy in front of us, every play until he gives up."

His expectations: "My expectations are high, higher than anyone else's. I want to be a great lineman. That's my goal...I haven't really played my best game yet."

Why he chose USC: "When I was a little kid, through my junior year in high school, Notre Dame was the team I rooted for, the team I wanted to win. In my senior year, they were one of my top 5 choices, but they didn't offer me a visit...I came to USC because I just thought of all the great players who had gone here. This is Tailback U., but the offensive linemen played a big part in that."

Observing ex-USC All-American offensive tackle Pat Harlow: "USC's tradition of great offensive linemen is definitely one of the reasons I came to USC...The main player I've tried to model myself after is Pat Harlow. He was a senior here when I was a freshman and he helped me a lot. He showed me all the little things about the position. I've always respected his attitude about the game...He was so aggressive finishing blocks. He just wanted to kill people. He really had that killer instinct. I tried to work off that to alter my own style."

Working on a farm during the summers of 1991 and 1992: "That was a hard job, but it taught me a lot of discipline...I never knew farmers worked so hard. It was real tough some days. But I knew I had to get ready for a long season...There were days when those nuns worked us harder than the USC coaching staff...It was great, the best job I ever had...The nuns on the farm worked at a house which took in patients who were alone and dying from AIDS and couldn't afford hospital care. I went there a few times to help out by talking with the patients to encourage them...I felt so good after going there because I felt like I did something worthwhile."

Once working at McDonald's (his father and uncle own 11 outlets in Denver): "They probably lost money when I worked there. I ate more than I made."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC center Craig Gibson: "He's very physical. A lot of people say he's got a defensive mentality toward the game, and I believe that."

CHRIS BRYMER

Offensive Guard
Fr.*/So.

1994: A redshirt freshman, Brymer had a good showing in 1994 spring practice and emerged as the No. 2 offensive left guard behind returning starter Kris Pollack.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Chris is a very powerful player who has a bright future. He'll play a lot this fall. I believe he can develop into a really outstanding offensive lineman."

1993: Brymer redshirted as an offensive guard in 1993, his first year at USC. A right ankle sprain sidelined him during the final 3 weeks of the regular season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-San Bernardino County, All-Citrus Belt League first team and team MVP at Apple Valley (Calif.) High.

In 1991, he was All-San Bernardino County and All-San Andreas League first team (both offense and defense). He made All-San Andreas League in 1990.

Chris was also was a shot putter (57-9 best) who placed fourth in the 1991 CIF meet and discus thrower (161-1 best).

PERSONAL: He bench presses 405 pounds. He likes to play pool.

GERALD CARUTHERS

Outside Linebacker

1994: A senior who is tough against the run, Caruthers will compete with Brian Williams to start at an outside linebacker spot in 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Gerald is probably the best of our hard-nosed run-defending outside linebackers. He needs to improve his mental toughness and quickness against the pass, though. He was very impressive this past spring and improved both his pass coverage and open field tackling."

1993: As a junior, Caruthers started 5 mid-season games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State and Notre Dame) at an outside linebacker spot and served as Williams' backup the rest of 1993. Overall, he posted 22 tackles, including 8 at Notre Dame.

1992: Caruthers--who came to USC in the fall of 1992 as a highly-regarded junior college transfer--saw brief action on defense as a reserve outside linebacker and on special teams early in the season before getting hurt, thus allowing him to redshirt his junior year.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Caruthers made Blue Chip J.C. All-American, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, and J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV first team as a 1991 sophomore linebacker at Pasadena (Calif.) City College. He averaged 9 tackles a game and, on the year, posted a team-high 7 sacks for minus 44 yards, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 blocked punts. He was the Mission Conference Defensive Player of the Week when he posted 8 tackles, 1 sack, 5 quarterback pressures, and 1 blocked punt in a win over Rancho Santiago. As a 1990 freshman, he was a part-time starter. Current Trojans Edward Hervey and Anthony Sanford also attended PCC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Saugus (Calif.) High, where he was All-Golden League in 1989.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 340 pounds. He spent nearly 8 years of his youth in Israel (on a farm in the Negev Desert) and is fluent in Hebrew. He also lived in Oklahoma for 6 years. His brother, Dan, is a senior center for the Kentucky football team.

GERALD CARUTHERS ON: Life in Israel: "When I was 4 years old, my entire family and relatives converted to Judaism and 4 years later we moved from Oklahoma to Israel. The last 6-and-a-half years there, we lived in what's called a 'moshav,' which is a private farming community. I'd go to school 6 days a week and after school I'd come home and help out on the farm with the sorting, planting and spraying...I didn't like it at first for a lot of reasons. The water made me sick. I missed my friends in Oklahoma. I didn't know the language. School was also different. I went to an all-Hebrew school, where I had a lot of Old Testament Bible and Israeli and world history classes. We also had classes in Arabic and English. It took me about a year-and-a-half to learn to speak and write well enough to fit in...The Middle East is always in a state of war. We lived 12 miles from the Egyptian border and were exposed daily to terrorism...Like most Israeli children, I was trained to use an M-16 and hand grenades when I was 14. I spent a few nights in bomb shelters. I've been shot at by terrorists...At first it was frightening, but then you get used to it. Here in the United States, you have fire drills and earthquake drills. Over there, you have bomb threats. It becomes a way of life...There were 2 years in a row of falling tomato prices and we lost a lot of money. We simply ran out of money and had to come back to the U.S...When we first moved back to the U.S., I was held back in school for a year because my English wasn't very good. In class, I couldn't write fast enough in English, so I would take notes in Hebrew...When I was growing up in Israel, I would watch football games on the television. I always wanted to try to play football and, after I saw a USC-Oklahoma game one time, I decided I wanted to go to one of those schools. I remember I liked USC's uniforms, the horse and the Coliseum...The other players tease me once in a while about how I was raised. Some asked if I lived in a tent in the desert instead of a house. I know I've experienced different things in my life than they have. But I now know how good we have it here in the United States. I think I'm more appreciative of that...Eventually, I will return to Israel to live. I still write letters in Hebrew to kids I knew there."

Playing games on Saturday, the Sabbath: "I really wanted to play college football, but playing on Saturday was a major compromise in my family. My religion says I'm wrong to play football on Saturday. It's the Jewish holy day. I'm not supposed to do anything on Saturday but be in the synagogue. I'm not even supposed to drive a car...It was a difficult decision for my family, but we all decided it was a way for me to get a college education."

TYLER CASHMAN

Tight End
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Cashman, a junior with a strong Trojan background, will once again share time with Johnny McWilliams as USC's often-employed H-back (tight-end-in-motion). But look for him to play an even more prominent role in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tyler has outstanding potential and we expect to get more use out of him. He can be a major threat as a receiver. He's become an extremely important part of our passing game."

1993: Cashman alternated at H-back with McWilliams as a 1993 sophomore. Overall in 1993, he caught 21 passes for 181 yards (8.6 avg.) with 2 TDs (a 5-yarder against North Carolina and a 7-yarder versus Houston). He had a game-high 6 grabs against North Carolina and added 4 grabs at Notre Dame and 3 at Washington. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips in his right knee.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Cashman was moved to tight end from split end in 1992 spring drills. He saw limited action as a 1992 reserve.

1991: Cashman redshirted as a split end in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick while at Los Alamitos (Calif.) High, Cashman made 80 catches (tops in Orange County in 1990 and third best ever in county history) for 1,019 yards (12.7 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. He was also named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Empire League Offensive Player of the Year. He had a single-game best of 14 catches (12 in the first half) for 145 yards.

Cashman collected 45 receptions for a 19.3 average with 8 TDs as a 1989 junior. In his career, he made 126 catches (seventh on the Orange County all-time chart) and averaged more than 20 yards per grab. He played wide receiver, tight end, defensive back and punter. He also starred in baseball.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. He bench presses 300 pounds. His father, Pat, was a defensive back at USC in 1966 and 1967 (he won honorable mention All-American laurels in 1967) who returned an interception of a Gary Beban pass 55 yards for a touchdown in Troy's famous 21-20 win over UCLA in 1967 which clinched a Rose Bowl berth and national championship for the Trojans.

TYLER CASHMAN ON: Playing H-back: "The position is great from the standpoint that I was a receiver and a tight end in high school, and this is right in between. It's like both positions in one, which is perfect. My ideal position...It's fun because you have an advantage because you're a lot bigger than the guys you block. But it's tough because they're not going to come and take you on. They'll try to juke you and dive you, so you have to be quick, too. I've had quite a few good hits. The best ones are the ones when someone else is catching the ball and you run to help him and you get the nice blindside shots...Of course, we always want to catch the ball. We joke that we get mad when they put us in a run play."

His father: "When I was young, it was SC this and SC that. But he backed off when I got to high school...He said he didn't want me to go to USC just because he went there...I don't think I could have played anywhere else. I've always wanted to go here. There was no question in my mind...It's very weird now. It's hard to picture he once wore a cardinal and gold uniform, playing football in the same stadium. It brings us closer together. He helps me a lot. Basically, he taught me to play the game when I started."

DONN CUNNIGAN

Inside Linebacker
Sr.*/Sr.

1994: Cunnigan, a talented and experienced senior ex-safety and outside linebacker, was moved to an inside linebacker spot in the spring of 1994 and now will compete with Errick Herrin for the starting job vacated by Joe Barry. He'll also play a key role on special teams (he and Errol Small are co-captains of the special teams). He also plays pro baseball.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Donn has untapped potential. As an ex-defensive back, he is a very good pass defender. With improved aggressiveness, he can become a complete inside linebacker."

1993: As a junior, Cunnigan spent most of 1993 as the often-used backup outside linebacker behind Jeff Kopp, but he did start 3 mid-season games (Oregon State, Notre Dame, California). He also played on special teams. Overall in 1993, he made 48 tackles (4 for losses of 12 yards) and 5 deflections. He made 8 stops against UCLA, 6 at Notre Dame, and 5 each versus Penn State, Oregon, Oregon State and Stanford.

1992: As a sophomore, Cunnigan benefitted from a position switch in 1992 spring practice when he was moved to outside linebacker from safety. Donn appeared in all 12 games in 1992 as a backup at strongside outside linebacker and on special teams. He made 15 tackles (1 for a loss), deflected 2 passes, and recovered 2 fumbles (against Oregon and California, both of which led to TDs).

1991: A key special teamer who also saw some action as the No. 2 strong safety behind Stephon Pace, Cunnigan appeared in all 11 games in 1991 as a redshirt freshman. He made 7 tackles in 1991, including 3 against Washington.

1990: Cunnigan redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

BASEBALL: Donn signed with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in the summer of 1994. He was a reserve outfielder for the 1993 and 1992 USC baseball teams before quitting to concentrate on spring football drills. In 1993, he hit .500 (2-for-4) with 2 runs scored in 4 early-season games. In 1992, he was 0-for-1 with a walk in his only plate appearances. He was drafted in the 77th round by the San Diego Padres in the 1993 major league baseball draft.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cunnigan earned All-CIF Division III first team honors in 1989 at Gahr High in Cerritos (Calif.). His other senior honors were California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team second team. He also starred in baseball at Gahr and was drafted in the 15th round by the Los Angeles Dodgers after his 1990 senior year.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. His brother, Darius, earned 1993 All-Big West first team honors as a junior defensive back at Pacific. Another brother, Donald, played minor league baseball for the New York Yankees organization. His mother's first cousin is Earl Campbell, Texas' 1977 Heisman Trophy winner.

JESSE DAVIS

Cornerback
6-0, 200
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: A junior still somewhat hampered by 1993 knee surgery, Davis is listed as a backup cornerback behind Jerald Henry going into 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "If Jesse can regain the quickness and speed he lost from his knee surgery, he'll be a competitor for playing time both at cornerback and in extra defensive back situations."

1993: Davis was a highly-regarded defensive back who transferred to USC in the fall of 1993 from Mt. San Antonio Community College, but redshirted that junior season while recovering from pre-season arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in his right knee.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Davis was on the 1992 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American second team (as an all-purpose player), Blue Chip J.C. Top 75, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State first team, and All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team (as defensive back and return specialist) at Mt. San Antonio Community College in Walnut (Calif.). He had 74 tackles, 7 interceptions for 56 yards (8.0 avg.), 8 deflections and 3 fumble recoveries as a cornerback in 1992. He also returned 22 kickoffs for a 28.0 average and 1 TD in 1992. He twice was named State J.C. Player of the Week in 1992, once versus El Camino J.C. (he had a 90-yard scoring kickoff return, fumble caused and recovered to set up a TD, and an interception near the goal line as Mt. SAC won the league title) and Grossmont J.C. (he had 2 picks, 9 tackles, and 88 yards on 2 kickoff returns). His team was 8-3 and played in the Orange County Classic. He was named Mt. SAC's Male Athlete of the Year in 1992-93 and he won 1 of 8 Achievement Awards in 1992 presented by the California Community College Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes.

In 1991, he made All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team (as defensive back and return specialist) while posting 56 tackles (with 2 sacks), 1 interception, 7 deflections, 1 fumble recovery, and 16 kickoff returns for a 28.6 average with 1 TD (a 96-yarder). His coach at Mt. SAC was Bill Fisk, who lettered as a lineman for 3 years (1962-64) at USC, winning All-American honors in 1964 (Fisk's older brother, Bob, played at USC, and his father, Bill Sr., was a Trojan player and assistant coach). Current Trojan Leonard Green also went to Mt. SAC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He did not play football at Jefferson High in Los Angeles.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. Davis is the father of a 3-year-old daughter, Jessica.

JEFF DILTZ

Tight End
So.*/Jr.

1994: Diltz came to USC as a walk-on, but he has been so impressive that he has earned a scholarship this year. The sophomore is listed as the No. 2 tight end behind John Allred and he'll also contribute on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jeff has made steady progress, to the point where he is the backup tight end. His skill level has grown to the point where we have confidence that he can play effectively."

1993: Diltz played in 12 games as a redshirt freshman tight end, mainly on special teams. He did not catch a pass or make a tackle.

1992: Diltz redshirted as a tight end in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Diltz prepped at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). He and current Trojan Jonathan Himebauch were teammates at Damien.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.78).

DAVID DOTSON

Tailback
So.*/Jr.

1994: Dotson, an elusive and experienced sophomore tailback, will be pushing returning starter Shawn Walters for the starting job in 1994. David missed the last half of 1994 spring practice after having arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee, but he should be healthy now.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "David is an explosive runner with top-flight speed. He catches the ball well and is a smart runner."

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Dotson started 4 early-season games (Houston, Penn State, Washington State and Arizona) in 1993 and served as a backup the rest of the season. Overall in 1993, he rushed for 204 yards on 69 carries (3.0 avg.) with 1 TD (a 2-yard plunge against Utah) and caught 7 passes for 44 yards (6.3 avg.) with 1 TD (a 7-yarder against Washington State). He was USC's leading rusher against North Carolina (48 yards on 9 carries) and Penn State (26 yards on 16 tries) and he added 66 yards on 15 rushes versus Houston. In USC's last 7 games, he played tailback in only 2 games (Stanford and Utah). He also returned 14 kickoffs for 251 yards (17.9 avg.) in 1993. He suffered a knee strain at Oregon and missed the Oregon State game.

1992: Dotson redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a member of the first senior class at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Dotson set 5 California state records in 1991 as a tailback: most yards in a game (507, on 27 carries against Rim of the World High), season (3,544 on 354 carries for a 10.0 avg.), and career (7,265), plus most TDs in a season (46) and most points in a season (282). Among his 1991 honors were Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West Player of the Year, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team (and Medium Schools Player of the Year), Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County Co-Player of the Year, and Sunkist League Player of the Year. He did all this despite being hampered by a late season ankle injury. He also had single-game rushing totals of 445 yards and 5 TDs on 40 carries versus Notre Vista and 431 yards and 5 TDs on 31 carries versus Montgomery High in San Diego (Calif.). A 3-year starter, he had 85 career TDs. He broke CIF rushing records of 3 past or current Pac-10 standouts--ex-Trojan Ryan Knight's single game mark (formerly 501), ex-Stanford Cardinal Glyn Milburn's season standard (formerly 2,713) and ex-California Bear Russell White's career record (formerly 5,998). David led the Eagles to a 10-2 record in 1991 and an appearance in the CIF Division VIII semifinals.

As a 1990 junior, he rushed for 2,498 yards and 30 TDs on a state record 366 carries (6.8 avg.) while earning Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division VIII first team honors, and All-Sunkist League. He was coached at Valley View by Leo Brouhard, who also coached Knight at Rubidoux (Calif.) High (Knight's brother, Sammy, is currently on the USC team). Dotson was a 3-year honor roll member at Valley View and was named the school's outstanding scholar-athlete in 1992. He was a prep teammate of fellow Trojan Willie Lowery.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 300 pounds. He was born in Passaic, N.J. Wanting to get her son out of a rough neighborhood, his mother sent him to California in 1989 to live with his father. His father was killed in a 1990 car accident, but Dotson ramined in California with his stepmother.

DAVID DOTSON ON: Moving to California: "A lot of my friends in New Jersey didn't finish high school. It's kind of sad. My mom saw what was happening and sent me out to California and my dad stood behind me all the way...My dad was great. He got me to be a serious about a lot of things...After my dad died, it was tough. Being 17, I just wanted to go fly back to my grandmother and brother and just give up...It would've been a cowardly move to run awy from everything...I wasn't thinking about the reason why I was here. I came out to California to straighten up. To get out of the environment that I was in...For some reason, I knew that I had to stay here. I knew if I went back, I probably wouldn't amount to too much...I just had to stay here and stick it out. I had to be, not a dad, but a big brother, to my three little half-brothers. I had to take care of them and help my stepmom out."

His father: "I took his death hard. I was going to quit football. The main reason I didn't was because my father always told me not to quit in anything I tried...My dad would take me to practice on days I didn't want to go to practice. Now I finish practice and there's nobody to meet me or talk to. I don't have a pick-me-up...He said a lot of things to me that I didn't really pay attention to until he passed. He wanted me to expect the most out of myself. I think about what he told me every day. That's something I'll never forget. I want to live by his words."

His high school career: "A lot of people thought I didn't play against anybody in high school, that it was a weak league. That's why I want to do well here. To make those people look bad...A lot of people are afraid of USC's tradition. I want to test myself. I thought it was the best test for me."

MARK FARLIN

Fullback
So.*/Jr.

1994: Farlin, a sophomore, was switched to fullback in 1994 spring practice after playing inside linebacker in the past. He could see significant role as a blocking fullback and on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Mark will play a big role on special teams and he is becoming an effective blocker at fullback. He's a dedicated player and will find a way to help our team."

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Farlin appeared in 5 games (Washington State, Oregon State, Notre Dame, UCLA, Utah) as a reserve inside linebacker and on special teams. He made 3 tackles overall.

1992: Farlin redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Topeka Capital-Journal All-State and All-I-70 pick at Manhattan (Kan.) High, Farlin led the Indians to a 22-7 record and a trio of league championships during his last 3 years there. He made 130 tackles in 1991, including season highs of 20 against Shawnee Mission and 19 against Washburn Rural. He was selected to the Kansas All-Star game after leading Manhattan to a 6-2 record and the district co-championship.

He earned Topeka Capital-Journal All-State Class 6A honorable mention and All-Central Kansas notice in 1990. As a 1989 sophomore, he started at fullback in the state championship game for the 9-3 Indians. Mark also played baseball (2-year starter) and basketball at Manhattan.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

SCOTT FIELDS

Safety
6-3, 200
Jr./Jr.

1994: After experimenting last season as a tailback, Fields was moved back to safety (his 1992 position) prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl and will enter 1994 competing with Sammy Knight to start at the strong safety spot vacated by Mike Salmon. Following spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee, but he should be fine for the 1994 season.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "The addition of Scott to the defense late last year was a real delight. He brings excellent speed and football savvy. He has a tremendous desire to compete and be aggressive."

1993: Fields was switched in the spring of 1993 from the secondary to the offensive backfield. As a sophomore, he served as the backup tailback and appeared in 12 games in 1993 there and on special teams. He even started once (at Oregon). Overall, he ran for 231 yards on 61 carries (3.8 avg.) with 2 TDs (1-yarders versus Houston and Washington State) and caught 3 passes for 17 yards (5.7 avg.). He ran for 46 yards on 9 carries against Oregon State, 43 yards on 8 tries versus Washington State, 37 yards on 9 carries at California and 33 yards on 13 rushes against Houston. Then, prior to the Freedom Bowl against Utah, Fields was moved back to the secondary, where he served as Micah Phillips' backup at strong safety (he played in the game, but didn't make a tackle). He had post-season arthroscopic surgery to repair a slightly torn ligament in his left knee.

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Fields was a reserve safety and key special teams player.

HIGH SCHOOL: Fields was named Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-CIF Division I first team after leading Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif) to a 9-2 record in 1991 and its second consecutive Angelus League championship. He rushed for 1,589 yards on 242 carries (6.5 avg.) and 16 TDs, plus had 6 catches for 65 yards (10.8 avg.), despite being hobbled by an ankle sprain the last part of 1991.

In 1990, he ran for 1,416 yards on 176 carries (8.0 avg.) and 17 TDs while making All-CIF Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team. He posted 50 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and an interception in 2 years of play on defense. He lettered 2 years in basketball and track and field as well. Scott prepped at the same high school as current Trojans Jess Holguin and Rodney Sermons.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. His cousin is Darryl Lewis, who won the 1990 Thorpe Award as a defensive back at Arizona and now is in the NFL.

SCOTT FIELDS ON: All his position switches: "I'd like to get into a positoin where I can get to another level. I really want to become stable in a position...I don't have the time, nor do I have the patience, to keep moving around. I think this is the last time I move...I figure if I can't get a Heisman Trophy, then the Thorpe Award is the next best thing."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Ex-USC All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton: "He's dangerous in practice. Whenever he goes in, I go out."

COLE FORD

Placekicker
Sr./Sr.

1994: Ford, a strong-legged senior who missed half of last season with a back injury, hopes to be USC's placekicker for his fourth year, but he'll be pushed in 1994 by incoming prep All-American Adam Abrams. He'll also serve as the emergency punter.

CAREER: Known for his powerful leg on kickoffs, 58 of Ford's 122 kickoffs have not been returned out of the endzone.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cole had an up and down season in 1993. He missed some games with an injury and at times was erratic. But he improved his mechanics greatly in this past spring's practice and I expect him to have a great season."

1993: Ford spent part of his 1993 junior as USC's placekicker for his third year. But a stress fracture in his back sidelined him for 7 mid-season games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State, Notre Dame, California and Stanford). Overall in 1993, he connected on 2-of-6 field goals (a 27-yarder against North Carolina and a 31-yarder at Washington) and 15-of-18 PATs. Twelve of his 28 kickoffs were not returned out of the endzone.

1992: As a sophomore, Ford was the starting placekicker for the second year in a row. He made 11-of-20 field goals and 25-of-28 PATs in 1992. He hit a career-long 41-yard field goal at Stanford. After battling inconsistency, he finished the regular season by hitting his last 4 field goal attempts, including all 3 against Notre Dame (1 shy of USC's single game record), before missing his only try (a 37-yarder) in the Freedom Bowl against Fresno State. Some 31 of his 55 kickoffs in 1992 were not returned out of the endzone. He also recorded 1 tackle.

1991: Ford, 1 of 6 first-year freshmen to play in 1991, did a nice job handling USC's placekicks and kickoffs. Despite not using a tee and aiming at narrower goal posts for the first time in his career, he was effective on field goals (7-of-12, including 3 at Oregon, which was 1 shy of USC's single game record) and PATs (21-of-21). He was 7-of-8 inside the 40. His 45-yard field goal try at the gun to tie Stanford was just wide by a foot. He also consistently drove his kickoffs into the endzone (unheard of at USC in recent years), as 18 of his 39 kickoffs reached the endzone and only 3 of those boomers were run out. Ford missed the Washington game with a strained left hip flexor and then appeared in just the first half of the following week's game at Arizona before aggravating the injury (which forced him out of the UCLA season finale).

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 USA Today All-American honorable mention pick, Ford was a key figure in leading Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.) to the state 4A championship that year. His 32-yard field goal proved to be the difference in Sabino's 31-28 victory over Peoria High of Phoenix in the state championship game played at Sun Devil Stadium. He made 8-of-11 field goals in 1990, including a career-best 54-yarder (he also attempted a 66-yarder) and was good on 51-of-58 PATs. He proved to have a strong leg as evidenced by kicking 46 of 69 kickoffs out of the end zone, including 4 that went through the goal posts. For his play, he was named Super Prep All-Far West, All-Arizona All-Star, All-Arizona 4A first team, All-Southern Division first team, All Phoenix Metro first team, All-

Sonoran Conference, All-Tucson and team MVP as a senior. He doubled as a defensive end for Sabino as well, collecting 88 tackles, 4 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. Current Trojan Greg Tellam also prepped at Sabino.

As a junior in 1989, Ford kicked 8 field goals and made All-Southern Division first team on a team which was 12-1 and reached the state quarterfinals.

PERSONAL: His hobbies include snow boarding, water skiing, horseback riding and auto mechanics (he has restored a 1929 Ford Roadster pickup). When he was 12, Cole competed in the Western States 100 Horse Race, a 24-hour, 100-mile race in the Sierra Nevadas. His brother, Garrett, played tight end at Colorado and San Diego State. Cole is a business major at USC.

COLE FORD ON: Kickoffs: "I take a lot of pride in my kickoffs. I work hard on them and I really enjoy kicking off. It develops a strong leg for a kicker."

Practicing his kicking in Tucson: "Arizona Stadium was the only place in Tucson that had the narrow goal posts and I used to sneak in there during the summer to practice kicking field goals. Once, the groundskeeper caught me, but he thought I was one of the Wildcat kickers."

Riding horses: "When I was 8, I started riding in long distance horse races called 'endurance rides.' The races travel along the old Pony Express trails all around the country and you have to complete 100 miles within 24 hours. My family and I went all over the country so that I could compete in these races. When I was 15, I got tired of sitting in a saddle and gave up the riding...My horse was an Arabian named 'Hoss' and he was the toughest horse around in endurance races. He taught me some important things. My family bought Hoss from some people who had purchased him from a meat market. That inspired me because it shows that no matter what you start out as, you can still become something special. Hoss showed me how to be tough. Endurance riding also taught me that to just finish the race can be like winning. Not everyone can be No. 1. Sometimes you can learn more just by finishing, even if you're in last place. If you're losing and stick it out, you can still learn to be tough. If you just hang in there, you can succeed."

His secret ambition: "It would be awesome to kick the winning field goal and then ride Traveler (USC's mascot) around the Coliseum."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Noted kicking coach Ray Pelfrey: "Cole is one of the best kickers I've ever coached. He's probably one of the strongest kickoff men in all of college football. He's stronger right now on kickoffs than some starting kickers in the NFL."

STUART GAGE

Nose Tackle
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Gage's move from the offensive to defensive line prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl could prove to pay off nicely, as the big, tough junior won the starting job at nose tackle in 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Stuart possesses all the attributes you look for in a dominating nose man: size, strength and toughness. He just needs to get more experienced and keep his weight under control."

1993: As a sophomore, Gage spent the 1993 regular season as the No. 2 right offensive tackle behind Norberto Garrido. He appeared briefly there and on special teams in 9 games. Then, prior to the Freedom Bowl against Utah, he was moved to defensive tackle and played some in the game as a reserve (but he didn't make a tackle).

1991: Gage redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Honored as a 1990 Super Prep All-Midlands, Gage was a 3-year letterman as a 2-way lineman at Charles Page High in Sand Springs (Okla.). He led the Sandites to the state semifinals and a 9-4 record in 1990. He was named to the All-State first teams of the Tulsa World, the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma Coaches Association. He was also named All-Frontier Conference and All-District 5A-3.

PERSONAL: He's a religion major at USC. He bench presses 405 pounds.

NORBERTO GARRIDO

Offensive Tackle
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: One of USC's biggest and most imposing players, the junior Garrido returns as the starting right offensive tackle. Expect a good year out of him.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Norberto had a very good year as a first-time starter in 1993. Now he must develop into a consistent, solid veteran. His shadow could fill the whole side of a building. He looks like he's 7 feet tall and 400 pounds."

1993: Although Garrido was inexperienced, he was impressive while starting all of his 1993 sophomore season at right offensive tackle. He made the 1993 Football News Sophomore All-American second team.

1991: Garrido redshirted as a nose guard in 1991, his first year at USC, while sidelined following surgery for a broken left foot suffered in pre-season drills. He also had a stress fracture in his right foot which did not require surgery.

1990: Garrido originally signed with USC in the spring of 1990 but did not qualify academically, so he attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut (Calif.) in 1990 as a part-time student. He improved his national board scores and entered USC in the fall of 1991 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1989 Los Angeles Times San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year, Garrido posted 41 tackles (20 solo), 12 1/2 sacks and 3 pass deflections as a senior at Workman High in La Puente (Calif.). Offensively, he blocked at an outstanding 91% grade. The numbers resulted in further honors such as Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Valley and All-Valle Vista League first team (both ways). He enjoyed a lineman's dream when he recovered a fumble for a touchdown.

During his 1988 junior season, Garrido was named first team All-League and second team All-Valley. He did not play football until his 1987 sophomore year. An honored performer in track, Garrido was the 1990 Valle Vista League champion in the shot put (54-7) and the CIF 2-A runner-up (54-2 1/4).

PERSONAL: He's a geography major at USC. He bench presses 415 pounds, making him the strongest Trojan. He has been nicknamed "Betto" and "El Giante." He likes spending time in the outdoors, hiking, riding mountain bikes, rock climbing, and white water rafting, and one day would like to work for the U.S. Forest Service.

NORBERTO GARRIDO ON: Being compared to ex-USC and NFL star Anthony Munoz: "I've heard a lot of people compare me to Anthony Munoz. I guess they think that because we're both Hispanic, both big and both from the same area. But he has curly hair and mine's not even close to curly. I met him in the spring of 1993 when he came by USC to visit our coaches. I was excited because he was always one of my heroes. My first thought was, 'He's a really big guy.' When I shook his hand, he seemed to know about me. He told me to keep working hard and that he was sure my time to play would come...I know I'm not going to be the next Anthony Munoz, but I want to be the first Norberto Garrido. He made his name and I want to make my own."

His love of the outdoors: "I enjoy doing things out in nature...I've always been concerned about environmental causes. I care about our rain forests and our eco-system. I worry about our natural resources being damaged or destroyed. Those are things that I want to take care of in my future...Don't get the wrong idea. I'm not one of those crazy activists, but I like nature and the outdoors. My goal is to get a geography degree and get a job as a forest ranger."

His mild temperament: "I can't get mad at all. Tony Boselli yells at me in the huddle, 'Get mad! Come on. You've got to get up more!' And I'm like, 'I can't.' I just look at him with a regular face. But I can get mad or pumped up. I just don't show it...I have to develop that more...Sometimes people think I'm mad, but I'm not. It's because of my facial expression. Because I never smile either. They're like, 'Smile, man, do something.'"

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "Norberto is one of the hardest workers in the weight room, he stays late after practice to work on technique, and he comes in every day to watch film. He also watches (USC All-American offensive tackle) Tony Boselli and tries to model himself after him. He has all the attributes that a coach wants a player to have. He is really a self-made player. We call him the 'Gentle Giant.'"

Houston defensive line coach Tony Fitzpatrick: "Garrido is a bulldozer. He manhandled one of the strongest guys on our team all day."

KEN GRACE

Wide Receiver
Sr./Sr.

1994: One of USC's most elusive and exciting players, the senior Grace returns as a starting wide receiver and kickoff returner in 1994. He might also return punts.

CAREER: Grace is 16th on USC's career kickoff return list, with 428 yards on 19 runbacks (22.5 avg.).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ken made amazing progress in 1993. I'm very impressed with him. He has great speed, moves, hands and ability. If he can continue to improve, he can be a big-play receiver for us."

1993: Grace came to USC in the fall of 1993 as a transfer from Contra Costa Community College and immediately had an impact as a junior wide receiver. He started 10 games (all but the Houston, Arizona and Oregon contests) and was third on the Trojans in receptions with 36 for 458 yards (12.7 avg.) with 2 TDs (a dazzling 30-yarder at Penn State in which he zigzagged through the Nittany Lion defense and a 39-yarder against Stanford). He had 4 games with 4 catches–California (for 21 yards), Stanford (71), UCLA (108) and Utah (48)–and 4 other games with 3 catches–Penn State (49), Arizona (9), Oregon (36) and Washington (65). He caught a pass in all but 1 contest in 1993. He was also USC's top kickoff returner (19 runbacks for 428 yards, a 22.5 avg.) and was fourth in the Pac-10. He had a 41-yard return at Arizona and a 40-yarder at Oregon. He also returned a punt for 31 yards against Utah (a Freedom Bowl record and USC's longest punt runback of 1993) to help set up Troy's first TD. And he ran a reverse (he lost 8 yards against Utah).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Grace was named 1992 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State first team (as a return specialist) at Contra Costa Community College in San Pablo (Calif.). In 1992, he averaged 157.1 all-purpose yards, including 825 receiving (on 40 catches for a 20.6 avg.), 475 returning, and 271 rushing. He also scored 13 TDs in 1992 (9 receiving). He had a game with 369 all-purpose yards and 5 TDs. In 1991, he scored a 90-yard TD on a reverse the first time he ever touched the ball in a game, at any level. He was on the basketball (with a best game of 29 points) and track teams, too.

HIGH SCHOOL: Ken attended De Anza High in Richmond (Calif.), but did not play football there. He played basketball (he once scored 49 points in a game) and sprinted for the track team.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He has run the 200 meters in 20.8. Because of his small stature, he has been nicknamed "Gazoo" and "Gnat." His uncle, Benny Barnes, played for the Dallas Cowboys. Among his sports heroes is ex-USC and NFL star Lynn Swann. He likes to play dominoes in his spare time. He has spent time working at a home for abused and disturbed children in Oakland.

KEN GRACE ON: His size: "When I was a kid, I was average size. When I got older, everyone else kept growing, but I stayed the same size. I remember when I was 8 years old and I tried out for a Pop Warner team. I was always worred about being underweight when we weighed in, so I put rocks in my pockets. I barely made the weight minimum requirement...I also always wanted to play the trumpet because that's what my brother used to play. But in order to play the trumpet, you need a lot of wind. I had to play the clarinet because it was all I could handle for my size."

His aspirations of being a child counselor: "With the way society is today, it's important to help kids now in order to give them a future. A lot of kids see people who are rich and famous and they try to take short cuts in order to be like them. We need to teach kids that money and things aren't everything. Kids need to learn to be strong in themselves and to be careful who they hang around with. I tell the kids to stay in school, stay out of trouble and learn who your real friends are. Most importantly, believe in God so that He can help you."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "Ken is quick, smart and has a good feel for running routes. He has the ability to make people miss and he accelerates very well."

GERMAINE GRAY

Defensive End
Fr.*/So.

1994: A redshirt freshman who was slowed last year with a knee injury, Gray hopes to break into the playing rotation at defensive end in 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Because of his surgery, Germaine didn't return to the field until this past spring's practice and he started to come on at the end of spring. He has a good future at USC."

1993: Gray redshirted as a defensive end as a freshman in 1993, his first year at USC, while coming off of high school knee surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: Gray was a 1992 Parade All-American first team, Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American Dream Team, Max Emfinger All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 at Eisenhower High in Rialto (Calif.). Despite playing with a sprained knee in 1992, he had 80 tackles (65 solo), 20 tackles for losses, and 10 sacks. 6-3, 225
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Haas, a junior, returns to inside linebacker in 1994 from the outside and is listed as a backup to returning starter Jeff Kopp.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "One word describes Brian: tough! He is as coachable, consistent and focused of a linebacker as I've ever been around. He understands his strengths and weaknesses and plays to them."

1993: After playing inside linebacker his first 2 years at USC, Haas was moved to outside linebacker in 1993 spring drills. As a sophomore, he appeared in all 13 games in 1993, primarily on special teams, but also briefly at both outside and inside linebacker. QUINCY HARRISON

Cornerback
So.*/Jr.

1994: To bolster the speed of the secondary, Harrison—a sophomore ex-wide receiver—was moved to cornerback in 1994 spring practice. He immediately stood out, to the point where he is listed as the backup to returning starter John Herpin. His future is promising.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I'm thrilled to have Quincy on defense. His performance this past spring, his work habits and his continued improved really excited us. He far exceeded our expectations. He has great speed and size, and he tackles as well as anyone in our secondary. He has a chance to be a big timer."

1993: As a redshirt freshman wide receiver, Harrison saw brief action in just 1 game—Oregon State—in 1993, but did not catch a pass.

1992: Harrison redshirted as a flanker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Super Prep All-American, Harrison led Eldorado High in Las Vegas (Nev.) to an 11-1 record and the class AAA state championship as a senior. PERSONAL: He was born in Phoenix, Ariz. He's a public administration major at USC.

CLAY HATTABAUGH

Center-Offensive Guard
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: After redshirting with a knee injury in 1993, Hattabaugh is healthy now and the junior is a backup center who can also play offensive guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Clay is a very tough, competitive player. Injuries have slowed his career progress, but he was healthy in spring drills and proved he'll be able to compete hard for playing time."

1993: Hattabaugh redshirted as a junior center in 1993. He missed 1993 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

1992: As a sophomore, Hattabaugh was competing for the starting left offensive guard spot until he dislocated his left kneecap during 1992 pre-season drills. He was sidelined for USC's first 6 games, then started at Arizona State. He re-dislocated that kneecap in practice prior to the following game (Stanford) and had surgery, forcing him out of USC's last 5 games. He missed most of 1992 spring practice while recovering from 1991 post-season shoulder surgery.

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1991, Hattabaugh was the No. 2 quick offensive guard (first behind Kris Pollack and then Joel Crisman) and he was quite impressive while seeing plenty of action. Clay appeared in 7 games (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon, California, Washington, Arizona). He even started the Arizona game, becoming the first true freshman to start on the Trojan offensive line since Bruce Matthews (an eventual All-American and All-Pro) did so in 1979 against UCLA. After the season, Hattabaugh had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: A product of state prep power Fontana (Calif.) High, Hattabaugh teamed with current Trojan Robert Loya to give Fontana one of the finest rushing games in the nation in 1989 and 1990. During Hattabaugh's 1990 senior season, the Steelers rushed for 3,432 yards (and over his last 2 years there, they rushed for 7,676 yards, a 294-yard per game average). He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-Valley and All-Citrus Belt League.

As a junior in 1989, Clay was named Cal-Hi All-State Underclassman and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana went 34-4 during Hattabaugh's 3 seasons, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 370 pounds.

JERALD HENRY

Cornerback

1994: Henry, a senior with 11 career starts to his name, enters 1994 as a starting cornerback at the spot held last year by Jason Sehorn.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Once Jerald regains his self-confidence, he can be really effective for us. He's capable of making excellent plays in man coverage, but he must improve his zone play and his tackling skills."

1993: A starting cornerback in 1992, Henry spent most of his 1993 junior year as both a key backup cornerback who was used in extra defensive back situations and as a special teams player. He did start the Utah game for an injured Jason Sehorn (although Sehorn did play). He appeared in 10 games, getting 16 tackles (1 for a loss of 4 yards), 2 deflections and an interception (against Stanford, which he returned 8 yards). He had 5 stops at Arizona.

1992: Henry started 9 games at left cornerback in 1992 as a sophomore (all but Oklahoma, Washington and Oregon). He recorded 53 tackles, 6 deflections and an interception (at the goal line versus Washington State). He had a team-high 9 tackles against Washington State. He also had 8 stops and 2 deflections against Fresno State. He missed the last half of 1992 spring practice to have surgery for a dislocating right shoulder.

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to see action in 1991, Henry was the No. 2 pass coverage halfback behind Calvin Holmes. Jerald appeared in 10 games (all but Memphis State), primarily in extra defensive back situations, but he even started the California contest. Overall, he made 19 tackles, including 4 at Washington State and 3 at California.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a 1990 senior at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.), Henry was selected Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VII first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and Camino Real League Offensive MVP. In 1990, he rushed for 1,705 yards on 160 carries (10.7 avg.) with 25 TDs. He ran for 337 yards in a game and twice scored 5 TDs in a game. He totalled 176 points in 1990. Serra was a CIF Division VII semifinalist in his senior campaign.

As a 1989 junior, he won All-League second team honors on both offense and defense while running for 890 yards (11 TDs) and intercepting 8 passes. He had 11 career thefts.

PERSONAL: He's a psychology major at USC. He bench presses 300 pounds.

JERALD HENRY ON: His size: "Opponents try to take advantage of my size, but I don't let it bother me. It makes me play harder...I know I'm short so I try to do other things to take people away from their game."

JOHN HERPIN

Cornerback
Sr.*/Sr.

1994: Herpin, a steady senior cornerback, will be USC's only returning starter in the secondary in 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "John started slow last year but finished on the upswing. He has the talent to be a top cornerback in the Pac-10. He just needs to convince himself of that and then go do it. He's a very good man-to-man defender."

1993: Herpin started all but the Oregon State game at cornerback (although he did play against the Beavers) as a junior in 1993. He recorded 34 tackles (2 for losses of 6 yards), 2 interceptions and 8 deflections (tied for third on the team). He saved his best for last, as he made 2 interceptions against Utah (1 set up USC's second TD and the other came on the game's final play to preserve Troy's victory), along with 3 deflections and 2 stops. He also had 7 stops against Stanford and 2 pass breakups versus UCLA. He missed most of 1993 spring drills while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery on a dislocating right shoulder.

1991: In the pre-season prior to his 1991 redshirt freshman campaign, Herpin was moved from flanker to the secondary, where he was impressive enough to be listed as the No. 2 pass coverage halfback (behind Calvin Holmes). However, John dislocated his right shoulder in pre-season drills and missed USC's first 2 games. He suited up for Troy's next 2 contests (Arizona State and Oregon) and saw brief action at Oregon (he didn't make a tackle). Then, in practice prior to the following contest (Washington State), he again dislocated his right shoulder and had surgery, which sidelined him for the rest of 1991.

1990: Herpin redshirted in 1990 as a flanker, his first season at USC.

TRACK: Herpin ran the high hurdles for the Trojan tracksters in the spring of 1991. He finished fourth in the Pac-10 meet with a personal-best 14.14. He ran 7 other races, all posting times of 14.61 or better, including a 14.19 to place second at the USC Homecoming meet and 14.24 (converted) for second against Cal State Northridge, Stanford and UC Irvine. He won 3 races: 14.32 in a 5 way meet against Arizona State, Washington, New Mexico and Baylor, 14.54 in a 4-way meet versus UC Irvine Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and UC Santa Barbara, and 14.59 against UCLA and BYU. He also led off USC's 400-meter relay once when the quartet won the USC Homecoming meet in 40.06.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 prep All-American by Parade, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger, Herpin played in 3 games in for La Porte (Tex.) High before breaking his arm on the first play of the fourth game as a senior. In the 3 games, he rushed for 248 yards on 17 carries (14.6 avg.), including 120 yards on his first 4 carries of the season. He also had 3 catches as a wingback. As a safety, he made 19 tackles. He was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, Tom Lemming All-Southwest and Texas Football Magazine Super Team. He was rated the No. 10 player in Texas by the Houston Chronicle.

His 3-year career totals show 21 receptions for 530 yards (25.2 avg.), 320 yards rushing on 25 carries (12.8 avg.), 26 punt returns for 340 yards (13.1 avg.), 16 kickoff returns for 447 yards (27.9 avg.), 14 touchdowns, 11 interceptions and 7 fumble recoveries.

He was All-State as a 1988 junior, when he had 14 catches for 337 yards (24.1 avg.) with 3 touchdowns, 73 tackles, 4 interceptions (returned 2 for touchdowns) and 481 yards returning kicks (with 2 scores).

An outstanding hurdler, Herpin was named USA Today pre-season 1990 All-USA Track & Field. A 2-time Texas state high hurdle champion, John's 1990 best of 13.52 topped all U.S. preps. He ran 10.52 in the 100 meters. A fine student, Herpin was a member of the National Honor Society. Current Trojan Antoine Simpson also prepped at La Porte.

PERSONAL: He's an economics major at USC. He bench presses 325 pounds.

ERRICK HERRIN

Inside Linebacker
Jr./Jr.

1994: A 2-time J.C. All-American and a 4-year member of the Marines, Herrin joined USC this past spring from Mt. San Jacinto Community College and the experienced, tough junior will compete with Donn Cunnigan to start at an inside linebacker spot vacated by Joe Barry.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Errick possesses all the physical and mental traits of an outstanding linebacker. With game experience, he should develop into a top Pac-10 linebacker.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Herrin was a 2-time J.C. All-American first teamer at Mt. San Jacinto Community College in San Jacinto (Calif.). As a 1993 sophomore, he was named J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American second team, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III Defensive MVP, Cal-Hi Sports J.C. All-State Defensive MVP, and All-Foothill Conference Defensive MVP. He made 191 tackles (124 solo), 8 sacks, 12 deflections, 10 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries, 1 interception and 5 blocked field goals in 1993. Also a fine student, he was a J.C. Academic All-American honorable mention choice.

As a 1992 freshman, he made the J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III and All-Foothill Conference first teams. He recorded 151 tackles (91 solo), 7 sacks, 8 deflections, 6 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries, 1 blocked field goal and 2 interceptions (both for TDs) in 1992. He had 17 tackles in a game.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Central-Hower High in Akron (Ohio), where he played football (cornerback) as a 1986 senior and was an All-State wrestler.

PERSONAL: Herrin spent 4 years in the Marines (1987-91) as a lance corporal, including stints in Saudi Arabia during the Gulf War (6 months), Japan (1 year) and El Toro (Calif.). He has 2 daughters, Latasha, 5, and Bijanee, 1. He bench presses 350 pounds. He says his sports hero is ex-NFL star Jack Tatum, because "he hits very hard." As the oldest Trojan on the roster, he's been nicknamed "Pops" and "Old Man." He's a business major at USC.

ERRICK HERRIN ON: His experience in the Gulf War: "I never expected to be involved in Desert Storm...I wasn't on the front lines (in the Gulf War). I worked mostly in an office, but there were bombs blowing up all around us. One blew up right over us one time. Another hit a barracks and killed lots of guys. Yeah, I was nervous. Very, very nervous. Especially at night. It was tough to deal with, because you'd hear alarms and then you'd see people running around crying...We lived in tents for much of the time in Saudi Arabia and when we got there it was so hot. Then later on in the year it started to get cold, real cold...What will I remember most about my time there! That's easy. It was the night we left. We flew out of there on my birthday, April 3. I was smiling all the way back...The Marines taught me a lot of responsibility. I changed a lot of things in my life after that, like respecting people, not talking bad to people, listening...After my time in the Marines, I'll never complain about football anymore."

His aggressive style of play: "I like hitting people hard. I like to be controlled. It's fun...I'm not really a vocal person. For me, it's action. I'm serious when I play football. I go all out. I never give up. I try to lead by example."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach John Robinson: "Errick is a leader because he's a mean S.O.B. He tries to hurt guys when he hits them. He's intense and serious. He's established himself as a man...I compare him to (3-time USC All-American linebacker) Richard Wood. He's that kind of player. He is a real attacker. He is extremely aggressive and explosive. And does he ever want to play!""

EDWARD HERVEY

Wide Receiver
Sr./Sr.

1994: One of USC's fastest players, the senior Hervey--a 3-game starter in 1993 who was on the field a lot--should have an even bigger role in 1994 at wide receiver. He and Keyshawn Johnson will compete for the starting spot vacated by ex-USC All-American Johnnie Morton.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Edward had a very good season in 1993, even though he was limited somewhat after spraining his ankle midseason. He has great speed, moves, hands and ability. He was our most improved player in spring practice. With continued improvement, he can be a big-play, big-time receiver for us."

1993: Hervey came to USC in the fall of 1993 as a transfer from Pasadena City College, where he was a standout quarterback and sprinter, but made quite an impression in his first year at Troy as a wide receiver. The speedy, multi-talented junior started 3 games (Houston, Arizona, Oregon) and appeared frequently in 8 others (he missed the Oregon State and Notre Dame contests with a sprained left ankle suffered at Oregon). He had 22 catches for 219 yards (10.0 avg.) with 2 TDs (a 19-yarder against Washington State and a 44-yarder at Oregon). He had 5 catches for 70 yards at Oregon and had 3-catch games versus Washington State (40 yards), Stanford (28) and Washington (21). He also threw a pass on an end around (a 15-yard completion to quarterback Rob Johnson against Stanford) and ran a reverse (he lost 9 yards against Stanford).

TRACK: Hervey joined the 1994 USC track team after spring football practice concluded. He was second in the 200 meters at the UCLA 4-way meet at 20.77. He also was second in the 200 in a heat at the Pac-10 championship and qualified for the final, but did not run because of leg cramps. Hervey also ran on USC's sprint relay teams, including the runnerup quartet at the Pac-10 meet which went 40.01.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Hervey made the 1992 Cal-Hi Sports J.C. All-State first team, Blue Chip J.C. Top 75 and All-Mission Conference first team at Pasadena (Calif.) City College. He averaged 171.0 yards of total offense in 1992 as a quarterback (he passed for 919 yards and 3 TDs on 78-of-143 passes for 54.5% and rushed for 791 yards and 8 TDs on 169 carries for a 4.7 avg.). Overall, he accounted for 1,710 total yards on 313 plays and scored 11 TDs. He was a 3-time Mission Conference Player of the Week in 1992. He was named MVP of the 1992 Rose City Classic Bowl as he passed for 1 TD and ran for another in a 28-27 win over College of the Desert.

In 1991, he rushed for 137 yards on 26 carries (5.3 avg.) and completed 12-of-28 passes (42.9%) for 116 yards and 1 TD. PCC was 9-2 in 1992 and 7-3 in 1991. Trojan teammate Gerald Caruthers also attended PCC.

In track, he was second in the 1992 California state community college 200 meters in 20.99 and 400 meters in 46.41. In 1993, he had bests of 20.65 in the 200 meters and 46.02 in the 400 meters. He was the 1993 South Coast

Conference Track Male Athlete of the Year and won the conference's 200 and 400 titles (he had the state's best times in both events, but didn't compete in the state meet because of a hamstring pull).

HIGH SCHOOL: Edward prepped at Compton (Calif.) High, where he played quarterback and wide receiver (he made the All-Moore League team) and also sprinted on the track team (he ran on the state champion 400-meter relay squad). Current Trojan Anthony Sanford also attended Pasadena CC and Compton High.

PERSONAL: He was born in Houston, Tex. He's a history major at USC.

EDWARD HERVEY ON: His speed: "Colleges recruit receivers for speed. If it wasn't for what I've done in track, I probably wouldn't be here."

The difference between playing quarterback and receiver: "The only difference I've seen is catching the ball. After I have the ball, I do the same things I've been doing. I move with it."

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH

Center
6-3, 270
Fr.*/So.

1994: A redshirt freshman reserve center, Himebauch was moved to that position from nose tackle midway through 1994 spring drills.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We feel center is the place for Jonathan. He's a very smart, dedicated player. In time, he'll become a very good center."

1993: Himebauch redshirted as a nose tackle in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team (as an offensive lineman), All-Inland Valley, All-Baseline League first team (offense and defense) and team MVP at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). In 1992, he played inside linebacker (posting 63 unassisted tackles and 3 sacks), offensive guard and long snapper.

In 1991, he made All-Inland Valley (as an offensive guard) and All-Baseline League. He also played basketball and track. He prepped at the same high school as current Trojan Jeff Diltz.

PERSONAL: He was born in Greenwich, Conn. He bench presses 350 pounds. His father, Jack, was USC's recruiting coordinator from 1987 to 1994. Jonathan's brother, Curt, was a walk-on defensive back at USC, while brother, Chris, captained North Carolina's swim team for 2 years (1988-89) and received a master's degree in business administration at USC.

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH ON: His father's influence on selecting USC: "I did kind of have an inside look at USC, but in the beginning I just saw it as college football. When I got to that age, dad left me alone about it. One thing he did was help me make connections with other schools. If I decided USC wasn't the best thing for me, he said he would be fine with it. He always treated me like any recruit. He tried not to give me any special treatment."

JEREMY HOGUE

Center-Offensive Guard
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Hogue, a talented junior who also stars in the classroom (he's on track to be a Rhodes Scholar candidate), is hoping to be healthy enough to compete for playing time at either center (a new position for him) or offensive guard (he started 4 times there in 1993). But he'll have to be fully recovered from surgery on a herniated disk in his lower back that sidelined him all of 1994 spring practice.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We have high expectations for Jeremy. He seems to be rehabbing well from his back surgery. If he can regain his strength, he'll be a major factor on our offensive line. He's very tough and smart. He's also an outstanding student who could be a Rhodes Scholar."

1993: An untested sophomore coming into the season, Hogue spent most of 1993 as the No. 2 left offensive guard behind Joel Crisman, but when Crisman went down with an injury, Hogue started there in 4 mid-season games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State) and performed admirably. He also appeared briefly on the line against Houston and Stanford, and on special teams at Washington.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Hogue was switched from nose guard to offensive guard at the start of 1992 fall practice. His only action of 1992 was a brief appearance at Arizona State. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in an ankle after 1992 spring drills.

1991: Hogue redshirted as a defensive guard in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hogue was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team as a senior at El Toro (Calif.) High. He was the highest grading offensive lineman in 5 El Toro games in 1990. Defensively, in a 1990 CIF playoff game, he posted 4 sacks, 5 pressures and 3 forced fumbles. In 1990, he registered 8 sacks, 6 forced fumbles and an interception. He was a 2-year starter for a pair of El Toro teams that went 23-4 and advanced to the CIF Finals in 1989 and the semifinals in 1990.

As a junior in 1989, Hogue was Super Prep All-West. An outstanding student, Hogue maintained a 4.1 GPA (4.0 scale) and was named a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete. He lettered 2 years in basketball and a year in track at El Toro. Brian is 1 of 4 Trojans from El Toro (along with Brian Haas, Rob Johnson and Chris Miller).

PERSONAL: Born in Houston, Tex., his family now lives in Oklahoma City, Okla. He's a political science major at USC with a A- average (3.89 GPA), tops on the team. He made the 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic first team. He has made USC's Dean List every semester and received a Merit Award and Recognition Award from USC's political science department. He is a member of numerous academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Golden Key, Blue Key and Blackstonians. His community service activities have included feeding the homeless in Oklahoma City, volunteer teaching at a Los Angeles elementary school, and speaking to schoolchildren about the dangers of drug abuse.

TARRIEL HOPPER

Inside Linebacker
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Hopper, a junior whose brother played at USC during John Robinson's first tenure at Troy, was moved to inside linebacker in 1994 spring practice and will provide depth there. He'll also star on special teams.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Inside linebacker is the best spot for Tarriel. He'll give us quality depth and toughness there. He's also a fine special teams player."

1993: Hopper was a sophomore reserve safety who appeared in 11 games in 1993, primarily on special teams. He made 3 tackles and recovered a fumble (on an onside kick at Notre Dame). He was moved from outside linebacker to safety in 1993 spring practice.

1991: Hopper redshirted as an outside linebacker and safety in 1991, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: While at Carson (Calif.) High, Hopper was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City 4-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Pacific League first team. As a 1990 senior, he had 104 tackles, 5 interceptions (2 were returned for touchdowns) and 4 fumble recoveries. Carson went 12-1, was ranked No. 5 in California, and won the L.A. City 4-A championship.

As a 1989 junior, Hopper made the Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team as a punter (35.7 avg.). In his career, he made 225 tackles (fourth most in school history). He also was the team's backup quarterback as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: His brother, Darrel, was a part-time starting defensive back at USC in 1982 (under Robinson), 1983 and 1984 who then played in the NFL (San Diego Chargers, Los Angeles Raiders) and CFL (Ottawa Roughriders). Tarriel is a public administration major at USC.

TARRIEL HOPPER ON: Why he chose USC: "I fell in love with the tradition. I saw all the games when my brother was here. It's somewhere I always wanted to be."

Helping out at a local church after the 1992 Los Angeles riots: "I had to help out whatever way I could. We're a part of this community. My father has a business here, my family's here and I'm a USC student. I'm a part of this city in a lot of ways."

ISRAEL IFEANYI

Outside Linebacker
Jr./Jr.

1994: Ifeanyi figures to be quite a story on the college football scene in 1994. A native of Nigeria, football is a relatively new sport for him. But his athleticism helped him adapt quickly to the game. The junior, who transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 after starring at Orange Coast Community College, is regarded as a dominating pass rusher in the mold of former Trojan Willie McGinest, a first round NFL draft pick (in fact, Ifeanyi inherited McGinest's No. 55 jersey). He and Errol Small will compete for the starting job at an outside linebacker spot.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Israel has a passion for greatness. I don't know if he can be as good as Willie McGinest, but he can be that type of player. He has that ability. But he'll be his own player. You can't tell by watching him that he has so little experience. He's very success oriented. He has a great desire to win and to do all the little things right. He's hungry to learn, hungry to improve."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Ifeanyi was named a 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV honorable mention and All-Mission Conference as a sophomore at Orange Coast Community College in Costa Mesa (Calif.). He had 49 tackles, 5 sacks, 15 quarterback pressures, 6 deflections and 2 forced fumbles in 1993. Orange Coast was 8-3 in 1993, ranked 25th in the U.S. and won the Orange County Bowl. Ifeanyi was Defensive Player of the Game in the Orange County Bowl, making 10 stops, 2 deflections, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

As a 1992 freshman, he started OCC's last 5 games. He posted 30 tackles, 2 sacks, 24 quarterback pressures, 3 deflections and 3 forced fumbles. OCC went 8-3 and played in the K-Swiss Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL: He attended Government Secondary School in Lagos, Nigeria.

PERSONAL: He is a native of Lagos, Nigeria and came to America 3 years ago. He speaks Igbo, the language of his tribe of the same name. He played cricket (he was a bowler on Nigeria's high school champion cricket team) and soccer. His mother, Helen, once won a bronze medal in the high hurdles in the West African Games. He has been nicknamed "Izzy" and "The Nigerian Nightmare." He's a communications major at USC.

ISRAEL IFEANYI ON: How he became interested in football: "I was about 13, living with my grandmother in Owerri, Nigeria, and all I remember is being at a friend's house, looking at this magazine. There was this picture of an American football player and I was very impressed with it. The player seemed like a warrior to me. I decided then that's what I wanted to be, a football player, an American football warrior...A little later, my father got me a videotape of a Miami-Cincinnati NFL game. I watched it over and over. I didn't even know the names of the positions, but I couldn't wait then to learn how to play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Orange Coast College defensive coordinator Mike Taylor: "Izzy walked in the door one day and just introduced himself, and said he wanted to play football. The first thing I noticed about him was that he filled up the doorway pretty good. He didn't know much about football, but he's a bright guy and he picked up the game really fast. He's got a great football body and he runs a 4.6 40. He'll be a pro someday."

KEYSHAWN JOHNSON

Wide Receiver
Jr./Jr.

1994: Johnson, a big, rangy junior, has come full circle at USC. The one-time Trojan football ballboy, who transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 after earning J.C. All-American honors at West Los Angeles Community College, now finds himself competing with Edward Hervey to start at wide receiver in 1994 at the spot vacated by ex-USC All-American Johnnie Morton.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Keyshawn had a great spring. He has enormous potential. He loves to play the game. He's a big, physical receiver who can catch the ball in traffic, but he also has quickness and good instincts. He plays like and even is built like (UCLA All-American) J.J. Stokes. He has a chance to be great."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Johnson's 1993 honors included J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Super Prep Juco 100, Cal-Hi Sports Top 50, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III first team, and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. In 9 games in 1993, he caught 55 passes for 1,245 yards (22.6 avg.) and 12 TDs. He ranked third in the state in 1993 in all-purpose yards with 1,706 (189.6 avg.).

As a freshman in 1991, he played the first 4 games as a safety, then sat out to concentrate on academics. He also was on the track team at West Los Angeles, with best marks of 21.9 in the 200 meters, 47.69 in the 400 meters and 24-6 1/4 in the long jump. Current Trojans DelVaughn Alexander and Marcus Bonds also went to West Los Angeles.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Dorsey High in Los Angeles, where he was Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City 4-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team, and All-Pacific League first team as a 1990 senior. He originally signed with Miami (Fla.) out of Dorsey, but didn't enroll there.

PERSONAL: As a youngster, Johnson was a ballboy with the Trojan football program for 6 years and also spent some of his free time doing chores in the USC sports information office. He says the funniest thing to ever happen to him on the field was when he accidentally lined up on the defensive side of the line of scrimmage when his team had the ball. He says his sports hero is NFL star receiver Michael Irvin. Johnson is a communications major at USC.

KEYSHAWN JOHNSON ON: His early memories of USC: "The first guy I ever met here was (ex-Trojan All-American safety) Ronnie Lott. It was the day he got drafted by the 49ers. He was at a local pizza place and he was signing autographs. We said, 'Can we get some pizza?' and he bought us this whole pizza. We were just kids so we were like, 'Wow!'...I would get out of elementary school at 2:15 p.m. I'd come home and get right on the Jefferson bus, or walk or ride my bike or whatever, to come to USC every day. I would get here by 2:30 p.m. and all the players would say, 'Don't you have school?'...When I was a ballboy, I was never short of role models. Among some of the players who looked out for me were Ronnie Lott, Marcus Allen and Charles White."

Signing with USC: "I knew where I went to college would have to involved some tie to USC because of the way they treated me in the past and made me feel comfortable. I had to come home."

His ability: "I'm very confident in myself and my abilities. I will do anything—anything—to get things done. I want people to remember me as someone who didn't waste his talent."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "He can do all the things (ex-USC All-American wide receiver and NFL first round draft pick) Johnnie Morton could do, and he's bigger and faster."

ROB JOHNSON

Quarterback
Sr./Sr.

1994: Perhaps the nation's most efficient, productive and accurate quarterback in 1993, Johnson is now a leading Heisman Trophy candidate. The record-setting senior, who also excels in the classroom, will be starting for his third year in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rob has a chance to develop into a great player. Sure, he is a leading candidate for the Heisman. But more importantly to our team, he can be the total quarterback by providing the winning edge that great players in that position can provide. His accuracy is phenomenal and his interception rate is amazing. If he can maintain those skills and improve his play, we're looking at a special player."

CAREER: Johnson is second on USC's career passing list (behind 1988 Heisman runner-up Rodney Peete) with 490 completions in 770 attempts (63.6%) for 5,973 yards (20th on the Pac-10 career chart) and 43 TDs (14th on the Pac-10 career list). His 63.6% career completion percentage is above Todd Marinovich's USC mark of 61.6.% and near the Pac-10 career mark of 64.5% set by California's Rich Campbell. His 142.7 career pass efficiency rating (not including bowls) is No. 8 on the NCAA list (400-499 completions). His 5,632 yards of career total offense is third on Troy's all-time chart (and 21st on the Pac-10 list). Johnson also stars in the classroom, where he is a 2-time Pac-10 All-Academic first teamer.

1993: Johnson, as a junior in his second year as the starter, had among the best seasons ever by a Trojan quarterback in 1993. He set 10 Pac-10 and USC records and talk started of Johnson being a leading Heisman Trophy candidate in 1994. He was among the candidates for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and was listed among 19 players in College & Pro Football Newsweekly's "Heisman Watch." He made the 1993 All-Pac-10 first team, UPI All-American honorable mention squad and was a Football News Almost All-American. He was also selected as the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year by the Mesa Tribune.

In 1993, Johnson came near the Pac-10 season completion percentage record of 70.7% owned by Cal's Campbell (the NCAA mark is 71.4% set by BYU's Steve Young in 1983) while setting the USC season mark as he hit 68.6% of his passes (308-of-449, both USC season records) for a USC season record 3,630 yards (his 3,285 regular-season yards was second on the Pac-10 season list; he was the first Trojan and fourth Pac-10 quarterback to eclipse 3,000 yards), a USC season record 29 scores (his 26 regular-season TDs was fourth on the Pac-10 season list) and just 6 interceptions (1.34% interception percentage, a USC record; his 1.23% regular-season interception percentage was a Pac-10 season record and was better than the existing NCAA mark, although 2 other players had a better percentage than Johnson in 1993). His 155.5 regular-season passing efficiency mark in 1993 puts him 33rd on the all-time NCAA season list. His 3,425 yards of total offense in 1993 was a USC season record (his 3,108 regular-season total offense yards put him third on the Pac-10 season list). His 30 passing and rushing TDs in 1993 was a USC record. He was second in the Pac-10 in passing efficiency (155.5, 10th in U.S.) and third in total offense (259.0, 18th in U.S.).

In 1993, he had 6 games with 300-plus passing yards, 5 games with at least a 75.0% completion percentage and 6 games with 3-plus TD passes thrown.

In the North Carolina opener, he completed a career-best 75.0% of his passes (21-of-28) for 167 yards and a TD. For his showing, he was named the Disneyland Pigskin Classic USC MVP. Then, versus Houston, he again completed a career-high percentage of passes, this time 75.8% (25-of-33) for 279 yards while equalling a personal best with 4 TDs. At Penn State, he completed 25 passes out of a career-high 43 attempts for 291 yards and 2 TDs (he threw his first interception of 1993 after 64 straight aerials), but in the second half, he hit 69.0% of his tosses (20-of-29, including connecting on his last 6 throws and 12 of his final 13) for 223 yards and both scores. He set a new USC single game record with 392 passing yards versus Washington State while throwing 3 TDs (including a career-long 69-yarder) and completing 21-of-26 passes for a career-high 80.8% (the third time in 1993 that he set a personal best for completion percentage). That WSU game was the best outing, percentage-wise, by a Trojan quarterback since Rodney Peete hit 85.0% of his aerials against Stanford in 1987. For his performance against WSU, he was named Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week (with teammate Johnnie Morton). At Arizona, against the nation's top-ranked defense, he was 16-of-27 for 107 yards. He had his fourth game in 1993 with at least a 75.0% completion rate when he was 28-of-36 (77.8%) at Oregon, where he threw for 307 yards and 3 TDs, including a career-long 72-yarder (in the first half, he had 15 straight completions while connecting on 17-of-21 throws for 245 yards and 2 scores; in the second quarter alone, he was 12-of-14 for 198 yards and both TDs). He played just the first 3 quarters against Oregon State before the starters were pulled, but still hit 12-of-19 passes for 196 yards and 3 TDs. At Notre Dame, he was 29-of-46--both career highs--for 269 yards and 2 TDs (he was 14-of-16 for 119 yards and 1 TD in the first half, including 12 completions in a row at one point). At California, he had career highs in completion percentage (82.1%, the fourth time in 1993 that he has set a personal best) and completions (32, 1 shy of Marinovich's USC single game record) while throwing for 369 yards, 2 TDs and no interceptions in 39 attempts to earn Sports Illustrated's national Offensive Player of the Week honors. He set USC season records for completions and TD passes thrown while hitting 22-of-35 for 349 yards and 3 TDs (including a 71-yarder) versus Stanford (he also caught a 15-yard pass in the game). At Washington, he set the USC season passing yardage and pass attempts records as he was 24-of-37 for 252 yards, 1 TD and no picks (including 12-of-16 in the second half). He was 23-of-36 for 307 yards and 2 TDs versus UCLA while setting the USC season total offense record (he was named USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA). Against Utah, he completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and 3 TDs despite playing with a slight case of the flu (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 yards and the 3 TDs, including 9 straight completions to tie a Freedom Bowl mark).

1992: Johnson, whose thread-the-needle accuracy and soft touch revitalized the Trojan passing attack in 1992, won the starting quarterback job over 1991 starter Reggie Perry and was impressive as a sophomore. Johnson was second in the Pac-10 in passing efficiency at 123.7 and fourth in total offense (167.0). He won All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice. His passing line was 163-of-285 (57.2%) for 2,118 yards, 12 TDs and 14 interceptions. The 163 completions put him sixth on USC's season passing list. He had a streak of 99 consecutive passes without an interception during 1992.

In the San Diego State opener, he was 20-of-33 overall (60.6%) for 278 yards and 4 TDs. That was the most yards for a Trojan signalcaller in 16 games and the most TD tosses (one shy of Rodney Peete's USC game record) at USC in 21 games (and 1 more than Perry had all of 1991). Then, at Oklahoma, Johnson was 17-of-27 for 201 yards, and threw a 51-yard TD to flanker Curtis Conway. At the time, it was the longest pass at USC since Todd Marinovich hit Johnnie Morton for a 77-yard TD against California in 1990. Rob only played part of the Washington game before suffering a mild concussion midway through the second quarter. He bounced back in a big way the next week, going 11-of-16 for 125 yards and 3 TDs versus Oregon. Versus California, he was twice knocked out of the game (for good with a neck sprain late in the third quarter), but he completed 11-of-22 passes for 134 yards and a TD. He was 19-of-28 for 196 yards against Washington State and threw a key 27-yard fourth down TD pass to Conway with 27 seconds to play in the first half to give Troy a 21-7 lead at the intermission. At Arizona State, he hit 8-of-13 tosses for 137 yards and a TD. He was 11-of-22 for 195 yards at Stanford, but threw 3 interceptions. Against Arizona, he was 12-of-24 for 213 yards (including a 65-yarder to Morton to set up USC's winning TD; it was USC's longest pass of the year, Johnson's longest of his career, and the longest play from scrimmage against Arizona in 1992) and he outjumped a Wildcat defender to catch a game-winning 3-yard throwback from tailback Deon Strother midway through the fourth quarter. That performance against the Wildcats earned Johnson Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors. Johnson scored 3 times the following week at UCLA—he caught another TD pass (a 36-yarder from Conway off a lateral) and had a pair of 1-yard scoring sneaks—to go along with his 16-of-32 passing for 166 yards. Against Notre Dame, Rob completed 27-of-41 passes for 302 yards, all career highs, with a TD. He was named USC's Offensive Player of the Game versus UCLA and Notre Dame. He was just 7-of-18 for 95 yards with 3 picks versus Fresno State.

1991: The backup quarterback to Perry most of 1991, Johnson became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for USC in the post-World War II era (records before then are incomplete) when he started at Arizona. Rob played that entire Arizona game, hitting 10-of-20 passes for 114 yards and an 8-yard TD to Estrus Crayton (with 2 interceptions) while guiding USC to a pair of TDs. Two games before then, at California in USC's eighth game of the season, Johnson made his first appearance of 1991 by playing nearly all of the fourth quarter, going 6-of-9 for 80 yards and a TD (22 yards to Larry Wallace) while leading USC to 2 touchdowns. The next game, against Washington, he relieved Perry in the third quarter and was 3-of-7 for 31 yards and led Troy to a field goal (its only score in the game). Overall in 1991, as 1 of just 6 first-year freshmen to play at USC, Rob completed 19-of-36 passes (52.8%) for 225 yards, 2 TDs and 2 interceptions.

BASEBALL: Johnson was a righthanded pitcher for the USC baseball team in the spring of 1992 before quitting to concentrate on spring football practice. He had a 6.75 ERA while appearing briefly in 2 games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Johnson was one of the most celebrated prep quarterbacks in the nation in 1990, winning All-American first team honors from Super Prep and Tom Lemming. He led El Toro (Calif.) High to the 1990 CIF semifinals and an 11-2 record by completing 207-of-303 passes (68.3%) for 2,788 yards and 29 touchdowns. As a result, he was named Super Prep All-Far West Offensive Player of the Year. His other 1990 honors included Blue Chip All-American second team and USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-County Offensive Player of the Year and South Coast League Co-Offensive Player of the Year. His 2 finest single-game performances included numbers of 21-for-25 passing for 275 yards and 3 touchdowns, and 16-for-19 for 241 yards and 3 touchdowns. He passed for 312 yards in 1 game and threw 4 touchdown strikes in another game. He set 5 school season passing records. Rob's father, Bob, was the El Toro coach.

As a 1989 junior wide receiver (El Toro's quarterback was Steve Stenstrom, now at Stanford), Johnson made 65 catches for 1,260 yards (19.4 avg.) and 12 touchdowns. For his play at receiver, he was named California Football All-State honorable mention, CIF All-Southern Section, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team. He also was 20-for-25 (80.0%) for 550 yards as a backup quarterback in 1989. El Toro was 12-2 in 1989 and advanced to the CIF finals.

As a 1988 sophomore, Johnson split time with the varsity and junior varsity teams as a quarterback and defensive back. Current Trojan teammates Brian Haas, Jeremy Hogue and Chris Miller also prepped at El Toro.

A 3-sport star at El Toro, Johnson was named the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports and Amateur Athletic Foundation Boys State Athlete of the Year and was the first prepster named twice as the Orange County Register Male Athlete of the Year (1990 and 1991). He was a 4-year starter for the Charger varsity basketball team, twice earning All-County honors and 3 times winning All-League recognition. He averaged 17.5 points a game as a sophomore, 21.8 as a junior and 25.0 as senior and was named team MVP both his junior and senior seasons. Rob was also a 4-year letterman in baseball, pitching El Toro to more than 20 victories during his career. He was a 16th round draft pick by the Minnesota Twins in 1991. A fine student with a 3.5 GPA at El Toro, he made the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

PERSONAL: His older brother, Bret, was a quarterback at UCLA and Michigan State (he spent time in the CFL and is now in the NFL). His cousin, Bart Johnson, pitched in the major leagues. Rob is a communications major at USC with a B-average (2.89 GPA). He made the 1993 and 1992 Pac-10 All-Academic first team (he was the only player to make both the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams in 1993). In the summer of 1994, he worked with the construction crew that repaired the earthquake damage to the Los Angeles Coliseum.

ROB JOHNSON ON: Being a Heisman Trophy candidate: "If they want to bill me as a Heisman candidate, fine. But my stats last year, that's not something you repeat so easily. I'll try to. But when I say I expect things to go better, I mean more wins...Every year you have to prove yourself all over again."

His passing efficiency: "Every quarterback, me included, would love to throw the ball down the field as often as he can. But that's not the way games are won. I've always felt that anybody who throws the ball enough can lead the country in yardage. But those teams don't win games. Efficiency wins games. Joe Montana has shown that."

Being the best: "Have you seen 'The Natural?' I want to be just like Roy Hobbs. I don't care about money or anything. Basically what he was, he wanted to be the best...I always wanted to be the best at something. I wanted to be a professional at something, whether I was a lawyer or a coach or a teacher. I'd always wanted to be the best. I don't want to be mediocre...But, if I give it my best and work hard every day and I don't end up being the best, I can live with myself."

Being in the limelight: "I 've always told my mom that the one thing I want to do is be famous. It kind of sounds bad, but I've always wanted to be famous. I don't care whether it's football or what."

The 1993 loss to UCLA: "That was a tough loss becuase it was such a huge game. We could've brought the old USC back all in one game. It was a hard loss to get over, but I soon realized the guy made a good play (on his late interception), it happened, and I couldn't dwell on it...You could see everyone feeling bad for you and I hate that. I can't stand pity. It's the worst...The next day, I watched the game film. Then I put it behind me. It's the same thing you do with a win. You have to learn what you can from a game, then you go on...Even with that loss, I think we gained a lot of respect last year. And Coach Robinson instilled a winning attitude on this team."

His expectations: "I just want to do better than I have, throw 80 or 90 percent. I just want to get better. It's probably not possible, but you can work for it every day...I expect to come through if the game's on the line. If I don't do that, I didn't do my job."

Taking hits: "You're going to take shots--I've taken some pretty good ones--but so does every other quarterback. I wish I could stay in the pocket and throw and not get touched, but that's not football...Watching films, when you get blasted, it's funny, as long as you're all right. You see the ball released and then you see your body fly back about 5 yards."

His speed: "I get to the corner on everyone, but no one thinks I'm fast. I'm 220 pounds, so maybe people don't think I'm that fast. But if you can get around the corner on a guy, well. . ."

Stanford quarterback Steve Stenstrom, his former prep teammate: "It's a friendly rivalry. But we are always trying to be better than one another, so we'll always have our little competition...(In the off-season) we always call each other to try to hook up. Although we always want to throw together, it's just harder for us us to get together now because of our schedules."

His brother, Bret: "He's a better quarterback than I'll ever be...I've learned a lot from my brother and what he has gone through. That provides me with an example of what can happen in college football, that you never know what is going to happen."

Playing for his father in high school: "Playing for Dad was fun and it was also demanding. I knew he was going to be harder on me than on anyone else on the team. But he also separated it. He kept football away from home. Sometimes I'd ask him a football question and he wouldn't answer it...I always though playing for my father was great because not only is he one of the best quarterback coaches around, but he's also my dad. Being around your dad all the time is fun, and not many other kids get to do that...My dad is an excellent quarterback coach and my brother is an excellent quarterback, so being around those two people who are influential helped me become a better athlete and a better quarterback. I really had an advantage over a lot of other kids. Still, they didn't force me to work hard. They were there to help, but I still had to have the drive to work hard and practice on my own."

Baseball: "It's something nice I can fall back on if football doesn't work out."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Doug Spoon, San Gabriel Valley News: "Last season, Rob Johnson's statistics were as good as those of the Heisman Trophy winner. By the end of the 1994 season, Rob Johnson might very well be the Heisman Trophy winner."

Don Borst, Tacoma News Tribune: "The accurate and savvy Rob Johnson is on the short list of Heisman Trophy candidates."

Craig Ellenport, SPORT: "Rob Johnson's transformation has been nothing short of amazing...Suddenly, he's not only one of the best college quarterbacks in the country, but a top NFL prospect as well."

USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "He's like a surgeon--high percentage, low risk...Rob has two great qualities: accuracy and toughness. He finds the open receiver, and he stands in there and delivers the ball...He's one of the best I've worked with. As far as talent-wise, he may be the best...He's got good physical attributes, very good accuracy, a good arm and he's a nice-sized guy. And he gets rid of the ball quickly...He's a tough guy with the qualities of a top quarterback. He's got great concentration downfield and he doesn't get worried about the pass rush."

Ex-USC All-American wide receiver and NFL first rounder Johnnie Morton: "He throws with real good touch...He throws a soft ball that's easy to catch...He's accurate. You don't have to really go out of your way."

Stanford head coach Bill Walsh: "He is the perfect quarterback for USC's system."

Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz: "If you put Rob Johnson's numbers up next to Charlie Ward's, you'd be shocked how well they compare."

Oregon head coach Rich Brooks: "Johnson does an excellent job of finding the open receiver. He has the ability to scramble, he is accurate and does an outstanding job when given time."

USC All-American offensive tackle Tony Boselli: "He has an air about him where he knows he's good and he knows what to do. That's what you want in a quarterback. Everyone has a lot of confidence in him. Everytime he drops back, when you're blocking you know something good is going to happen."

USC wide receiver Edward Hervey: "There's something about Rob that you can feel when you're around him. You know that the ball is going to be moved when Rob's in there."

Los Angeles Times: "Johnson is expected to be the top NFL quarterback prospect in 1994."

Long Beach Press-Telegram: "USC's Rob Johnson had the best statistical season (in 1993) any quarterback ever had on the Los Angeles college football scene."

College & Pro Football Newsweekly: "He may be the best in the country."

MATT KENELEY

Defensive End-Nose Tackle
So.*/Jr.

1994: Just a sophomore, Keneley is USC's only returning starter on the defensive line in 1994. He's listed as a starting defensive end, but he can also play nose tackle.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I expect Matt to make great progress this year. With improved confidence and aggressiveness, he could be one of the real up-and-coming defensive linemen in the Pac-10."

1993: Despite being only a redshirt freshman, Keneley started 9 games on the defensive line in 1993: USC's first 5 (North Carolina, Houston, Penn State, Washington State, Arizona) at defensive tackle and the last 4 of the regular season (California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA) at nose tackle. Overall in 1993, he made 41 tackles, including 7 for losses of 29 yards (2 were sacks for minus 10 yards) while appearing in all 13 contests. He also blocked a field goal at Washington. He had 6 stops against North Carolina and Notre Dame, and 5 at Penn State. For all this, he was named to the 1993 Football News Freshman All-American third team.

1992: Keneley redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: The Orange County Register's top-ranked recruit, Keneley was named Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division II first team, Register All-Orange County first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, and South Coast League Player of the Year in 1991 at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He switched from linebacker to defensive tackle prior to his senior season and recorded 92 tackles with 9 sacks, a forced fumble and a blocked field goal. He was a member of a 7-4 team in 1991.

He also played tight end during his 1990 junior season when the Diablos posted an 11-2 record and won the South Coast League championship. He lettered his junior year in basketball at Mission Viejo. A fine student, Keneley maintained a 3.5 GPA in high school and was named Rams/GTE Academic All-Orange County in 1991.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.58 GPA). He made the 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention squad. He bench presses 335 pounds.

MATT KENELEY ON: His quickness: "That is probably one of the skills I think that has gotten me as far as I've gone. It's always a little decieving when they see a guy with my size who can move."

SAMMY KNIGHT

Safety
So./So.

1994: Known for his hard hitting and nose for the ball, the sophomore Knight--whose brother once starred at USC--is competing in 1994 with Scott Fields for the strong safety job vacated by graduated Mike Salmon.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Sammy is a great competitor and is extremely physical, although that sometimes gets him out of position. With improved speed and discipline, he can be outstanding."

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to see action at USC in 1993, Knight played a key role for the Trojans as a reserve safety and key special teams player. He even started the Oregon State game at free safety (he made 5 tackles in the contest), becoming the first USC true freshman to start at safety in the post-World War II era. Overall in 1993, he had 15 tackles, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery (at Oregon) and 1 forced fumble (at Penn State) while appearing in all 13 games. He did all this despite playing part of the season with a broken rib.

HIGH SCHOOL: Knight's 1992 honors included Parade All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American Dream Team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, and Ivy League Defensive MVP at Rubidoux (Calif.) High. He played free safety, wide receiver and quarterback in 1992, posting 153 tackles, 11 interceptions (4 in one game), 5 blocked kicks, 4 fumble recoveries, 5 forced fumbles, 483 yards and 12 TDs on 53 rushes (9.1 avg.), 13 catches for 189 yards (14.5 avg.), and 3-of-7 passing for 59 yards. He had 30 tackles in a game once. His team was 11-1 in 1992.

In his career as a 3-year starter, he had 21 interceptions and 15 blocked kicks. He also played basketball (he averaged 14.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 7.0 assists in 1993 and made the 1992 All-Ivy League first team) and track.

In 1991, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, and All-League first team, while making 172 tackles (82 solo), 6 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks.

He had 150 tackles, a school-record 6 blocked kicks and 4 interceptions as a sophomore in 1990 while making Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County honorable mention and All-League first team.

PERSONAL: His sports hero is ex-USC and current NFL star Ronnie Lott. He bench presses 315 pounds. His brother, Ryan, was a record-setting prep All-American running back at Rubidoux (2,620 yards as a 1983 senior, including 501 in one game) who then lettered 4 years (1984-87) at tailback at USC and led the Trojans in rushing in 1985 and 1986 (he's 13th on USC's career rushing list with 1,875 yards). Another brother, Greg, played defensive line at Colorado.

SAMMY KNIGHT ON: Why he watches videotapes of former USC safety greats: "I would just sit back and watch them and how they played. That gave me a sense of how football should be played. In Ronnie Lott, you're talking about the greatest safety to ever play football."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach John Robinson: "Sammy is a football player. He is aggressive. When you snap the ball, he starts running at the guy with the ball. He is one of those guys that wants to be first on that pile. Ronnie Lott was that way. So was Dennis Thurman."

MATT KOFFLER

Quarterback
So.*/Jr.

1994: Koffler, a sophomore, will provide depth in the quarterback corps in 1994. After 1994 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee, but he should be ready to go this fall.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Matt improved dramatically throughout this past year and is coming off a good spring. I have confidence in him. The quarterback position is very competitive and he is in the middle of that competition."

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Koffler served as the No. 3 quarterback in 1993 and saw brief action late in 2 games (Houston and Washington State). He completed his only pass attempt of 1993 in the Houston contest and, although it went for no yards, it was caught by wide receiver Johnnie Morton, giving Morton a USC record-setting 15 catches in the game. He had post-season arthrosopic surgery for torn cartilage in his left knee.

1992: Koffler redshirted as a quarterback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Max Emfinger All-American, Koffler passed for over 4,500 yards his final 2 seasons at Rosemead (Calif.) High, including 1,945 yards during his 1991 senior season. He completed 129-of-220 (58.6%) passes, including 15 that went for TDs (he also ran for 8 TDs). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, and All-CIF Division V first team. Against Duarte High, he threw for 289 yards (16-of-22) and 5 TDs and rushed 72 yards for another TD.

As a 1990 junior, Matt made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division V first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and Mission Valley League Back of the Year while throwing for 2,489 yards and 25 TDs. He led Rosemead to an 11-3 record and the Mission Valley championship. He enjoyed the best game of his career against Apple Valley High in the 1990 CIF playoffs, passing for 324 yards (17-of-25) and 3 TDs.

He won All-Mission Valley League first team recognition as a defensive end during his 1989 sophomore season.

He lettered 3 years in basketball at Rosemead, averaging 16.8 points and a league-best 13.2 rebounds during his senior season. He was a 2-time All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Mission Valley League pick in basketball.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 325 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

DONG KOO

Offensive Guard
So.*/Jr.

1994: Koo, a sophomore, will provide depth at offensive guard in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Dong has made real progress. He has become physical and competitive. If he can improve his quickness, he could contribute on the offensive line."

1993: As a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard, Koo had an appendectomy in the pre-season and that sidelined him for USC's first 5 games. His only action of 1993 was a brief appearance against Oregon State. He was moved in 1993 spring practice from offensive tackle to left offensive guard.

1992: Koo redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Koo was named 1991 Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team third team, and All-San Gabriel Valley League first team while at Warren High in Downey (Calif.). He had a 90% blocking grade in 1991.

PERSONAL: Dong came to the United States with his family from South Korea in 1985. He never saw a football game until viewing the 1989 USC-Michigan Rose Bowl on television (USC lost). He holds a second-degree black belt in taekwondo. He turned down an offer to become a sumo wrestler in South Korea. Koo wants to become a priest. After his Friday night prep games, he would head to church and pray from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. Dong is a religious studies major at USC with a B average (3.05 GPA). He bench presses 360 pounds.

DONG KOO ON: Wanting to become a priest: "I prayed to God and told Him if He made me a USC football player, I'd become a priest. And if I ever become a pro football player, I'll serve Him forever."

How he learned English: "I basically watched TV and I have a lot of American friends. I don't have any Korean friends. So I just hung around with American friends and learned it quick."

His taekwondo skills: "When I was little, I was really small and skinny, so I could do jump kicks and everything, but now as I get older and kind of heavier, it's getting harder...When I was young, kids would make fun of me, but I'd never get into fights. All I did was turn around and walk away. Yeah, if I wanted to, I could have handled them. But my mother would have killed me if I got suspended."

JEFF KOPP

1994: Kopp, a rugged senior who will be starting for his third year in 1994, has been moved back to inside linebacker after spending 1993 as USC's leading tackler while an outside linebacker.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jeff will be a much-improved player because he'll be able to concentrate strictly on inside linebacker in 1994. He was our most consistent linebacker last season. He's self-motivated and will provide outstanding leadership. I'd like to see him turn it loose and play with reckless abandon this year."

1993: As a junior, Kopp was moved to an outside linebacker spot in 1993 spring practice in USC's new 4-3 defensive formation after starting at inside linebacker in 1992. He led USC in tackles in 1993 with 83 (17th in the Pac-10 at 6.8). He started 10 games outside and 3 at inside linebacker because of injuries there. Eight of his tackles were for losses of 29 yards (second on the team), including 2 sacks for -14 yards. He also deflected 4 passes and forced a fumble. He topped the Trojans in stops against Houston (8), Oregon (7, with 2 sacks and a forced fumble early in the fourth quarter which set up Troy's final TD), Oregon State (9, including 2 for losses), California (6), and UCLA (9), and had another 10 at Notre Dame, 9 versus Stanford, 8 at Penn State and 7 at Washington. He was named a Football News Almost All-American.

1992: As a sophomore, Kopp became the starting strongside inside linebacker in the second game of 1992 (Oklahoma) and provided a huge boost to the Trojan defense. He made 74 tackles (fourth at USC), including team highs of 11 versus both Oregon (with 3 sacks and a forced fumble) and Arizona (with 2 for losses and a forced fumble late in the game which USC recovered), 9 at Washington (with a deflection), and 8 versus Notre Dame (with a fumble recovery, which set up a field goal). Seven of his tackles were for losses (of 38 yards) in 1992. He had 2 fumble recoveries to tie for the team lead (the other besides Notre Dame was against California, which set up a TD), 2 forced fumbles, and 2 deflections.

1991: Kopp backed up Matt Gee at strongside inside linebacker as a redshirt freshman and appeared in 9 games there and on special teams. He didn't get into the Stanford game and, because of a sprained right knee suffered in practice prior to the UCLA game, he sat out the Bruin season finale. Overall in 1991, he made 11 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard). He had 4 stops against California.

1990: Kopp redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A Super Prep All-American, Kopp registered 172 tackles, 7 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries and an interception as a linebacker in 1989 at San Ramon High in Danville (Calif.). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team and Defensive Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-Northern California, San Francisco Examiner All-Bay Area first team, and MVP of the All-Alameda County first team (as a linebacker and offensive lineman). He led San Ramon to an 8-4 record and the CIF North Coast Section 3-A Division semi-finals.

As a 1988 junior, he earned All-County and All-Bay Area honors while recording more than 120 tackles and 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. He bench presses 340 pounds. His father, Thomas, played fullback-guard at Arizona State. His brother, Mike, wrestled at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.

JEFF KOPP ON: Taking a new "wild-and-crazy" attitude onto the field in 1993: "My days of being the 'quiet one' are over...I'm sort of a quiet guy and linebackers are supposed to be the wildest guys on the team. But I couldn't play that way. I played the game with my own approach...I'm a quieter, calmer person and my intensity is more focused. I'm not flashy. I'm more of a blue-collar type of player. I know what I'm supposed to do on the field and I do it...But the old way wasn't working anymore. I had a talk with defensive coordinator Don Lindsey before the (1993) Oregon game and I told him I thought I was being too cautious. I didn't want to be a wild man running around out there. But I felt I needed to make more plays. To do that I needed to be more aggressive. Coach Lindsey told me to go out and have some fun and not hold anything back."

His jersey number: "After my first year here, (ex-USC All-American inside linebacker) Scott Ross told me he wanted to pass along his uniform number (35) to me. I had been wearing No. 49, but Scott had told me how Rex Moore had passed the number on to him and Riki Ellison had worn it before Rex. They were all famous USC linebackers who were known for playing a crazy, intense, 'wild dog' style of play. It was a great feeling to know I would be the next guy to wear that number. But I also knew it was a big responsibility to uphold. And I tried to uphold it the same crazy way they did...The coaches told me I had all the tools necessary to be a great linebacker, but that I had to quit trying to live up to other people's expectations, that I was Jeff Kopp, not someone else."

RYAN LENDERMAN

Sr.*/Sr.

1994: Lenderman, a senior who has glue-like hands, figures in the wide receiver rotation in 1994. He might also once again be the holder on all placekicks. He missed 1994 spring practice while playing on USC's baseball team.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ryan has great hands. If he remains injury-free, he can play a major role in 1994."

1993: As a junior, Lenderman was the backup wide receiver behind All-American Johnnie Morton. He appeared in all 13 games there and on special teams. Overall in 1993, he caught 6 passes for 61 yards (10.2 avg.), including 4 for 34 yards against Washington State. He also became the holder on all placekicks by mid-season when regular holder Mike Salmon took over the placekicking duties and Lenderman kept that job when Cole Ford returned from injury as the kicker.

1992: As a sophomore reserve split end in 1992, Lenderman saw limited action, but didn't catch a pass.

1991: Lenderman was a reserve split end as a redshirt freshman in 1991, but he didn't see any action. He didn't suit up for USC's first 2 games (Memphis State and Penn State) while recovering from a dislocated right shoulder suffered in pre-season drills. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on that shoulder.

1990: Lenderman redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

BASEBALL: Lenderman was an outfielder for USC's baseball team in 1994, but did not play.

HIGH SCHOOL: Colorado's all-time prep receiver, Lenderman snared 251 passes during his 4-year career at Grand Junction (Colo.) High, 1 reception shy of the national high school record. A 4-year starter, Lenderman wa a 1989 Parade and Super Prep All-American. He was also USA Today All-USA second team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. A 3-time All-State honoree, Lenderman caught 62 passes for 950 yards (15.3 avg.) and 13 TDs in 1989. He had 23 grabs and 4 TDs in the season-finale against Cortez High. He started 43 of 45 games during his career.

As a 1988 junior, he caught 89 passes for 1,468 yards (16.5 avg.) and 20 TDs. Grand Junction won the Colorado State 3A championship with a 14-0 record (the team was 31-4 in Lenderman's 3 seasons). Ryan was named 1988 USA Today All-USA honorable mention.

He posted 76 catches for 1,156 yards (15.2 avg.) and 14 TDs as a sophomore in 1987. He had 27 receptions and 4 TDs as a 1986 freshman.

He also lettered in baseball (centerfield), winning All-State honors in 1989 and 1990. He batted .490 in 1990 with 4 home runs.

WILLIE LOWERY

Defensive End
So.*/Jr.

1994: Lowery, a sophomore, is listed as a backup defensive end behind returning starter Matt Keneley in 1994.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Because he got some experience last year, we expect great improvement from Willie this season in terms of his toughness and big play ability. He's capable of making an impact up front."

1992: Lowery redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Lowery made Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, All-CIF Division VIII first team, and Sunkist League Defensive Player of the Year in 1991. He notched 92 tackles with 12 sacks and 4 blocked punts in 1991 after averaging 10 tackles a game in 1990. He led the Eagles to a 10-2 record and the semifinals of the CIF Division VIII playoffs. He was a 3-time All-Sunkist League honoree. Willie was a prep teammate of current Trojan David Dotson.

ROBERT LOYA

Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Loya, a junior who has started 7 times at offensive guard in his career, was moved to center in 1994 spring practice and emerged as the starter in place of graduated Craig Gibson (although he might be pushed by Jeremy Hogue). He is also available to slide back over to guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Robert's fine performance this past spring was the best news of spring ball. He stepped in at center and was right at home. He's tough, physical, quick and smart. He possesses the kind of attitude we need on our offensive line."

1993: Loya was a reserve offensive guard as a sophomore in 1993. He appeared in 4 games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State). He missed 3 games (California, Stanford, Washington) with an inflamed bursa sac in his knee. He missed the first half of 1993 spring practice while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery to remove cartilage from his left knee.

1992: As just a redshirt freshman, Loya started 7 games (Washington and then the final 6 regular season contests) at right offensive guard in 1992 and did an admirable job. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove right knee cartilage following 1992 spring practice.

1991: Loya appeared briefly in the Memphis State opener as a backup strong offensive guard, but then suffered a pinched nerve in his neck prior to the next game (Penn State) and was sidelined the rest of his 1991 freshman season. Because of the early injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He was 1 of just 6 first-year freshman to see action in 1991.

HIGH SCHOOL: Loya teamed with current Trojan Clay Hattabaugh to give Fontana (Calif.) High one of the finest offensive lines in the state in 1989 and 1990. Fontana gained 7,676 yards rushing his last 2 seasons, including a school-record 4,244 in 1989. He was named to 6 1990 All-America first teams—USA Today All-USA, The National's Top 50, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. Robert also made Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana was 24-2 in Loya's final 2 years, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

As a 1989 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassman, All-CIF Division I first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Both years, he made the team's line calls and had blocking grades of more than 80%.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC. He made 1992 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention. He bench presses 315 pounds.

ROBERT LOYA ON: Run blocking: "In high school, we never passed the ball. It was just the running game. My real game is the run. I've always loved to run. I just love pounding."

ELIC MAHONE

1994: After redshirting 1993 because of an injury, Mahone--who is regarded as a very good pass rusher--has re-emerged and the senior enters 1994 listed as a starting defensive end.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Elic can be a big timer. He possesses outstanding speed and quickness, and is the fastest, quickest of our defensive linemen. He combines that with his impressive strength to be a big-play maker."

1993: Mahone was going to play a prominent role on USC's defensive line as a senior in 1993, but he separated his left shoulder on the first day of pre-season fall practice and redshirted. Playing his third position in 3 years, he was moved in 1993 spring practice to defensive end.

1992: As a junior, Mahone switched from tight end to defensive tackle-outside linebacker in 1992 spring practice and backed up David Webb at that position. Elic saw limited action there and on special teams in 1992, getting 1 tackle. He separated his left shoulder in practice prior to the California game and missed 3 contests (California, Washington State and Arizona State).

1991: A reserve tight end as a 1991 sophomore, Mahone played in extra tight end situations and on special teams. He appeared in 8 of USC's 11 games (all but the Penn State, Arizona State and Arizona contests), but did not catch a pass.

1990: As a first-year freshman, Mahone began 1990 as a reserve tight end, but as injuries hit the tight end corps he steadily moved up the depth chart to where he saw plenty of action as the backup behind Bob Crane for the Notre Dame game and No. 3 behind Frank Griffin and Crane in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State. Elic made 1 catch in 1990, a 10-yarder at Arizona State, and also recorded 1 tackle on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger All-American, Mahone enjoyed an outstanding career at Muir High in Pasadena (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game as a defensive end in 1989 and collected 6 sacks on the year. Out of his tight end position in a Wishbone offense, he caught 13 passes for 275 yards (21.2 avg.) and 6 TDs. In 1 game, he caught 4 passes for more than 200 yards and made 2 sacks. His other senior honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team (as a tight end), All-CIF Division II first team as a defensive lineman) and All-Pacific League. His 11-1-2 team was the 1989 CIF Division II co-champions.

Elic made 40 catches with 6 TDs as a junior in 1988. He also lettered 2 years in basketball, averaging 11 points as a senior. In track and field (he was All-Pacific League in 1990), he long jumped 20-0, high jumped 6-5 and ran a 10.9 100 meters. A fine student with a 3.29 GPA in high school, Mahone was a Scholastic All-American as a junior. He served as Muir's activities commissioner his senior year. Current Trojans Jonathan Mosley and Ken Haslip also prepped at Muir.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 385 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

JOHNNY McWILLIAMS

Tight End
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: McWilliams, a big junior with good hands, will once again share time with Tyler Cashman as USC's often-employed H-back (tight-end-in-motion). But look for him to play an even bigger role in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We expect to get more use out of Johnny this year. He can be a major threat as a receiver. He's become an extremely important part of our passing game."

1993: McWilliams alternated with Cashman as USC's H-back as a sophomore in 1993. Overall in 1993, he caught 17 passes for 147 yards (8.6 avg.) and 4 TDs. He caught USC's final TDs at Penn State (2 yards) and Notre Dame (8 yards) and also caught a TD (9 yards) versus UCLA and Utah (5 yards). He had 3 catches for 25 yards at Notre Dame.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, McWilliams was moved to tight end from flanker in 1992 spring drills. He did not see any action in 1992.

1991: McWilliams redshirted as a flanker in 1991, his first year at USC. He sprained his right knee in pre-season drills and was out of action during the early part of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: An outstanding athlete, McWilliams was a quarterback, wide receiver, running back and punter as a 1990 senior at Pomona (Calif.) High. As a quarterback, he threw for 1,200 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a receiver, he caught 8 passes for 260 yards (32.5 avg.). As a running back, he rushed for 2 touchdowns. And he averaged 41 yards per punt. He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-Far West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 pick.

He also starred in basketball (his team won the CIF 3-A title), averaging 27 points and 15 rebounds to make the 1991 All-CIF Division III first team. He was on the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoops first team. He lettered in baseball as well.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC.

JOHNNY McWILLIAMS ON: Playing H-back: "H-back is basically more catching passes and not solely blocking as much as the tight end position. But it's physical. We have harder blocks at times. We often have to block smaller, speedier, quick guys, not the big guys that the tight ends block. This is the position that I am best suited for with the ability that I have, because I am fast enough to run with the little guys and I'm more aggressive blocking...I think my strongest point is catching the ball and running after I catch it. But I think I block equally as well, too."

JOHN MICHELS

6-7, 270
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Michels, a junior, is the backup at left offensive tackle in 1994 to All-American and returning starter Tony Boselli.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We saw a big improvement in John this past spring. He's now comfortable at offensive tackle and is becoming very efficient there. He also has the intelligence and flexibility to play several offensive line spots."

1993: Michels began his 1993 sophomore campaign as a backup defensive end and tackle behind Willie McGinest and Matt Keneley (he was moved to those positions in 1993 spring drills), but was switched to offensive tackle in midseason. He appeared in 4 games (Houston, Washington, UCLA, Utah) in 1993, mainly on special teams (getting 1 tackle on defense). He did not get into a game on offense.

1992: Michels was a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle-outside linebacker who did not see any action in 1992.

1991: Michels redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC. After the season, he had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder and was held out of 1992 spring practice.

PERSONAL: Michels was on the 1990 Super Prep All-American first team after collecting 90 tackles in 13 games at La Jolla (Calif.) High. He also posted 13 sacks, 8 pass deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries. As a result, he was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, All-Western League and Western League Defensive Player of the Year. He was a key figure in La Jolla's 10-2-1 season that resulted in the Western League co-championship and a CIF semifinal appearance.

John played 3 years of varsity basketball and track (hurdles, high jump, discus) at La Jolla as well. A fine student, he was named a National Football Foundation All-Academic.

PERSONAL: He's a religious studies major at USC with a B- average (2.84 GPA). He bench presses 335 pounds.

CHRIS MILLER

Nose Tackle
So.*/Jr.

1994: Miller will serve as a reserve nose tackle as a sophomore in 1994, but he'll also compete with Jesse Gomez for the long snapping duties.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Chris showed improvement during this past spring at both the defensive line and as a long snapper. He provides us with a great attitude and toughness."

1993: As a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle, Miller appeared briefly in 2 games (Houston, Washington State) in 1993. He did not make a tackle.

1992: Miller redshirted as a nose guard in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of 4 current Trojans who prepped at El Toro (Calif.) High, Miller won 1991 Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division II first team, Register All-Orange County first team, and All-South Coast League first team honors. He made 58 tackles (16 for losses), 4 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in 1991.

He won All-CIF Division II first team, and South Coast League Defensive Player of the Year recognition during his 1990 junior year when he recorded 48 tackles (8 for losses), 7 sacks and 2 forced fumbles. A 3-year starter, he had 38 tackles (5 for losses) and 4 sacks as a sophomore in 1980. He was also the team's long snapper. He made the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad. He was a prep teammate of current Trojans Brian Haas, Jeremy Hogue and Rob Johnson.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 345 pounds. He's an urban and regional planning major at USC with an A- average (3.49 GPA).

BRAD OTTON

Quarterback
So.*/Jr.

1994: Otton is a pleasant--and somewhat unexpected--addition to USC in 1994. A record-setting quarterback at Weber State, the sophomore transferred to USC this past spring and has proven to be a high-quality performer who will help back up returning starter Rob Johnson. He might also be the holder on placekicks. Because he went from Division I-AA to Division I-A, he is eligible to play immediately and has 3 years of eligibility remaining.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Brad is a gifted quarterback. He throws with great accuracy and has the kind of vision that gives him a chance to develop into an outstanding quarterback. I was impressed this spring with his competitiveness and ability to make big plays. He has quite a future."

WEBER STATE: Otton was Weber State's starting quarterback in 1993. He set NCAA Division I-AA freshman single game records when he threw for 540 yards and had 536 yards of total offense against Northern Arizona. He earned 1993 All-Big Sky honorable mention notice while completing 183-of-314 passes (58.3%) for 2,307 yards and 15 TDs. He was 13th in Division I-AA in total offense (249.1 yards per game). He started 7 times for Weber State, which was 7-4 in 1993 and ranked 11th among Division I-AA teams in passing offense (279.5) and 12th in total offense (444.7). Otton also made the 1993 Big Sky All-Academic team.

He redshirted in 1990 in his first year at Weber State, then went on a 2-year Mormon mission to Italy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Otton prepped at Tumwater (Wash.) High in 1989 and led his 13-0 team to the state championship. He completed 92-of-159 passes (57.9%) for 1,576 yards, 29 TDs (third most ever in the state) and just 4 interceptions as a senior while coached by his father, Sid. He also ran for 3 scores. He was All-State first team and Black Hills League MVP in 1989. He was the backup quarterback during his sophomore and junior seasons, hitting 10-of-14 passes (71.4%) for 128 yards and 2 TDs. Tumwater also won the state title in his 1987 sophomore season. He also played basketball (16.0 scoring average) and tennis at Tumwater.

PERSONAL: His father, Sid, was a 1965 All-American back at Weber State (as a prepster at Lewiston High in Idaho, he was coached by Bud Riley, father of USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley), while his older brother, Tim, was a defensive end at Weber State. His sister, Tana, is on the women's basketball team at Western Washington. Otton is a business major at USC with a B- average (2.90 GPA).

BRAD OTTON ON: Why he selected USC: "When I visited the other schools, I could feel the pressure the minute I got there. They were kind of looking for someone to save the team. Here, I'll get a chance to come in and adjust to things...I don't watch much football on T.V., so I didn't know a lot about USC. I remembered that they had a redheaded quarterback (Todd Marinovich) who couldn't eat Big Macs! Other than that, I didn't know much. I didn't even know USC and UCLA were rivals. But I decided to come to USC because I want to win a national championship."

Leaving Weber State: "They're in a tough situation (with the precarious financial status of the football program). If I had been a senior, I never would've left. When I think about my friends there, I kind of feel like I dumped on them. But when I think about myself, I get excited about my new situation.

The toughest player he's faced: "My brother, Tim, is 4 years older than me and a lot bigger. He always made sure to give me an extra elbow or something. He didn't want me to turn out to be a wimpy quarterback."

TASO PAPADAKIS

Fullback-Inside Linebacker
Fr.*/So.

1994: Papadakis, a physical redshirt freshman, is a throwback to the old-style 2-way football player. In short yardage situations in 1994, expect to see him as a blocking fullback on offense and as an inside linebacker on defense. He'll also play a lot on special teams. He missed 1994 spring practice while recuperating from post-season surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Taso has a bright future at USC. Although injuries have robbed him so far here, we have big plans for him. We'll play him at fullback and inside linebacker on short yardage and goal line plays and he'll get a heavy dose of special teams action. He's a leader, he's tough and physical, and he's very smart. He needs to stay injury-free and develop his skills."

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1993, Papadakis played on special teams in the North Carolina and Houston games. But he dislocated his left wrist against Houston and missed the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, 1993 served as his redshirt year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1992 Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP (all as a linebacker) at Peninsula High in Rolling Hills (Calif.). He had 277 yards on 42 carries (6.6 avg.) with 2 TDs as a fullback in 1992, plus 3 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions as a linebacker. His team went 9-3 and was Bay League co-champions in 1992.

He was hampered by a pulled hamstring in 1991, but still posted 77 tackles and 2 interceptions while winning All-League second team honors. Peninsula was 8-3 in 1991.

As a 1990 sophomore, he had 97 tackles and an interception to get All-League second team mention. He also was a shot putter on the track team.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Anastasios. He has played piano most of his life. He has worked many years at his family's renowned Greek restaurant in San Pedro, Papadakis Taverna. His father, John, lettered 2 years (1970-71) as a linebacker at USC (he was Troy's most inspirational player in 1971). Taso is a third generation Trojan. He can bench press 390 pounds. He has a B average (3.00 GPA).

MICAH PHILLIPS

6-0, 185
Jr./Sr.

1994: Phillips, a heady junior who excelled while starting 3 late games in 1993, has won the starting free safety job in 1994 vacated by Jason Oliver.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I wish I had 20 players like Micah. He did an excellent job coming in late last season under pressure. He played extremely well not only then, but in our nickel package. He's aggressive, has super strength and very good speed."

1993: Phillips spent most of his 1993 sophomore season as the backup strong safety behind Mike Salmon (he came in often in extra defensive back situations) and as a key special teams performer. But Phillips started at strong safety the last 3 games of the season--Washington (for an injured Salmon) and then UCLA and Utah (when Salmon replaced injured free safety Jason Oliver in those contests)--and Phillips showed outstanding potential. Overall in 1993, he made 42 tackles (including 1 for a 1-yard loss), 6 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. He had a big game in his first-ever start, getting 13 stops, 3 pass break-ups and recovering a fumble (which set up a USC field goal) at Washington. He notched 9 tackles the next week against UCLA. He also made 5 tackles against North Carolina and 4 versus Utah (with a deflection and forced fumble).

1992: One of only 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Phillips was a reserve cornerback who played on special teams. He made 2 tackles in 1992.

HIGH SCHOOL: Phillips was named a Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, All-Dallas second team, All-District 10 5A first team, and team defensive MVP in 1991 at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). He had 103 tackles (68 unassisted), 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (including 4 in a game) and 5 fumble recoveries during his 1991 senior season. He led Kimball to a 10-1 record in 1991 and the District 10 5A championship. Kimball posted a 27-5 record during Phillips' final 3 years. A 4-year varsity letterman and 3-year starter, he played cornerback his first 3 seasons before moving to strong safety for his senior year. He picked off 11 interceptions during his 4-year career. Current Trojan Delon Washington also prepped at Kimball.

He collected 97 tackles, 3 sacks and 7 interceptions as a 1990 junior. He lettered 2 years in baseball (centerfield) as well, batting .374 his senior season. A fine student, Phillips was a 3-year All-City Academic selection.

KRIS POLLACK

1994: Pollack, a highly-capable senior left offensive guard, will start for his third year in 1994. Look for him to have an outstanding season and be one of the top guards around.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kris is a very mobile, athletic guard. With added strength, he can be among the best around."

1993: Pollack started most of his 1993 junior campaign at right offensive guard. He earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice for his efforts. A dislocated shoulder kept him out of the Washington State and Arizona games. He missed the first half of 1993 spring practice while recovering from post-season shoulder surgery.

1992: Injuries limited Pollack, 1 of USC's top offensive linemen, to starting only 5 games (San Diego State, Oklahoma, Oregon, California, and Fresno State) and appearing in just 7 (Arizona and Notre Dame were the others) at right offensive guard as a sophomore in 1992. A sprained right ankle suffered in practice prior to the Washington game kept him out of that contest. He separated his right shoulder against California and missed the next 3 games (Washington State, Arizona State and Stanford). He then re-dislocated the shoulder when he returned as a backup to Robert Loya in the Arizona contest and missed the UCLA game. He played as Loya's backup against Notre Dame. He started the Freedom Bowl against Fresno State, but dislocated the shoulder once again. He had post-season surgery to repair the injury. He was versatile enough to play either of the guard spots and even at tackle.

1991: Pollack started--and was impressive in--9 games at offensive guard as a 1991 redshirt freshman: USC's first 4 at quick guard and the Trojans' final 5 at strong guard. He sprained his right knee at Oregon and was sidelined the following game (at Washington State), but returned for the next game (Stanford) to play some as Joel Crisman's backup at quick guard. When starting strong guard Derrick Deese suffered an elbow injury against Stanford, Pollack assumed Deese's spot in the lineup for the remaining games.

1990: Pollack did not play in 1990 as a first-year freshman. He spent the first part of the year as a reserve, but when injuries struck some of USC's backup offensive linemen, Kris moved up and served as the backup quick offensive guard behind Deese.

HIGH SCHOOL: During his 1989 senior season at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.), Pollack was named Blue Chip All-American third team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-Northern California, All-Central Section first team, and All-North Yosemite League (and NYL Outstanding Lineman). He was a 2-way tackle for the Golden Eagles. Current Trojan Ryan Tyiska also prepped at Clovis West.

Kris made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassmen and All-North Yosemite League teams as a 1988 junior. Clovis West was 15-5-1 during Kris' junior and senior seasons. At his size, Kris posed an interesting figure on the Clovis West golf team, where he won All-League honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Pollack is a public administration major at USC with a B- average (2.84 GPA). He bench presses 350 pounds. In the summer of 1994, he worked with the construction crew that repaired the earthquake damage to the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Fr.*/So.

1994: Just a redshirt freshman, the huge Pounds–who was switched from offensive tackle in 1994 spring drills–has won the starting job in 1994 at the right offensive guard spot vacated by Joel Crisman.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Phalen has a great future. He's very ambitious and he accomplished a great deal in his first year at USC: he lost some weight, he got stronger and he earned a chance to be a starter. He has great feet and balance despite his massive size. With experience and maturity, he can become a great player."

1993: Pounds redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1993, his first year at USC. He was sidelined with a left ankle sprain for the Oregon and Oregon State games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pounds made 1992 Super Prep All-Far West, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley second team, and All-Pacific League at Pasadena (Calif.) High. He graded out blocking at 80-90% in 1992 games. He had 61 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 caused fumbles on defense in 1992. He also played basketball and track.

PERSONAL: His uncle, Larry Pounds, lettered in basketball at Washington in 1974 and 1975. Phalen can bench press 385 pounds.

KYLE RAMSAY

Offensive Guard-Offensive Tackle
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: Ramsay, a junior who was a 3-game starter in 1993, is the No. 2 right offensive guard behind Phalen Pounds in 1994. He's also available to play tackle.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kyle played both guard and tackle this past spring and he made real progress. He's becoming more confident and physical. He'll play an important role for us this fall."

1993: Ramsay spent most of his 1993 sophomore year as the No. 2 right offensive guard behind Kris Pollack, but he started 3 games when injuries hit the offensive line: at Penn State for Joel Crisman at left guard and then for Pollack at right guard for the Washington State and Arizona contests. Ramsay also appeared in 9 of USC's other 10 games (all but the North Carolina opener) briefly on the line and on special teams.

1992: As just a redshirt freshman in 1992, Ramsay was the No. 2 center behind Craig Gibson (he also was available to play offensive guard or tackle). He saw some playing time on the line and on special teams in 1992.

1991: Ramsay redshirted as a center in 1991, his first year at USC. By the end of the season, he had advanced to the No. 2 center behind Gibson (but Kyle never saw any action). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left ankle.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Max Emfinger All-American first team selection from McKay High in Salem (Ore.), Ramsay was a key figure in McKay's offensive scheme. In one game as a senior, the McKay offense ran 12 consecutive rushing plays behind Ramsay to score the game-winning touchdown. While at McKay, Ramsay was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and Northwest Nugget and All-State.

He also played basketball at McKay. An excellent student (he maintained a 4.0 GPA in high school), he received an Academic Letter Award, was a member of the National Honor Society and was named Who's Who for outstanding academic achievement.

PERSONAL: He's a planning and development major at USC. He bench presses 325 pounds. His older brother, Kian, played on the Trojan offensive line from 1988-91 (a pinched neck nerve ended his career).

1994: Rickman, a promising redshirt freshman, was converted in 1994 spring practice from safety to outside linebacker and will serve as a reserve there. He missed most of 1994 spring drills because of an ankle sprain.

1993: Rickman redshirted as a safety in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rickman made the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, All-Arizona first team, Arizona Daily Star Class 5A All-Southern Arizona first team, Tucson Citizen All-Tucson first team, and All-City first team at Canyon Del Oro High in Tucson (Ariz.). ERROL SMALL

1994: Small, a senior, will compete with Israel Ifeanyi to start in 1994 at an outside linebacker spot. He'll also play a key role on special teams (he and Donn Cunnigan are co-captains of the special teams).

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Errol had a great spring and showed lots of progress. With improved mental toughness and control, he can be an excellent playmaker against both the run and pass. Plus, he's a great special teams player."

1993: As a junior, Small was a reserve outside linebacker and key special teams player. He appeared in all 13 games in 1993, getting 15 tackles, 1 deflection and 1 fumble recovery (against UCLA on a botched Bruin punt return, setting up a USC TD). He had 4 tackles at Arizona.

1990: Small redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC. He dislocated his right shoulder in practice prior to the John Hancock Bowl and had surgery, which kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Blue Chip All-American second team selection, Small enjoyed a star-studded career as a safety and running back at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). Offensively in 1989, he rushed for 1,567 yards (7.7 avg.), collecting 21 touchdowns, while on defense he posted 67 tackles with 7 interceptions. He also averaged 12.9 yards on 10 punt returns. Against Alemany High, he rushed for 213 yards on 14 carries (15.2 avg.), scored 3 touchdowns (on runs of 89, 57 and 7 yards), snared 2 interceptions and forced 2 fumbles. He also played fullback and outside linebacker.

As a junior in 1988, Small rushed for 557 yards on 64 carries (8.7 avg.) and recorded 10 TDs. He led Notre Dame to a 19-4 record and 2 San Fernando Valley League titles (1988 and 1989). He lettered in basketball through his junior year.

Jr./Jr.

1994: Stonehouse returns for his third year as USC's punter as a junior in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "I think John will have a great year. He's worked very hard on his mechanics and was impressive in the spring. He's experienced, has a good leg and is ready to break onto the national punting scene."

CAREER: In his career, 27 of Stonehouse's 148 punts pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line and only 63 of his boots were returned.

1993: As a sophomore punting for his second season at USC in 1993, Stonehouse averaged 38.3 yards on his 68 punts (2,607 yards). He had 6 punts of 50-plus yards, including a career-long 67 yarder at Washington (the longest by a Trojan since Ernie Jones' 73-yarder in 1962 and the second-longest in the Pac-10 in 1993). Only 32 of his punts were returned. Thirteen of his boots kept opponents inside their 20-yard line. He averaged 49.4 yards on 5 punts at Washington, including punts of 50, 44 and 67 yards to pin the Huskies deep in their territory in the fourth quarter. For that performance, he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. The following week, he averaged 43.3 against UCLA. He had a 56-yard boot at Arizona. He made 1 tackle in 1993.

1992: One of just 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Stonehouse was USC's punter all season and was named to USA Today's national "Fabulous True Freshmen" first team and Football News' Freshman All-American second team. He averaged 38.7 yards while setting USC season records for most punts (80) and yards punted (3,099). ANTHONY VOLSAN

Fr.*/So.

1994: Volsan, a speed-burning redshirt freshman, is listed as the backup to returning starter Ken Grace at a wide receiver spot in 1994. He could also be called upon to return punts and kicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Anthony has great speed and tools. He'll play a lot this fall and should have an impact catching passes and returning kicks."

1993: Volsan redshirted as a wide receiver in 1993, his first year at USC.

TRACK: Volsan sprinted for the USC track team in the spring of 1994, posting season bests of 10.54 in the 100 meters and 21.27 in the 200 meters. He finished in the top 3 in 8 of his 10 100 meter races and 2 of his 3 200s. He ran under 10.70 7 times in the 100 and was under 21.60 in all 3 200 races. He also ran on USC's sprint relay team.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ

Quarterback
Jr.*/Sr.

1994: USC's offense doesn't miss a beat whenever rifle-armed junior Wachholtz comes in at quarterback. He'll miss the 1994 season while academically ineligible, so he'll serve as the scout team quarterback this fall.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kyle has the potential to be outstanding. His time will come. He's been consistently excellent in practice and his limited game appearances. He's a confident, brave guy. His attitude is 'just give me the ball-I'll throw it-they'll catch it-we'll win. As he matures, his understanding of the offense will come."

1993: As a sophomore, Wachholtz was the backup quarterback behind Johnson in 1993. Wachholtz played briefly in 6 games in 1993, completing 17-of-25 passes (68.0%) for 184 yards, 2 TDs and no interceptions. He also gained 11 yards on 2 rushes (5.5 avg.). He played all of the fourth quarter in USC's 34-9 win over Oregon State, hitting 7-of-9 aerials for 110 yards with a 13-yard TD. In his other appearances, he was 2-of-5 for 13 yards versus Houston, 3-of-4 for 21 yards versus Washington State, 4-of-5 for 32 yards and 1 TD at Arizona (an 11-yarder, USC's only score in the game) and 1-of-2 for 8 yards against Stanford. He got in at the end of the Notre Dame contest, but did not throw a pass.

1992: As a redshirt freshman in 1992, Wachholtz was a backup quarterback (with Reggie Perry) behind Johnson. Although he appeared in only 3 games, he was very impressive in those outings. In a pressure-filled game at Washington, Kyle got his first action as a Trojan midway through the fourth quarter with USC trailing just 17-10. He drove a stalled USC offense to the Husky 28 before his pass was picked off in the endzone with 1:32 to play. He was 3-of-6 in that game for 31 yards. Against California, he guided USC on its decisive scoring drives (USC overcame an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to win, 27-24). He was 3-of-4 for 23 yards against the Bears. In both the Washington and California games, he replaced Perry, who had stepped in for an injured Johnson. Wachholtz also appeared versus Oregon, but didn't throw a pass. Overall, Wachholtz was 6-of-10 (60.0%) for 54 yards with 1 interception. He tore a stomach muscle in practice prior to the Stanford game and missed that contest.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wachholtz completed 116-of-198 (58.6%) passes for 1,868 yards and 20 TDs as a senior at Norco High in Corona (Calif.) and was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division V first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County and Mountain View League Offensive MVP. He led Norco to a 12-2 record, the Mountain View League championship and an appearance in the CIF Division V championship game.

As a junior in 1989, Kyle completed 93-of-203 (45.8%) passes for 1,418 yards and 11 TDs and led Norco to a 12-1 record and the CIF Division V semifinals. He was 33-of-68 (48.5%) passing for 581 yards and 5 TDs as a 1988 sophomore.

He also lettered 2 years in baseball (he made the All-Mountain View League team as a senior and was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays) and basketball (he was named to the Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County second team as a senior) at Norco.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. His uncle, Larry Wachholtz, was an All-American defensive back at Nebraska in 1966.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ ON: Why he shadows offensive coordinator Mike Riley on the sidelines: "I want to know the play he's calling. I want to know what's going on. I want to see the defense and guess where Rob (Johnson) is going to throw the ball. I have to simulate what I would do if I were the starter...I'll even suggest plays and Coach Riley has even used some of them. It shows they have confidence in me."

His first action as a Trojan: "I was nervous when they told me I'd go in because I didn't expect it. But once I got going, I really felt like we were going to go in and score...After that, I had confidence that I could play college football. You wonder if you can play at this level coming out of high school...My parents were watching the (1992) Washington game live on TV. All of a sudden, there I was in the shotgun. My mom jumped up over the table to get to the VCR. They hadn't been taping the game to that point. She tried to turn it on, but the picture got all fuzzy and snowy. While she was trying to get it to work right, they missed my first pass (a 25-yard completion to Curtis Conway). They had to tape the game later when it was replayed."

His first year at USC, 1991: "I was lost. I had no idea. All this was new to me...It was frustrating. When I was a true freshman, I couldn't even walk up to the line and make any calls. I was afraid to make a mistake. I had no self-confidence...It was hard. Two quarterbacks were ahead of me, so it was a longshot that I'd get a chance to play."

SHAWN WALTERS

Tailback
So.*/Jr.

1994: Walters, a big and fast sophomore, returns in 1994 as USC's starting tailback, where he led the team in rushing in 1993.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Shawn is becoming a very physical runner. He has very good vision. He needs to increase his strength and ability to be physical. He had a very productive spring. He came here seeing himself as a breakaway runner. He's not and he no longer sees himself as a scatback. Last year he was just learning how to be the kind of runner he has to be. He's like a Barry Foster, that up-the-field, break-tackles runner."

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Walters was an often-used backup tailback the first half of 1993, but emerged as the starter by midseason and started the last 7 contests (Oregon State, Notre Dame, California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA, Utah). He was USC's leading rusher with 711 yards on 156 carries (4.6 avg.) and 7 TDs. He also caught 15 passes for 107 yards (7.1 avg.) with 1 TD. He was the only Trojan to rush for 100 yards in a game in 1993, getting 116 yards on 25 carries at Washington (with a 7-yard TD run). His 54-yard TD burst against Houston was the longest run by a Trojan in 1993 (he also had a 3-yard scoring run against the Cougars). He topped the Trojans in rushing in 11 games (besides the Washington game, he had 82 versus Houston, 53 against Washington State, 52 at Arizona, 67 at Oregon, 84 versus Oregon State, 58 at Notre Dame, 40 at California with scoring runs of 1 and 2 yards, 60 versus Stanford with a 2-yard TD run, 29 versus UCLA with a 1-yard TD run and 70 against Utah). He caught 5 passes for 47 yards at California and grabbed a 2-yard scoring pass at Washington.

BRIAN WILLIAMS

1994: Williams, a super-quick senior outside linebacker who was USC's No. 2 tackler in 1993 after leading the squad in 1992, returns for his third year as a starter in 1994. He missed most of 1994 spring practice while recuperating from arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I was really pleased with how Brian improved from mid-season on last year. He still has unlimited talent, which will surface with continued hard work."

1993: In USC's new 4-3 defensive formation, Williams was moved to an outside linebacker spot as a junior in 1993 spring practice after starting at inside linebacker in 1992. He started 8 games on the outside and was second on the team in stops in 1993 with 78 (including 6 for losses of 24 yards, with an 8-yard sack). He also recovered 2 fumbles and forced another. He topped both teams in tackles (12) in the North Carolina opener, led USC with 9 stops against Utah, added 8 against Washington and UCLA, 7 versus Penn State and Stanford (with a fumble recovery), and 6 at Oregon (with a fumble recovery and forced fumble) and Notre Dame.

1992: USC's tackle leader as just a sophomore, Williams posted 91 stops in 1992 from his starting weakside inside linebacker spot. Some 13 of his tackles were for losses of minus 33 yards (including 3 sacks). He tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (3, against California to set up a TD, Washington State, and Arizona State). He also had an interception (late in the California game to help seal USC's win) and a deflection. He led USC in tackles against Stanford (11), San Diego State (9), Notre Dame (8), and Oklahoma (7). He also had 10 tackles at Arizona State, 9 against Oregon and Fresno State, and 8 against Washington and California. He made the Football News Sophomore All-American third team and was a Football News Almost All-American.

1991: Williams started more games (4) than any of the 5 first-year freshmen who saw action in 1991. As a weakside inside linebacker, he started against Penn State, Oregon, Washington State and Stanford, and served as Gidion Murrell's backup the rest of the year (he did not appear in the Memphis State opener). Brian made 34 tackles in 1991, including 3 for 14 yards in losses (with a sack), and had 2 pass deflections. He had a team-high 11 tackles at Oregon and 7 against UCLA. He also played on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: Williams led Bishop Dunne High in Dallas (Tex.) to a perfect 12-0 record and the 1990 state 3-A championship as both a linebacker and running back. As a senior that year, he collected 143 tackles, 6 sacks, 17 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries (4 for TDs) and 4 interceptions. His 1990 honors included Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Southwest, Tom Lemming All-Southwest, Dallas Times Herald Top 25, Houston Chronicle Nifty 50, Houston Post Top 100, All-District II and League Defensive Player of the Year. As a running back in the 1990 state semifinal game, he gained 144 yards rushing on just 7 carries (20.6 avg.) and scored 2 TDs. In the state championship game, he rushed for 126 yards on 7 carries (18.0 avg.) and had 2 touchdowns (1 rushing and another receiving).

As a 1989 junior, he posted 117 tackles, 5 interceptions and 4 fumble recoveries. He was named All-State, All-District and was League Defensive Player of the Year as the Falcons went 8-3-1 and finished the season as the state 3-A runnerup. As a 1988 sophomore, Brian was a member of Bishop Dunne's state championship 3-A team that posted an 8-3 record.

An excellent athlete, he also won district honors for his play in basketball (forward), baseball (first base) and track (hurdles, long jump and relays).

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 325 pounds. As a youngster, Williams performed with a 4-member all-saxophone group that played gospel music in Dallas churches.

BRIAN WILLIAMS ON: His playing style: "I just run to the ball as fast as I can. I'm just trying to make plays, help the defense out and stop the ball from going anywhere...Wherever the ball goes, I go. I want to be near the ball on every play, not lagging behind. I want to be assisting on the tackle or at least standing by the pile."

LaVALE WOODS

Tailback
Fr.*/So.

1994: A small, tough and quick redshirt freshman, Woods is looking to break into the tailback rotation in 1994 after opening the coaches' eyes in 1993 pre-season practice before getting hurt. His progress was further hampered when he missed 1994 spring practice while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip in his right knee which occurred while he was practicing long jumping for the Trojan track team.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "I'm excited about LaVale. He impressed everyone last year before getting hurt. He's short, but is very powerful and quick. He has the stuff to be a good tailback. The injury that kept him out of spring ball was a major disappointment and set him back. But I still think he can play a big role this fall."

1993 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – August 29, Anaheim, California
Disneyland Pigskin Classic
North Carolina 31, USC 9
Att: 49,309

North Carolina	0	14	7	10	–	31
USC	0	3	0	6	–	9

North Carolina (ranked 19th by USA Today and 20th by AP), an 8-point underdog, spoiled John Robinson's return as USC's coach by stunning the No. 18 Trojans in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic IV, 31-9, before a game-record 49,309 fans in Anaheim Stadium and a national Raycom television audience.

The 22-point losing margin was USC's second largest in an opener (behind a 30-0 opening loss to Whittier Reform in 1896) and was reminiscent of Robinson's previous Trojan debut (a 46-25 defeat by Missouri in 1976, after which Troy won its final 11 games of the season). The Aug. 29 date was USC's earliest opener in the modern era and its first-ever game on a Sunday.

The Tar Heels relied often on the option to outgain Troy on the ground (291 yards to 101) and hold a big total offense advantage (408-268). North Carolina led 14-3 at halftime on a pair of second-quarter TD runs by Leon (19 yards) and Curtis (3 yards) Johnson, the first coming after a fumble recovery on a first-quarter play in which Trojan starting TB Dwight McFadden suffered a season-ending broken left ankle (McFadden had 44 yards on 7 carries to that point). PK Cole Ford's 27-yard field goal in the second quarter provided USC with its only first-half points.

UNC widened the gap in the second half on 2 more TD runs (6 yards by WR Marcus Wall and 8 yards by FB William Henderson) sandwiching a 26-yard Tripp Pignetti field goal (the first TD followed another fumble recovery early in the third quarter).

USC scored a TD late in the final quarter on a 5-yard pass from QB Rob Johnson to TE Tyler Cashman. Johnson, USC's game MVP, was 21-of-28 passing for 167 yards, while Cashman caught a game-high 6 passes for 41 yards, FB Deon Strother had 5 grabs for 50 yards and WR Johnnie Morton had 4 for 36. USC OLB Brian Williams had a game-best 12 tackles and DT Mike Hinz added 8 with a fumble recovery. UNC blocked a USC field goal, punt and PAT kick.

GAME 2 – September 4, Los Angeles, California
USC 49, Houston 7
Att: 49,438

Houston	0	7	0	0	–	7
USC	14	14	7	14	–	49

In a complete reversal from its opener, USC pounded Houston, 49-7, in its home opener before 49,438 spectators and a Prime Network cable audience. It was the first football game played in the newly-renovated Coliseum.

USC, playing Houston for the first time ever, thoroughly dominated by collecting more total yards (530/170), first downs (29/13), plays (85/67), possession time (34:03/25:57), and third down conversions (11-of-15/4-of-17).

WR Johnnie Morton had a USC-record 15 catches (second most ever in the Pac-10) for a career-high 180 yards and a school-record-tying 3 TDs (7, 37 and 5 yards). In the process, he moved into the No. 2 spot on Troy's career reception ladder with 132 grabs. Morton was selected as the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week.

QB Rob Johnson was also superb, completing a career-high percentage of passes for the second straight week, this time 75.8% (25-of-33) for 279 yards while equalling a personal best with 4 TDs.

USC's other TDs came on a 1-yard Johnson pass to TE Tyler Cashman, a 1-yard dive by TB Scott Fields, and 54- and 3-yard runs by TB Shawn Walters (who had a game-high 82 rushing yards on 8 carries). David Dotson, who had 66 yards on 15 carries, was USC's fourth starting tailback in the past 4 games.

USC's 530 yards of total offense were its most since 1989 (654 versus Utah State). The 56-7 victory at Oregon State in 1990 was the last time USC scored as many points and first half points (also 28), and had as big of a victory margin.

USC's defense held Houston, which led the nation in 1992 in total offense (519.5 avg) and passing offense (407.1), to just 170 total yards (118 through the air). Cougar QB Jimmy Klingler, the nation's total offense leader last fall (342.6), was just 15-of-32 passing for 115 yards. OLB Jeff Kopp led Troy with 8 tackles, while CB Jason Sehorn added 7 (2 for losses), and DE Willie McGinest had 6 stops (2 for losses), a forced fumble and a deflection. S Mike Salmon intercepted a pass.

The game was over by halftime, as USC led 28-7 with a total offense advantage of 302 to 113 (Morton had 11 catches for 146 yards and 3 scores in the first half, while Johnson was 18-of-25 for 216 yards and 4 TDs).

Penn State	0	21	0	0	–	21

A valiant USC comeback fell just short when a 2-point conversion pass went incomplete with 37 seconds to play, as the Trojans (ranked 23rd by USA Today/CNN) lost in their first-ever visit to Penn State (No. 12 by USA Today/CNN and 15th by AP), 21-20, before a sold-out crowd of 95,992 (the sixth largest ever at Beaver Stadium) and a split national ABC-TV audience.

It was USC coach John Robinson's first loss to a Big Ten team in 11 games.

USC, making its first visit to the state of Pennsylvania since 1974, came back from a 21-7 halftime deficit with a pair of late TD passes by QB Rob Johnson, the first a 30-yarder to WR Ken Grace with 5:11 to go and the second a 2-yarder to TE Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds left. But Johnson's conversion pass to McWilliams bounced incomplete. Some 246 of USC's 325 total yards came in the second half.

Johnson, who was 20-of-29 for 223 yards in the second half (including hitting his last 6 throws and 12 of his final 13), finished with 25 completions among his career-high 43 attempts. WR Johnnie Morton had 6 grabs for 109 yards, while FB Deon Strother also had 6 for 33 yards. However, USC could manage only 34 rushing yards, its fewest since getting 29 against Notre Dame in 1990.

In the first half, the Nittany Lions amassed 211 total yards to Troy's 79 (146 to 11 in rushing yards). Penn State also had a big edge in first downs in that half, 13-4. All of the first half's scoring came in the second quarter: for Penn State, on a pair of short runs by FB Brian O'Neal and a short pass from QB John Sacca to RB Mike Archie, and for USC, on a 1-yard sneak by Johnson (set up by a 30-yard interception return by S Mike Salmon).

Overall in the game, Penn State collected 347 total yards (282 rushing). Archie (107 yards) and TB Ki-Jana Carter (104) became the first duo to eclipse the 100-yard rushing barrier against USC since Texas A&M's George Woodard (185) and Mike Mosley (180) did so in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl. But USC's defense stiffened in the second half, limited Penn State to just 136 total yards (none passing) and putting up an impressive goal line stand. Sacca was just 6-of-17 for 65 yards in the game. DE Willie McGinest had a game-high and career-best 15 tackles (with 2 sacks) overall, while S Jason Oliver added 10 stops and Salmon and OLB Jeff Kopp had 8 each.

But in the end, USC was hurt by miscues (a lost fumble, an interception, and 7 penalties to Penn State's 1) and missed opportunities (USC converted just 5-of-18 third downs, including just 1-of-9 in the opening half).

Wash. State	0	0	3	0	–	3
USC	14	13	7	0	–	34

USC turned in a record-setting performance in its Pac-10 opener by thrashing Washington State, 34-3, before 48,471 fans in the Coliseum and a Prime Network cable audience. It was USC's 14th straight win over the Cougars in Los Angeles (Troy last lost to WSU at home in 1957).

The Trojans did most of their damage through the air, as they threw for a school-record 413 yards (breaking the old mark of 397 set against Arizona State in 1988).

QB Rob Johnson set a USC record with 392 yards (eclipsing Paul McDonald's mark of 380 yards, set against Arizona in 1979) while throwing 3 TDs and completing 21-of-26 passes for a career-high 80.8% (the third time in 1993 that he set a personal best for completion percentage). It was the best outing, percentage-wise, by a Trojan QB since Rodney Peete hit 85.0% of his aerials against Stanford in 1987.

WR Johnnie Morton broke a 31-year-old USC record with 229 receiving yards (shattering Hal Bedsole's 1962 mark of 201 yards against California). It was the ninth highest single game total in Pac-10 history. Included in his 8 catches were a 69-yard TD (Johnson's career long), a pair of spectacular long receptions (40 and 38 yards) in which he outleaped double coverage, and a 45-yard bomb. Johnson and Morton were named the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Week for their performances.

Johnson's other TD tosses went to TB David Dotson (7 yards) and WR Edward Hervey (19). TB Scott Fields got USC on the board with a 1-yard run.

S Mike Salmon, subbing for injured PK Cole Ford (back spasms), was 4-of-4 on PAT kicks and 2-of-3 on field goals (36 and 38 yards). It was his first time kicking since his senior year of high school 5 years ago. Salmon also led USC in tackles with 6. Salmon won Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his effort.

DE Willie McGinest had 5 stops (1 sack) and a career-best 4 deflections. CB Jason Sehorn intercepted 2 passes, including 1 in the endzone.

USC dominated from the start and led 27-0 at halftime. The Trojans had 517 total yards (the second time in 1993 over the 500 barrier, as they had 530 versus Houston) against a WSU defense which was ranked seventh in the nation in total defense (232.7). In turn, Troy limited WSU to 279 yards (it was averaging 424.3 total yards and 39.7 points), including just 83 rushing yards, and 1-of-11 on third down conversions while forcing 3 turnovers. WSU's only points came on a 32-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter by Aaron Price.

GAME 5 – October 2, Tucson, Arizona
Arizona 38, USC 7
Att: 56,075

Arizona	7	21	3	7	–	38

Undefeated Arizona (ranked 11th by USA Today/CNN and 12th by AP), using a stifling defense and a surprisingly effective offense, ambushed USC, 38-7, before a near-sellout crowd of 56,075 fans in Tucson and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was USC's worst margin of defeat since a 31-0 loss at Washington in 1990 and Trojan coach John Robinson's worst loss as a college coach.

The Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" defense, which entered the game No. 1 nationally in total defense (151.8) and rushing defense (-4.3) and No. 3 in scoring defense (8.3), lived up to its billing by thoroughly dominating the Trojans. USC managed just 186 total yards (only 47 rushing) and 10 first downs (its fewest since getting 7 in that 1990 Washington contest). Troy had 6 fumbles (losing 3, which led to 17 Wildcat points), gave up 6 sacks, held the ball just 24:36 and converted only 3-of-15 first downs. The score was 28-0 at halftime.

Meanwhile, Arizona's offense–which had struggled in its first 4 games–got untracked. The Wildcats had 408 total yards and 20 first downs as QB Dan White hit 14-of-21 passes for 228 yards and 3 TDs and ran for another short score. His TD throws were 2 short ones to WR Troy Dickey and a 54-yarder to WR Cary Taylor. RB Chuck Levy put the game out of reach midway through the second quarter with a 59-yard punt return (the first scoring punt return against USC since Washington's Danny Greene went 71 yards in 1983), making it 21-0.

Only an 11-yard scoring pass late in the fourth quarter by a pair of Trojan backups–QB Kyle Wachholtz to FB Rory Brown–prevented what would have been Robinson's first collegiate shutout. USC got into Arizona territory on only 2 other drives (out of 15 possessions).

USC QB Rob Johnson was 16-of-27 for 107 yards, with 7 of those aerials caught by WR Johnnie Morton for 49 yards. S Mike Salmon had a game-high 7 tackles, while ILB Joe Barry added 6.

Troy suffered a blow early in the game when All-American OT Tony Boselli went out with a dislocated kneecap, becoming USC's third starting offensive lineman sidelined by injury in 1993.

Att: 40,935

USC	0	14	0	10	–	24
Oregon	7	6	0	0	–	13

USC snapped a 6-game road losing streak with a hard-fought 24-13 win over Oregon before 40,935 fans in Eugene and a Prime Network audience.

It had been nearly a year (Oct. 31, 1992 at Arizona State) since the Trojans won on the road, including 3 road losses in 1993.

It was a homecoming for USC coach John Robinson, who played at Oregon and then was an assistant coach there for 12 seasons (1960-71).

Up just 14-13 at halftime, Troy shut out the Ducks in the second half by forcing 6 turnovers (4 fumbles and 2 interceptions) in the final 30 minutes, including on Oregon's last 5 possessions.

QB Rob Johnson had another big game, completing a career-high 28 passes in 36 tries for 307 yards and 3 TDs. His 77.8% completion rate marked the fourth time in 1993 that he has connected on at least 75.0% of his passes. He was especially hot in the first half, going 17-of-21 (81.0%) for 245 yards and 2 TDs (198 of those yards and both scores came in the second quarter as he was 12-of-14). He hit on 15 straight passes at one point during the opening half.

Two of his TDs, including a career-long 72-yarder in the second quarter, went to WR Johnnie Morton. Morton, who had 7 catches for 113 yards overall (he also had a spectacular leaping 10-yard TD over double coverage in the fourth quarter), became USC's career pass receiving yardage recordholder with 2,403 yards.

Troy's other scores came on a 44-yard Johnson bomb in the second quarter to WR Edward Hervey, who had 5 catches for 70 yards in the game, and a 33-yard field goal by S Mike Salmon, who had 6 tackles, a forced fumble and a deflection on defense.

USC limited Oregon's offense, which was second in the Pac-10 (449.7 total yards), to 390 yards and made QB Danny O'Neil, who was the league's No. 2 passer, throw 12 incompletions (24-of-36), including 10 in the second half, and 2 picks (by CB Jason Sehorn and S Jason Oliver). OLB Jeff Kopp had 7 tackles (with 2 sacks) and caused O'Neil to fumble away the ball at the Oregon 5-yard line early in the fourth quarter (USC turned it into its final TD). OLB Brian Williams had 6 stops while causing a fumble and recovering another. DE Willie McGinest, NT Mike Hinz and S Sammy Knight also recovered fumbles.

USC rediscovered a bit of its rushing game, getting 100 yards on the ground (including 67 on 13 carries by TB Shawn Walters).

USC 34, Oregon State 9

Oregon State	0	6	3	0	–	9
USC	6	7	14	7	–	34

In another record-setting performance by USC WR Johnnie Morton, the Trojans moved above .500 for the first time in 1993 by handily winning their Homecoming game against Oregon State, 34-9, before 44,363 fans and a local Prime Ticket cable audience.

Not only was it Troy's 20th straight win over the Beavers, but it gave USC its first back-to-back wins of 1993 while snapping a 2-game OSU win streak.

Morton, who had 7 catches for 157 yards and 3 TDs, entered the record book 3 times. He broke John Jackson's USC career receptions total, finishing the day with 167 catches. He also eclipsed the Pac-10 career receiving yardage mark held by Stanford's Ken Margerum (Morton ended the game with 2,560 yards). And his 3 TDs tied a school single game mark held by 4 others (it was the fourth time in his career–and second time in 1993--that Morton has grabbed 3 TDs). His scores were 23, 49 and 37 yards.

USC's defense controlled Oregon State's spread option attack which was second in the nation in rushing offense (313.3) and was coming off a 667-yard rushing outing against Pacific. Troy allowed 223 yards on the ground, but the Beavers were 0-of-5 passing, converted just 4-of-17 third downs, and made just 10 first downs. Jeff Kopp, who moved from OLB to ILB, had 9 stops (2 for losses), while DE Willie McGinest added 8 and S Reggie Perry had 7.

USC's offense averaged 7.2 yards per play (9.6 in the second half) while collecting 498 total yards, 26 first downs and converting 9-of-13 third downs. USC gained 306 yards through the air against an OSU unit which led the Pac-10 (10th in the U.S.) in pass efficiency defense. Although the game was close at halftime (USC led, 13-6), 2 Morton TDs early in the third quarter put it out of reach and allowed USC's reserves to play most of the final quarter.

QB Rob Johnson, who played on the first 3 quarters, was 12-of-19 for 196 yards and 3 TDs, while backup QB Kyle Wachholtz was 7-of-9 for 110 yards and 1 TD. TB Shawn Walters got his first start (USC's fourth starter at tailback in 1993) and responded with 84 yards on 18 carries. FB Deon Strother scored USC's first TD on a 1-yard run. WR DelVaughn Alexander, a triple/high jumper on USC's track team, made his first catch as a Trojan a big one as he scored a 13-yard TD on a pass from Wachholtz in the fourth quarter.

Att: 59,075

Notre Dame	14	14	3	0	–	31

For the 11th consecutive year, Notre Dame beat USC, this time 31-13 in South Bend before a capacity crowd of 59,075 and an NBC-TV national audience as the No. 2-ranked, undefeated Irish used a quick start and an overpowering running attack.

The loss snapped USC coach John Robinson's personal 5-game winning streak over the Irish (he was the last Trojan coach to beat them, in 1982; he's now 6-2 lifetime in the series).

The game was decided in the first half as Notre Dame opened up a 28-7 halftime lead. In that opening half, ND rushed for 210 yards (it had 305 in the game, the most against USC in 1993), gained 284 total yards (of its 418 in the contest, also the most allowed by USC in 1993), was 8-of-8 on third downs, and scored on all 4 of its possessions. The Irish didn't have to punt until the fourth quarter. On the second play of the game, Irish TB Lee Becton–who had 154 of his career-high 177 rushing yards in the first half--jetted 70 yards untouched for a TD.

Notre Dame's other TDs came on a 2-yard run by FB Marc Edwards, a 4-yard run by TB/S Jeff Burris, and a 29-yard pass from QB Paul Failla (who played the entire game in place of an injured Kevin McDougal) to FB Ray Zellars.

USC's defense stiffened in the second half, allowing only a field goal and 2-of-9 third down conversions. Troy even held ND on an impressive goal line stand on 4 plays inside the 5-yard line. Six Trojans had a least 8 tackles in the game: S Mike Salmon (a game-high 11), ILB Jeff Kopp (10), DE Willie McGinest and DT Thomas Holland (9 each), and DE Gerald Caruthers and S Jason Oliver (8 apiece).

USC, which gained only 69 of its 338 total yards on the ground, scored on passes from QB Rob Johnson to FB Deon Strother (13 yards in the second quarter) and TE Johnny McWilliams (8 yards in the fourth quarter). Johnson was 29-of-46 passing, both career highs, for 269 yards (he was 14-of-16 for 119 yards in the first half, including 12 completions in a row at one point). Strother had a game-high 9 catches for 71 yards and WR Johnnie Morton had 6 for 109 yards. TB Shawn Walters ran for 58 yards on 14 carries.

But USC squandered several scoring opportunities, having a field goal blocked, throwing an interception near the ND goal line, and turning the ball over on downs twice inside the Irish 25.

USC	12	15	0	15	–	42
California	0	14	0	0	–	14

From the opening kickoff, USC thoroughly dominated California, winning 42-14 before 56,000 fans in Berkeley and a regional ABC-TV audience.

USC had more total yards (491-236), first downs (30-16) and plays (82-53) while holding the ball 38:41, converting 16-of-20 third downs (80.0%) and scoring TDs on 6 of its 8 possessions (including its first 2). Four of USC's scoring drives went 80 yards and 3 consumed at least 6:30.

QB Rob Johnson had career highs in completion percentage (82.1%, the fourth time in 1993 that he has set a personal best) and completions (32, 1 shy of the USC single game record) while throwing for 369 yards, 2 TDs and no interceptions in 39 attempts. He was named Sports Illustrated's national Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

WR Johnnie Morton, who caught 7 passes for 118 yards and 1 TD (a 36-yarder to culminate the game's first series), set the USC season receiving yardage record (1,106 yards) and moved into third place on the Pac-10 career reception ladder (180 catches, setting a Pac-10 record for receptions by a wide receiver).

Although the Trojans ran for only 122 yards, they scored 4 TDs on the ground–2 and 1-yarders by TB Shawn Walters, 1 yard by FB Deon Strother, and 19 yards by FB Rory Brown–the first time USC has had 4 rushing TDs since getting 4 at Oregon State in 1990.

USC's other TD came on a 6-yard pass to TE Bradford Banta, who had a career-best 4 catches for 51 yards.

Troy's defense came up with 2 turnovers (interceptions by S Jason Oliver on Cal's first play of the game and CB Jason Sehorn in the end zone), both of which led to Trojan TDs. In the second half, USC shut out the Bears while allowing only 84 total yards. ILB Jeff Kopp led USC with 6 tackles, while 3 of DE Willie McGinest's 4 stops were for losses of minus 27 yards (2 were sacks). Sehorn also made a spectacular leaping deflection of a Cal bomb near the goal line.

For Cal, ILB Jerrott Willard had 22 tackles.

GAME 10 – November 6, Los Angeles, California
USC 45, Stanford 20
Att: 59,376

Stanford	3	14	0	3	–	20
USC	14	10	21	0	–	45

USC–winners of 4 of its last 5 games–remained tied for first in the Pac-10 and in the thick of the Rose Bowl race with a dominating 45-20 win over Stanford before 59,376 Coliseum fans and a Prime Network cable audience.

The win gave USC coach John Robinson a 3-0 college mark over Stanford's Bill Walsh (including NFL games, they're tied at 8-8). It also was Robinson's 12th straight collegiate win in the Coliseum and USC's seventh straight Pac-10 home win. The Trojans snapped a 2-game losing streak to Stanford.

Troy's offense rolled behind the passing of QB Rob Johnson and the catching of WR Johnnie Morton--both added their names again to the record book--plus the running and receiving of FB Deon Strother.

Johnson was 22-of-35 for 349 yards and 3 TDs, his fourth 300-yard passing outing of 1993 and his fifth with at least 3 TD tosses. In the process, he set USC season records for most completions (231) and TD passes thrown (23).

Two of his TDs--30 yards in the first quarter and 71 yards in the second--went to Morton, who caught 4 passes overall for 127 yards (his eight game with 100 receiving yards in 1993). Morton broke the Pac-10 season record for receiving yards (1,233) and the USC season marks for receptions (71) and TD catches (12).

Despite scoring on their first 3 possessions of the game, USC led just 24-17 at halftime. But Strother, who overall ran for 58 yards on 5 carries and caught 4 passes for 76 yards, broke the game open with TD runs of 1 and a spectacular 38 yards on USC's first 2 drives of the second half.

USC's other scores came on a 2-yard run by TB Shawn Walters on Troy's opening series of the game (he ran for 60 yards on 13 carries overall), a 26-yard field goal by Mike Salmon in the second quarter, and a 39-yard Johnson pass to WR Ken Grace in the third period (Grace caught 4 balls for 71 yards). USC had 497 total yards (372 passing) and 25 first downs.

USC's defense--which has surrendered just 22 second half points in the last 9 games (with just 1 TD)--took over after the intermission, allowing only a fourth quarter field goal. On the day, USC controlled Stanford's pass-happy offense, which was averaging 336.0 passing yards. Cardinal QB Steve Stenstrom was 29-of-49 for 263 yards with 1 interception and 1 TD, snapping his 7-game string of 300-yard passing performances. USC broke up 14 Cardinal passes.

Trojan CB Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles (with 2 deflections), while OLB Jeff Kopp added 9 stops (2 for losses).

GAME 11 – November 13, Seattle, Washington
USC 22, Washington 17
Att: 72,202

USC	10	0	12	0	–	22
Washington	7	7	0	3	–	17

On a day when UCLA and Arizona both lost, USC (ranked No. 24 by USA Today/CNN) clinched at least a share of its first Pac-10 title since 1989 (its 30th league title overall) and set up a Rose Bowl showdown with the Bruins by beating No. 25 (AP) Washington in chilly Seattle, 22-17, before a noisy sellout crowd of 72,202 and a regional ABC-TV audience.

The win, Troy's third in a row and 5 in its last 6 games, snapped USC's 3-game losing streak to the Huskies and broke UW's 17-game home win streak. It was USC's first win over a ranked team in 1993 in 5 tries.

USC gained 434 yards (252 passing) with 25 first downs against one of the Pac-10's top defenses (coming in, Washington was allowing just 307.3 total yards, 11th in the U.S.).

The contest see-sawed in the first half, with USC scoring on its first 2 drives of the game for the third consecutive week. After USC PK Cole Ford--in his first action after missing 7 games with a back injury--hit a 31-yard field goal on USC's first drive, Washington answered with a 12-yard TD by TB Napoleon Kaufman (he rushed for 119 yards overall). USC came right back on the next series as QB Rob Johnson hit TB Shawn Walters on a 2-yard TD pass. An 11-yard TD run by TB Beno Bryant just before halftime gave UW a 14-10 lead at intermission.

For the second week in a row, USC scored on its first 2 possessions of the second half, this time on runs by Walters (7 yards) and FB Deon Strother (1). And, following in line with its trademark for being stingy defensively in the second half, UW's only second-half points came on a 39-yard fourth-quarter field goal by PK Travis Hanson, as USC limited the Huskies in the final half to 157 total yards (just 51 rushing) and 1-of-8 on third down conversions.

Johnson was 24-of-37 for 252 yards and set the USC season passing yardage and attempts records. Walters became the first Trojan to run for 100 yards in a game in 1993, getting 116 on 25 carries. Strother rushed for 53 yards on 8 tries and caught a game-high 6 passes for another 64 yards.

USC S Micah Phillips, who started in place of an injured Mike Salmon, notched game bests with 13 tackles and 3 deflections while also recovering a fumble. OLB Brian Williams added 8 stops, while OLB Jeff Kopp and ILB Joe Barry had 7 (Barry had a late midfield interception to snuff out UW's final drive).

P John Stonehouse averaged 49.4 on his 5 punts, including punts of 50, 44 and a career-long 67 yards (the longest by a Trojan since Ernie Jones' 73-yarder in 1962) to pin the Huskies deep in their territory in the fourth quarter. For his performance, he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week.

GAME 12 – November 20, Los Angeles, California
UCLA 27, USC 21
Att: 93,458

UCLA	14	3	7	3	–	27
USC	0	0	14	7	–	21

With the Rose Bowl on the line for the winner (Troy would advance in a tie), USC (ranked 19th by USA Today/CNN, 22nd by AP) came within 2 yards of beating UCLA (15th by USA Today/CNN, 16th by AP) in the final minute, but instead suffered a gut-wrenching 27-21 defeat before 93,485 fans in a sold-out Coliseum and a regional ABC-TV audience.

The Trojans, who trailed 17-0 at halftime, rallied in the second half and dramatically drove from their own 19-yard line with 2:30 to play to the UCLA 3 with 1:16 to go on a pair of bombs from QB Rob Johnson (33 yards to WR Johnnie Morton and 43 yards to WR Ken Grace). After 2 running plays produced just 1 yard, Johnson's third down pass intended for TE Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by S Marvin Goodwin to seal the Bruins' win.

The loss snapped several winning streaks for Troy: 10 games over UCLA when the Rose Bowl was at stake for both teams, 7 Pac-10 home games, 4 home games and Trojan coach John Robinson's 12 collegiate home games. It also was UCLA's third straight win over USC. The last 5 USC-UCLA games have been decided by a total of 13 points.

UCLA dominated the game statistically, getting more total yards (408-314), plays (85-62), first downs (23-14), possession time (36:49-23:11) and third down conversions (10/20-3/14). The Bruins (who ran for 230 yards) shut down USC's running game, allowing just 7 yards on the ground (Troy's fewest rushing yards since getting minus 4 at Notre Dame in 1961).

UCLA started off on fire, scoring on its first 2 possessions (a 5-yard run by QB Wayne Cook and a 4-yard run by HB Skip Hicks) and then PK Bjorn Merten added a career-long 47-yard field goal on the last play of the half. At halftime, UCLA had the edge in total yards (233-89, including just 1 rushing yard by USC), plays (47-29), first downs (16-6), time (17:38-12:22) and third down conversions (8/11-1/7).

But USC came storming out in the second half, getting TDs on its first 2 drives: a 1-yard run by TB Shawn Walters and, following a recovery of a fumble on a Bruin punt return, a 9-yard Johnson pass to TE Johnny McWilliams.

UCLA scored late in the third quarter on a 17-yard pass from Cook to SE J.J. Stokes, his Pac-10 record-tying 17th of 1993 and only the second TD surrendered by USC in the second half in the past 11 games, and a 20-yard Merten field goal in the fourth quarter.

Johnson was 23-of-36 for 307 yards and the 2 scores, but was sacked 7 times. He became the first Trojans (and just the fourth Pac-10 quarterback) to throw for at least 3,000 yards in a season and he also set the Pac-10 season record for lowest interception percentage and the USC season total offense mark. Morton, with 4 catches for 95 yards, tied the Pac-10 season reception mark. Grace had 4 catches for 106 yards (including a 52-yarder on USC's first scoring drive).

For UCLA, HB Ricky Davis ran for a career-high 153 yards on 26 carries, Cook was 17-of-35 for 178 yards and Stokes caught 6 passes for 53 yards.

GAME 13 -- December 30, Anaheim, California
Freedom Bowl
USC 28, Utah 21
Att: 43,150

Utah	0	0	13	8	--	21
USC	20	8	0	0	--	28

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience.

The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance (Troy is 23-13), were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years.

USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, QB Rob Johnson hit All-American WR Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and TB David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with TE Johnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled.

Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from QB Mike McCoy to SB Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by FB Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by TB Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 second remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by CB John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game).

Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC TB Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while FB Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC WR Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14.

Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by CB Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards.

OLB Brian Williams and S Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses).

USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles—all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931–USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938—USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939– USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941–USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953–USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958–USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964–USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967–USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969–USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1973–USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974–USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977–USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1979–USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979–USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1981–USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981–USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981–USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982–USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game at USC.

1985–USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986–USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987–USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987–USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988-USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989–USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989–USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989–USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990–USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990–USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990–USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton,Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton), the 1993 Penn State game (Rob Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds to go fell bounced incomplete, allowing the Nittany Lions to hold on to a 21-20 win), and the 1993 UCLA game (a win or tie would put USC in the Rose Bowl, but Rob Johnson's 3-yard, third-down pass with 56 seconds to play to Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by Bruin Marvin Goodwin to preserve UCLA's 27-21 victory).

"THE COMEBACK"
1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

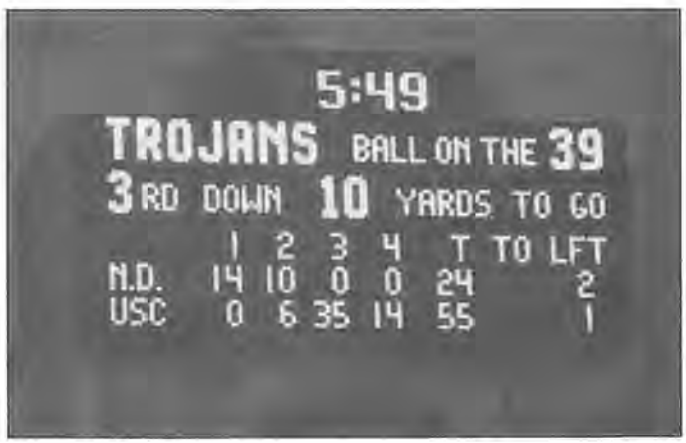
In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added coach John McKay right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.



USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fifth highest bowl winning percentage (.639) among the 48 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Notre Dame's .684, Georgia Tech's .680, and Oklahoma's .661). USC is just 3 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories with 23. Troy's 36 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (46). USC and Florida State are the only schools ever to have won 9 consecutive bowl games (USC did it in the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival).

USC's overall post-season record is 23-13. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 27 Rose Bowls and has a 19-8 mark in that classic. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 6 of its last 8 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 8 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, John Hancock Bowl and Freedom Bowl (twice).

1985 Rose Bowl: USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives–one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

1985 Aloha Bowl: Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl: Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

Auburn	0	14	0	2	– 16

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

Michigan State	7	7	0	6	– 20

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

USC	0	14	0	0	– 14

USC–Touchdowns, Peete (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2).

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

Scoring: USC–Touchdowns, Marinovich, Ervins. PAT, Rodriguez (2). Field Goal, Rodriguez.
Michigan–Touchdown, Jefferson. PAT, Carlson. Field Goal, Carlson.

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl: Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl: USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, QB Rob Johnson hit All-American WR Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and TB David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with TE Johnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from QB Mike McCoy to SB Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by FB Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by TB Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by CB John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC TB Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while FB Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC WR Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by CB Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. OLB Brian Williams and S Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1994 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked first or second inthe nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team.

The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, and one of the teams is ranked first or second in the nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or, if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team. If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

NOTES: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the NACDA Kickoff Classic or the Disneyland Pigskin Classic shall not be counted in the point system.

COLLEGE BOWL ALLIANCE

Bowls in Coalition I include the Cotton, Orange, Sugar and Fiesta. Coalition II has the Gator and John Hancock bowls. The Southwest Conference champion gets an automatic bid to the Cotton, the Big Eight champ to the Orange, and the Southeastern to the Sugar.

The Cotton, Orange and Sugar will pick, in order of the rank of their host teams, from a pool of 5 teams: Notre Dame, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, and 2 at-large teams from the Southwest, Big Eight, Atlantic Coast, Big East and Pacific-10.

If the top 2 ranked teams come from among Notre Dame and the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, they will play in the Fiesta Bowl. Otherwise, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions are guaranteed bids in the Cotton, Sugar or Orange bowls. The Fiesta will choose from the remaining at-large pool teams.

The 3 teams not selected from the Coalition I at-large pool will belong to the Coalition II bowls.

A team may decline a bowl's invitation if it would result in a rematch of a regular-season game, if it can make significantly more money in another bowl, or if it would be playing in that bowl a third consecutive year.

In most years, bowl selection date will be after the Southeastern Conference playoff game the first Saturday in December.

PAC-10/FREEDOM, ALAMO BOWL TIE-INS

The Pacific-10's third place team will go to the Freedom Bowl to play an at-large team. If there is a tie for third place in the Pac-10, the Freedom Bowl can choose its Pac-10 representative from among the tied teams. The Pac-10's No. 4 team will play in the Alamo Bowl versus the Southwest Conference's No. 3 team. There is a no-repeat clause in the Freedom Bowl agreement; if the Pac-10's third place team appeared in the Freedom Bowl the previous year, it will instead go to the Alamo Bowl and the fourth place team will appear in the Freedom Bowl.

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice–UPI, AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 25 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tail backs.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when thousand-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing --1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all- purpose running.

HEISMAN SALUTE

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 51 Trojan players selected (including Tony Boselli in 1994), as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1993 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. Tony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, is the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

— ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS —

Various standards have been used to determine USC letter winners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen.

There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long- standing policy.

USC VS. HEISMAN WINNERS

John Lujack–1947
Notre Dame 38, USC 7
Irish quarterback Lujack completed 5-of-7 passes for 59 yards and no TDs, but it was his interception and 37-yard return of a Trojan pass that led to a score. Eventual national champion Notre Dame knocked off No. 3-ranked USC, 38-7, at the Coliseum.

Leon Hart–1949
Notre Dame 32, USC 0
Hart scored on a 36-yard pass for Notre Dame's first score as the top-ranked Irish rolled to a 32-0 win in South Bend over the No. 17 Trojans. It was USC's worst loss in the series at the time.

John Lattner–1953
Notre Dame 48, USC 14
Lattner set then-series records by scoring 4 touchdowns and rushing for 157 yards in No. 2 Notre Dame's 48-14 victory over No. 20 USC in the Coliseum.

Paul Hornung–1956
USC 28, Notre Dame 20
Hornung, who played quarterback during his Heisman Trophy season, switched to halfback against USC because of painful injuries to both thumbs. His 95-yard kickoff return and PAT in the third quarter drew the Irish to within a point, 21-20. Hornung accounted for 215 all-purpose yards in the Coliseum game.

John Huarte–1964
USC 20, Notre Dame 17
Huarte completed 18-of-29 passes and threw a touchdown pass in leading top-ranked Notre Dame to a 17-0 lead. But unranked USC rallied to score 20 second-half points to upset the Irish, 20-17, in Los Angeles. It was Ara Parseghian's first loss as Irish coach.

Gary Beban–1967
USC 21, UCLA 20
With the national championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl on the line, Beban threw for 301 yards and 2 touchdowns for the top-ranked Bruins. The effort wasn't enough as O.J. Simpson, USC's 1968 Heisman winner, scored on a 64-yard TD to give the No. 4-ranked Trojans a 21-20 win.

Jim Plunkett–1970
Stanford 24, USC 14
Plunkett ended No. 4-ranked USC's hopes of a fifth straight Rose Bowl trip by completing 19-of-31 passes for 274 yards and a score in No. 12-ranked Stanford's 24-14 win at Palo Alto. The loss ended USC's 25-game unbeaten string in regular season play.

Archie Griffin–1974
USC 18, Ohio State 17
In the 1975 Rose Bowl, Griffin fumbled twice and was held to 75 yards and no TDs, as USC rallied to take an 18-17 win. The victory over the No. 3-ranked Buckeyes gave USC its seventh national title.

George Rogers–1980
USC 23, South Carolina 13
Rogers broke free for a 34-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter in Los Angeles as part of a 141-yard rushing game. But it was Marcus Allen, USC's 1981 Heisman Trophy winner, who rushed for 104 yards and 2 touchdowns to give USC a 23-13 win in its home opener.

Tim Brown–1987
Notre Dame 26, USC 15
Brown was held to 4 catches for 46 yards, but it was his 5-yard run in the second quarter that put the Irish up 17-3 in South Bend. Notre Dame's seventh Heisman winner rushed 5 times for 41 yards in the Irish's 26-15 win.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" -- has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 200 times over the years, including 130 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 127-66-7 (the mark is 78-48-4 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. All 13 of USC's 1990 games were on some form of live television, as were all 12 in 1992 and all 13 in 1993.

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. TV sets that are tuned to a game. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC is 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games. The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldiers Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 42,589,049 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

*Coliseum record for a football game.

The Coliseum seating capacity was reduced to 92,516 in 1964 (although temporary seats were added for the 1965 UCLA and 1988 Notre Dame games, hence the larger crowds then). In 1993, stadium renovation increased the Coliseum capacity to 94,159. The largest crowd for a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame game since 1964 was 86,124 for Oklahoma in 1988.

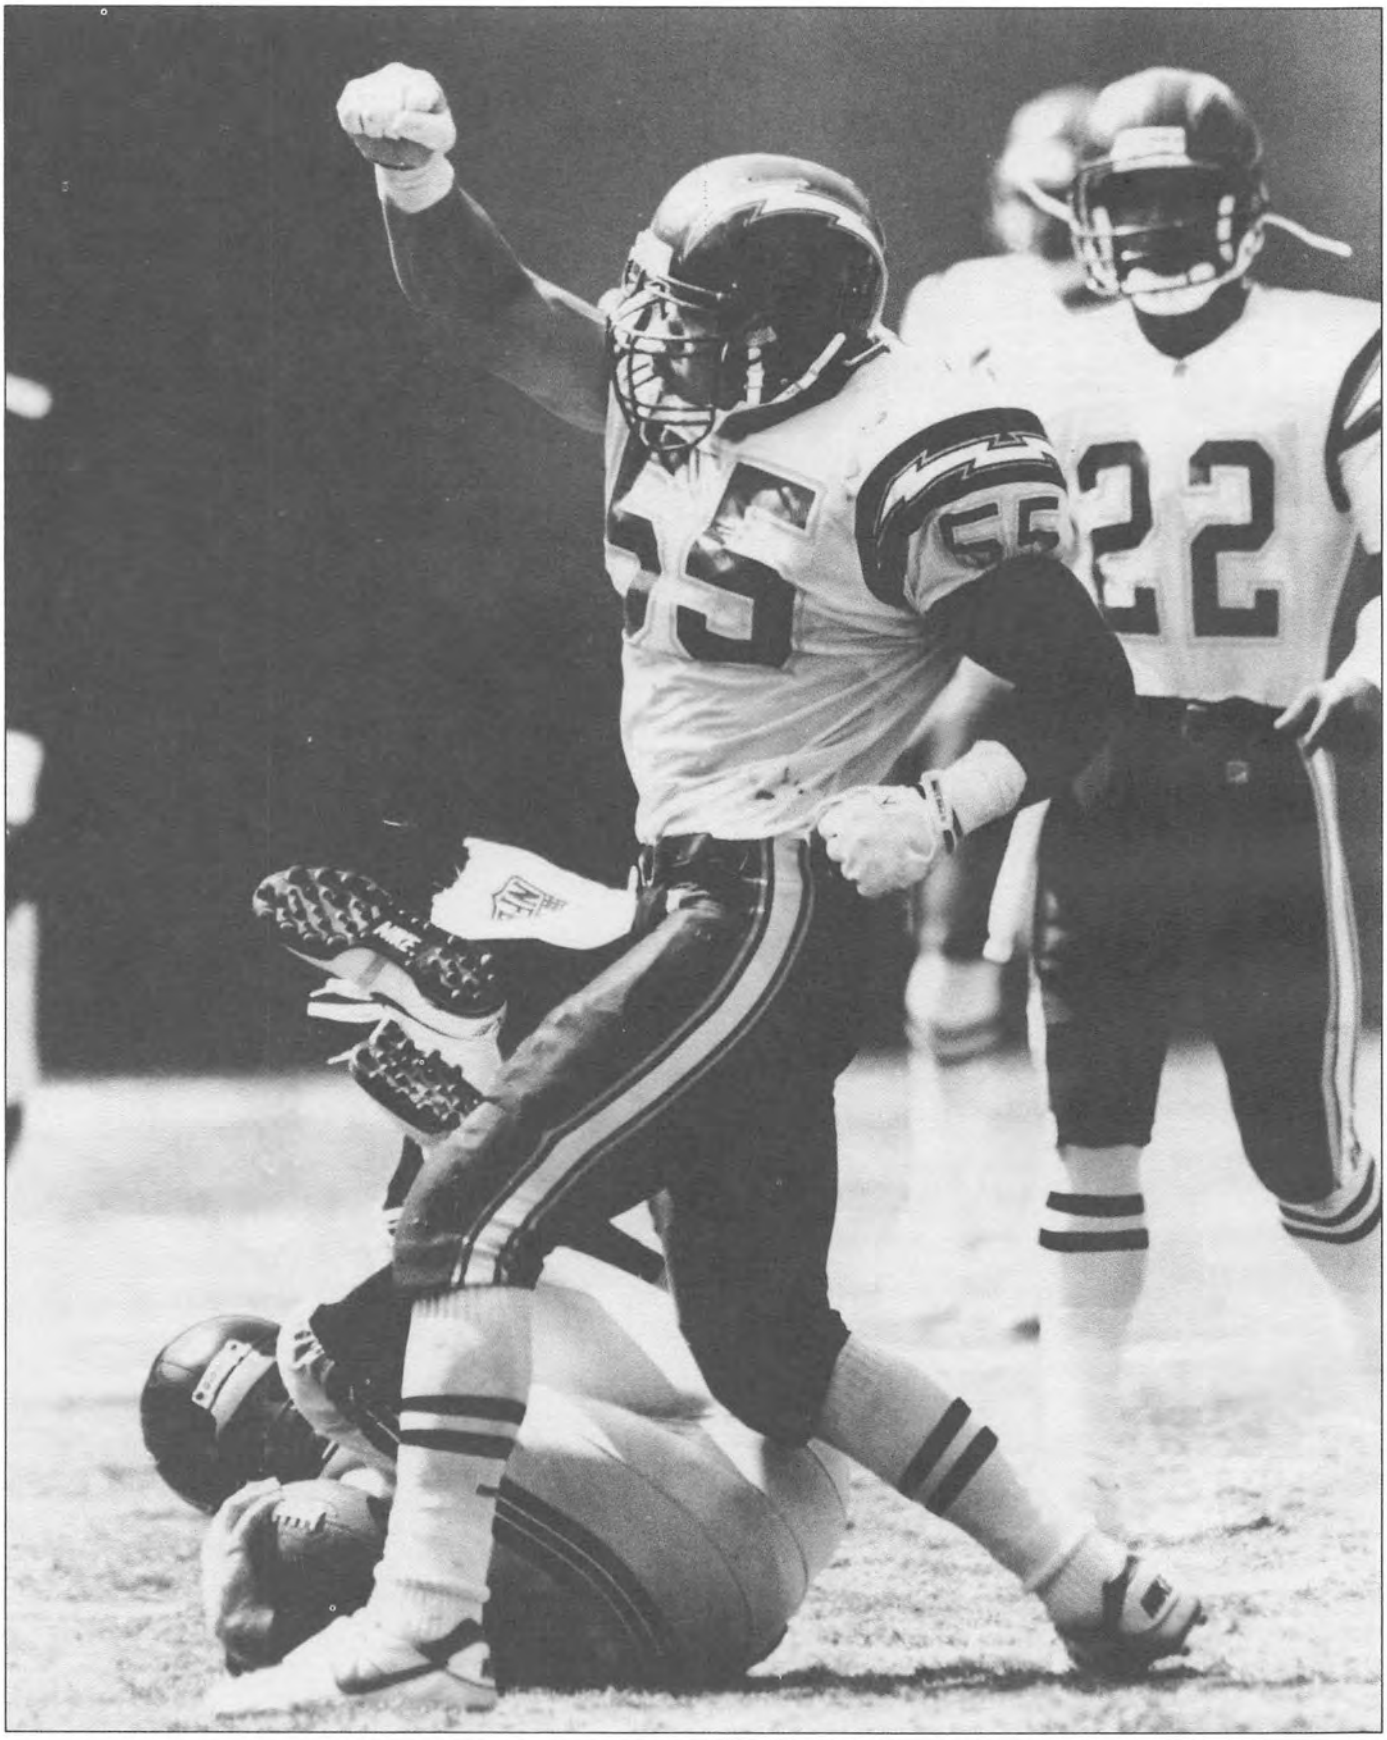
NFL TROJANS



SAN DIEGO CHARGERS LINEBACKER JUNIOR SEAU

USC: NO. 1 IN THE PROS

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC usually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this past summer, there were 47 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 7 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 21 of the NFL's 28 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (13), linebackers (7), running backs (6) or defensive backs (6). There also were 4 Trojan quarterbacks.

In 1993, there were 36 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, the second most from any university (since records are available, USC has been No. 1 in 16 of the last 18 years). UCLA was first in 1993 with 37.

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft is an NFL record.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1994 (which followed the 1935-1993 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

8	Ray George	T	Lions
12	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins
16	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins
17	Amerigo (Tony) Tonelli	B	Lions

(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES–USC is 34-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 11 contests it has played after a tie, dating to 1968.

BIG TEN COMPETITION–USC has won 20 of its last 26 games (and 27 of its last 34) against Big Ten opponents.

DIAMONDS–During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in a stadium with a baseball field (Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego, then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl, 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic and 1993 Freedom Bowl). Before then, the last time USC played on a baseball field was in 1961, when the Coliseum was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

EARLY BIRDS–USC's Aug. 29 opener in 1993 marked the earliest that Troy's season has opened in the modern era. Before then, the earliest was Aug. 31, 1990. (The earliest USC's season ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

GOLDEN GRIDDERS–Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES–USC is 68-37-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 29-8-1 following byes (4 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA).

GRID/HOOPS–USC is 11-6-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS–Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne–All-American").

HOMECOMING–USC has a 45-21-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IMPROVEMENT–USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA–USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

IRISH REBOUNDS–USC is 5-10 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were in 1950-55-70-80-82 and the losses were in 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92.

NICKNAMES–Some of the more famous nicknames in Trojan gridiron lore: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell) Bear (Byron Darby), Blackjack (Harry Smith), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Bug (Kevin Williams, who was 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Comet (Curtis Conway), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Gazoo or Gnat (Ken Grace), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. (John Jackson), Juice (O.J. Simpson), Jupiter (walk-on Jupiter Ehrlich; yes, that's his real name), Lone Ranger (David Webb, who put a bar of grease paint across his eyes when playing), Mad Dog (Tim Lavin), Mystic (Jim Powers), The Noblest Trojan of Them All (Morley Drury), Pinball Wizard (Ricky Ervins), Prince Hal (Hal Bedsole), Racehorse (Russ Saunders), Red (Morris Badgro), Rolls (Mazio Royster), Sam Bam (Sam Cunningham), Slinky (Marvin Pollard), Speedy (Alcee Hart), Squeeze (John Kamana), Sugarbear (Charles Hinton), Sweet (Jim Musick), Sweet Peete (Rodney Peete), Tay (Raymond Brown), Tee (Artimus Parker), Tex (Michael Williams), The Thundering Herd (Coach Howard Jones' teams), Tree (Charles Young, who was 6-4 and 228 pounds), Turd (Pete Adams' dog, the unofficial mascot of the 1972 team), Turk (Derrell Marshall), The Wild Bunch (the 1969 defensive line of Al Cowlings, Jimmy Gunn, Willard Scott, Tody Smith and Charlie Weaver).

NIGHT TIME–USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1–The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

OFFENSIVE LINE–There have been 25 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 17 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND–USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS–USC's record in all season openers is 72-21-8 (.752), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 52-15-7 (.750), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-6-1 (.759).

In conference openers, USC is 56-11-5 (.813) and Troy has won 18 of its last 23 (and 31 of its last 37). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 33-6-3 (.821). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 23-5-2 (.800) and they've won 18 of their last 21.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 10, 1988 against Stanford.

USC's record for home openers is 75-17-7 (.793).

Incidentally, in games immediately following USC's 28 non-winning openers, Troy is 20-5-4, including wins the past 12 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-10 WINS–In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS–Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

RAIN–USC has an 18-19-2 record in games in which it rained during a major portion of the contest. USC's last such rain game was at Ohio State in 1990 (USC won, 35-26).

RAIN OUT—The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SAME STADIUM—USC's 1993 opener in Anaheim Stadium (it also closed 1992 there) was the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawaii in the same Honolulu location.

SEASON ENDERS—USC is 54-37-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT—USC's last home sellout was the 1993 UCLA game.

SNOW—The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS—USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25 game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION—USC has won 7 of its last 8 games (and 15 of its last 17) against Southwest Conference foes.

SUNDAY—USC has played only 1 game on a Sunday: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Class (USC lost, 31-9).

3 FOR THE ROAD—1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games in a row (in 1918 Troy began with 2 on the road and 1 at a neutral site, while in 1900 USC opened with 2 at a neutral site and 1 road game).

1,000-YARD RUNNERS—USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 23-19. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was tailback Mazio Royster in 1990, with 1,168 yards.

TOUGH STARTS—USC's last 6 head coaches—Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson (twice), Ted Tollner and Larry Smith—all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE—USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT—USC's record is 5-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS—In 101 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 29 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

VERSUS NO. 1—USC is 7-11 all-time versus teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM

USC has played football in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than two years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000. The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball (the Raiders currently play there). The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts will be a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $50 million of repairs (these repairs will continue during the 1994 season).

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 94,159 seats. However, for most USC games, a retractable fabric covers many seats, bringing the Coliseum's capacity to about 68,000. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

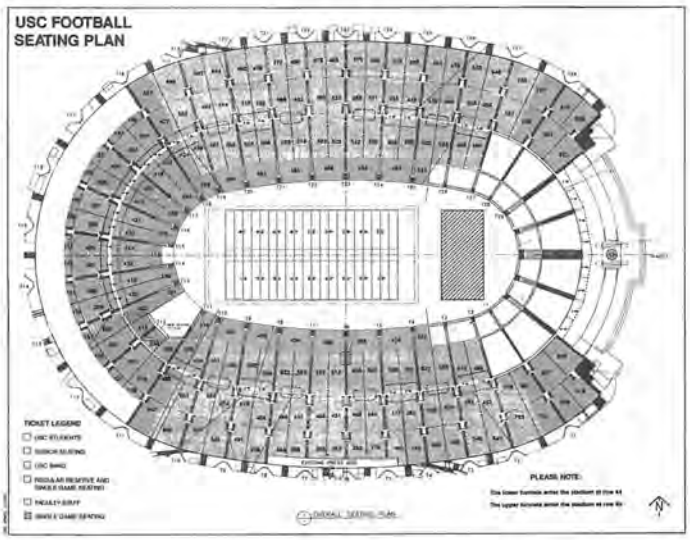
The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.



TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Tom Nolan, a USC alumnus, is the current rider of Traveler. He and Rick Oas shared riding duties in 1991and Nolan took over full-time in 1992 (Oas, also a USC graduate, began riding Traveler in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's longtime rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker now 31 years old, took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Twenty-five-year-old Traveler III, a 1,000-pound, 151/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 14-year-old Arabian brother who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games, but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 33 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including the last 8 years in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, at halftime of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, a costumed Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented white horse. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years and then George III for 5 years.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

COLORS: CARDINAL AND GOLD

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin, an 87-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is perhaps USC's most loyal football fan. He might even be the most rabid college football fan ever.

Going into the 1994 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 739 consecutive Trojan games, home and away. This season's Notre Dame contest will be his 750th game. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and auto more than 600,000 miles (and spent upwards of $75,000 doing so).

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 470-194-37 record. Pellerin has seen every USC-Notre Dame and USC-UCLA game ever played.

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including in 1993. But Trojan fate stepped in. Pellerin was about to leave his hotel the day after the 1993 Penn State road game when he suffered a ruptured aortic abdominal aneurysm. He was hospitalized in a Harrisburg (Pa.) hospital for 12 days, but fortunately USC had a bye that week and he was released in time for USC's next game, at home against Washington State. His streak was intact, with 2 days to spare!

Another near miss came in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours later after USC dumped Oregon, 40-13.

In the summer of 1988, Giles was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest. He was flown to New York City for the festivities.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 84, of Hawthorne, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1945. That's 529 in a row. Another brother, Max, 82, of Palm Springs, had a 300-plus string interrupted several seasons ago when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 22 times while in UCLA's hold (there have been 4 ties).

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The shillelagh awarded for year-long possession and display to the victor of the Trojan-Irish game was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was originally devised as the trophy by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it.

The foot-long shillelagh has emerald-studded shamrocks with the year and game score representing Notre Dame victories, while ruby-adorned Trojan heads stand for USC wins. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle."

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

—TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band–known as "The Spirit of Troy" –is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including "Hello Dolly") plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, and John Wayne.

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner is also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders and Yell Leaders.

TOMMY WALKER

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

— USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 76 men's and 13 women's, than any other university in the nation;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (267) than those from any other school in the nation;

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 272 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 87 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 53 silver and 46 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 43 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, second among all schools. In addition, USC has had 22 first team Academic All-Americans.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 20 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 630-254-52 (a .701 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 319-122-28 (.710). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 4 other occasions.

USC has the nation's fifth best bowl winning percentage among the 48 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.639) and its 27 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 23-13, including 19-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 118 times, with 38 of those consensus selections and 20 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978), returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to a share of the Pac-10 title.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 56 first round picks), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott and Junior Seau.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,823-870-14 (.676) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 34 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 33 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp and Mark McGwire. In all, more than 70 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college foes, making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1988 and 1990 squads came within 1 victory of the College World Series (his 1989, 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams were NCAA regional participants, too).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,210-835 (.592), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and has led Troy into the post-season playoffs the past 4 years. He was the 1992 national Coach of the Year while guiding the Top 10 Trojans to a 24-6 mark.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours over the last 14 years.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1993-94 and led USC to the Pac-10 title and the NCAA regional finals.

The Women of Troy made the NCAA tourney the past 4 years, including advancing to the regionals the last 3 seasons. Lisa Leslie won the Naismith Award in 1994.

WOMEN'S CREW--The women's crew team, under head coach George Jenkins, has varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 35 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over the coaching duties in 1993.

WOMEN'S GOLF--The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their second, third, fourth, fifth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships in 5 of the past 9 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989. Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs.

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti and Denise Strebig.

SAILING--Mike Segerblom, John Shadden and Russ Silvestri are recent additions in the long line of All-Americans produced by the USC sailing team, perhaps the most successful program on the West Coast. In fact, Troy has produced more All-Americans than any other West Coast school and has sent participants to the America's Cup, as well as the Olympics and other prestigious world events. USC's program, first recognized as a varsity sport in 1965, is co-ed. Segerblom serves as the coach.

WOMEN'S SOCCER--The women's soccer team began competing in the fall of 1993 under head coach Karen Stanley.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 69 times, winning 18 gold, 10 silver and 11 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 98 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including Brian Earley in platform diving in 1994) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 460 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His 1994 teams both placed sixth at the NCAAs.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 13 of the last 18 years, and have produced 125 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd and current star Kristine Quance (she won 3 events at the 1994 NCAA meet).

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 15 team champions (tied for most in the country), 12 singles champions, and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school).

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 420-76 (.847) mark in 15 years. His 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 116 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1 doubles champ and 60 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989.

MEN'S TRACK--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 73-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 30 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 371-101-4 (.784).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1916-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1994.

Fifty-eight USC tracksters have won 84 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 24 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 99 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1993 and 1994 NCAA champion Balazs Kiss in the hammer throw).

The Trojans have also had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY-- The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 4 times, including third in 1987. The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her in 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson was coach in 1992 and 1993.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. And Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there in the 18 years since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Nineteen Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and 25 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 4 of her 5 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 28 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

MEN'S WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 726-433-7 (.626) record, winning 10 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Fourteen of his last 17 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987 and 1993 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney.

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and there have been 69 All-Americans. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Greg Fults, Zach Stimson and Craig Furniss.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO--USC's newest sport, the women's water polo team will begin play in the spring of 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 68--far more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 13 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77). Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.

TROJANS NO. 1 IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only lead the nation in the number of national team championships (76 by the men and 13 by the women), but rank second (behind Air Force) in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (43, including 18 football players).

Also, USC has had 22 first team Academic All-Americans (including 19 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for fifth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award (the second most from any school), 8 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Rhodes Scholar (quarterback Pat Haden), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell) and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter six-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won it in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE GARRETT

Michael L. Garrett, so much a part of USC's unparalleled athletic tradition, was named the school's sixth-ever athletic director in January of 1993.

Garrett, Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback who has a background in business, law, government, athletic administration, and community affairs, will oversee the 21 men's and women's teams and the accompanying $19 million budget that make up the nation's most successful athletic program.

Already during his tenure, USC has won 2 NCAA titles (in men's tennis, 1993 and 1994).

Garrett, 50, succeeded Mike McGee, who became the athletic director at South Carolina after 9 years at USC.

Garrett became the seventh African-American athletic director at a major Division I-A institution.

Garrett had served as USC's associate athletic director since December of 1990. In that role, he was responsible for the athletic department's budget, personnel, contract compliance and corporate sponsorships. He also handled day-to-day supervision of 5 men's sports–volleyball, golf, tennis, swimming and water polo.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was director of business development for the Great Western Forum (1988-90), including its highly-successful boxing program.

Earlier in his career, he worked for the San Diego district attorney's office and as a youth counselor, held management position in the retail, construction and real estate industries, did color commentary on USC football telecasts, and ran for Congress (1982) and San Diego City Council (1983).

Garrett has been involved in community affairs since his days at USC. While in college, he helped found the Cool-Head Program, an organization that met with youth groups to try to offset racial tensions in Los Angeles, and volunteered at the MacLaren Children's Center, a home for abused children. Later, he founded San Diego's Harambee House, a community-based institution for juvenile delinquents.

He helped establish the East Los Angeles Youth Activities Foundation in 1989, a community-based group that runs boxing/educational clubs as a gang-intervention program. The program, funded in part by a grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation, continues to grow and now serves the entire Boyle Heights and Lincoln Heights areas of East Los Angeles.

Born April 12, 1944 in East Los Angeles, Garrett was a prep All-American at that neighborhood's Roosevelt High.

As a student at USC, Garrett set the standard for the modern-era "I" formation Trojan tailbacks. He was a 2-time All-American (1964-65) who set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including a then-NCAA career rushing mark of 3,221 yards and a then-USC season mark of 1,440 yards in 1965. He was the first Trojan since 1927 to run for 1,000 yards in a season.

A versatile athlete, he also started at cornerback for the Trojans and was an All-League outfielder for USC's baseball team (he hit .309 in 1965 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers).

Garrett played 8 seasons (1966-73) in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers, becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards for 2 teams. An All-Pro, he played in Super Bowls I and IV.

Garrett was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and won the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1990. He was a charter member of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame, which he founded in 1994.

Garrett graduated from USC in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a law degree from Western State University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif., in 1986.

Garrett and his wife, Suzanne, have 2 children, Sara, 12, and Daniel, 7.

Beth Woodin serves as Garrett's executive assistant.

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on march 31, 1991, is a professor of electrical engineering at USC and regularly teaches undergraduate courses, the most recent being a freshman seminar titled "Science and Technology in Human Culture" and a junior-level course in electro-magnetic theory.

He began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Washington, D.C.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering.

His paper on electronic motor starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue University. His patents in the field of digital appliance controls have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions. In 1980, Sample was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the department of electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, the flagship campus of the SUNY system. Sample held this post he held until accepting the USC presidency in 1991. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 58 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

In 1994, Sample was appointed chair of the AAU's committee on postdoctoral education.

Sample currently serves on the boards of directors of First Interstate Bancorp, Los Angeles; the Presley Companies Inc., Newport Beach, Calif.; Western Atlas, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Galaxy International, Los Angeles; and Rebuild L.A. (RLA). He is a trustee of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN), the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and the Regenstrief Medical Foundation, Indianapolis. He is a member of Project California and the Coalition of 100 of Los Angeles.

Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively, prior to receiving his Ph.D. at the same university in 1965. He received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from Canisius College in Buffalo in 1989, an honorarydoctor of laws degree from the University of Sheffield in England in 1991, an honorary doctor of education from Purdue University in 1994 and an honorary doctor or humane letters from Hebrew Union College in 1994

Sample received an Alumni Achievement Award from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1994 and the University of Illinois College of Engineering's Alumni Honor Award in 1985. He was chosen to receive Purdue University's prestigious Outstanding Electrical Engineer Award in 1993. The award, given yearly by the faculty of the university's School of Electrical Engineering, recognizes contributions made by alumni and faculty to the field of electrical engineering and related industries.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

Sample married the former Kathryn Brunkow of Park Ridge, Ill., in 1961. they have two daughters, Michelle Sample Smith and Melissa Ann Sample. Mrs. Sample is a certified surgical technologist.

USC NORRIS COMPREHENSIVE CANCER CENTER ON THE HEALTH SCIENCES CAMPUS

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With another 7 NCAA team championships claimed in 1993-94, more than any other conference, plus 36 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 210 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference, and 43 women's crowns, more than any league. Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 19 of the last 24 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics.

The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--13 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 28 baseball titles; 18 of the last 35, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 18 of the last 31 in swimming; 32 of the last 35 in tennis; 21 of the last 35 in water polo; and 18 of the last 25 in volleyball.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 13 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 8 occasions. Included in this are 10 of 13 tennis and softball championships, 3 of the last 4 volleyball titles, and 4 of the last 6 golf and swimming trophies. Plus the 224 NCAA individual titles leads all leagues by a comfortable margin.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 78 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950 with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed athletic competition at the university level. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962 with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's sports.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 10 men's and 11 women's sports, while Conference members are part of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in 6 additional sports.

Edward N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He has been succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian,and assistants Dave Schechter and Conni Shrope) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach John Robinson. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season. The Pac-10 Office also has a daily audio hotline featuring interviews with league coaches and players (call 510-932-1043).

JOHN ROBINSON MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Robinson hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to 7 days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning 2 hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press tickets (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), TV ribbons and photo ribbons (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--(Note: At press time, the status of the Coliseum press box was unknown because of damage suffered during the January 1994 earthquake.) Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The lower level has seats for the written press, while the upper level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in seats 244 to 251 in the back row of the lower level during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through the door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary hot meal is served in the kitchen (lower level, east end). Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Robinson and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play is announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact Ms. Elsa Miller at General Telephone at (800) 537-4571 ext. 5864 (tell her that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone). To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for press box extension). USC provides complimentary fax service in the press box. Fax, telecopier and computer terminal service for a fee also is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Robinson will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050, Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835 or Pat McClenahan of McClenahan-Kelly Productions at (818) 567-4220. Kirkpatrick and McClenahan (or McClenahan's assistant, Donna Moskal) also can be reached at Prime Ticket at (310) 286-3800.

Trojans in the Pros

PLAYERS

Sixteen of the last 18 years, USC has had the most players on National Football League rosters. This year alone, 47 Trojans grace the rosters of 21 of the NFL's 28 teams.

DRAFT

Nearly 400 Trojans have been drafted into the NFL, with many more making rosters as free agents. Since the first USC player was drafted in 1940, 56 Trojans have been 1st round selections–an average of one a year!

PRO BOWL

Trojan alums are among the brightest stars in the NFL. The annual showcase of the league's top talent, the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl, has had 162 Trojan participants.

SUPER BOWL

Sixty-eight Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. USC has been represented by a player in all but one of the 28 games. In Super Bowl XI alone, 9 Trojans played in the game. Two Trojans– Lynn Swann in Super Bowl X and Marcus Allen in XVIII – were named the game's MVP.

COACHES

USC provides the NFL with some of its best coaches. Among the former Trojans who have coached in the NFL are Joe Gibbs, formerly of Washington, Detroit's Wayne Fontes, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren, Chicago's Dave Wannstedt and Washington's Norv Turner. About two dozen Trojans were on NFL coaching staffs last year.

HALL OF FAME

Seven Trojans have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Among the recent inductees are O.J. Simpson, Willie Wood and Al Davis.
